

2019 Order Form for FREE Producer Ear Tags

New for 2019: The USDA is planning to transition to 840 RFID tags and away from NUES tags to promote and advance livestock traceability. For years we have been providing these free tags as a way to introduce these newer RFID tags and technology. In order to allow all interested producers a chance to receive tags, we are limiting the number of RFID tag orders to 100 tags per year. If you need to purchase more tags, please visit :
