

Cathy T. Mann, RVT, VTS (Surgery)

Cathy is currently employed by Blue Pearl and works as an Anesthesia Nurse in all three of its North Carolina locations in Cary, Raleigh, and Durham. She has worked in specialty surgery and anesthesia since 2005 and has a particular interest in orthopedic and minimally invasive surgery.

Cathy earned her Veterinary Technician Specialty in Surgery in 2014. She is the Past President of the Academy of Veterinary Surgical Technicians and has recently become the Credentials Committee Chair. Cathy has been a Registered Veterinary Technician in North Carolina since graduating from Central Carolina Community College in 2003 and also holds a bachelor's degree in Chemistry from Keene State College in Keene, NH.

Cathy shares her home with her husband, Tim and two dogs – Zoey, a Miniature Pinscher and MacKenzie, a Jack Russell Terrier. In her free time, she enjoys hiking, backyard birding, and gardening.