DECEMBER 2019

Message from the Grand High Priest

Greetings Companions.

Here it is, December, and the area meetings are behind us and from what I hear they were a success. I want to give a big Thank You to MEPGHP and PGC J Williams Riggs and to MEPGHP and PGC

James King for their part in making these area meetings a success.

While areas 7, 8, & 9 did not have the most in attendance they did raise the most money for RARA at $251.00. There was also money raised at the Reception for the three presiding officers; in all, the total for all three area meeting and reception $749.00. I want to give thanks to several people who were responsible for the success of the raffles; my Grand RAC Jim Porter, Marsha Porter and my wife Pam Sears. Without their work we would not have raised the money for RARA.

I want to thank all that took the time to join us at the Joint York Rite Reception. There was good fellowship and good food. I want to thank Companions Tom Brown, Kevel Chinn, Howard Eaton and George Arnold for their part in seeing that the reception came together without a "hitch".

I hope that all of our members had a wonderful Thanksgiving with good food and more importantly with family. I know that my family had a good time with our "boys" coming up from Charleston, SC.

This will be last letter before Christmas, so I will take this time to wish each and every one of the Companions a very Merry Christmas and remind us all, the real meaning of the season, the birth of Jesus. In that spirit we need to watch over our aged and infirmed neighbors and those that are in need. Just think, if we all did just one little thing in helping our communities what a world of difference we could make.

Fraternally,

Rick Sears

Christmas Message from the Grand Chaplain of the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of Kentucky

Grand Chaplain, Grand Chapter of Kentucky, RAM

THE SPIRIT OF CHRISTMAS

It's that time of year when the Christmas trees are decorated, the Christmas lights are up, and shoppers are hurrying to buy those last-minute special gifts. At most churches' preparations are well underway for Christmas plays, choir practices for Christmas music programs, and Christmas parties. The Post Office sees an increase in mail because of packages and Christmas cards that must arrive at their destination by December 25th. It's a "hustle and bustle time", for sure.

The commercials on T.V. and the "made for T.V." movies sell the idea of Christmas to the masses. "It's Beginning to Look a Lot Like Christmas" is sung and played on radio and T.V. constantly. Radio stations play Christmas music 24/7. Christmas, undoubtedly, is the biggest commercial season of the year.

At this time of year, we constantly hear about the Spirit of Christmas, how we should get the Christmas Spirit. The media is right about one thing, it is a time to love your fellow man.

Our children look for Santa Claus and we let everyone know that if you don't believe in Santa Claus you don't have any Christmas Spirit.

It's good to give gifts and put up Christmas trees and lights this time of year. They are beautiful and they do lift one's spirit. But, is that really the "Spirit of Christmas"?

We hear the statement that "Jesus is the reason for the season". Jesus is at the center of Christmas. Christmas is a time we have set aside to celebrate the birth of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. It is truly a time of love. It is a time to exchange gifts because it is an act of love. We do and say things to express our love for our fellow man. But shouldn't we be doing these things all year long?

Jesus taught us to love one another; to love our neighbor as ourselves. That is the true "Spirit of Christmas". God wants us to love each other all year long. He wants us to have love in our hearts for one another. It doesn't matter what color we are or where we are from, he wants us to love one another. We celebrate the birth of Jesus by the giving of ourselves and having his love in our hearts. So, when you see the Christmas trees, lights and decorations, the Christmas programs and songs, realize that none of this would be without Jesus. These worldly things all proclaim the birth of Jesus, our Lord and Savior. He is "The Spirit of Christmas".

Merry Christmas To All.

From the Editor

Greetings, Companions!

My special appreciation this month to the Grand Chaplains/Grand Prelate for their submission of articles to the Keystone. Please be sure to read their articles and let them know that you appreciate their efforts as well.

We're a few pages short this month; the holiday season, family activities, shopping, Grand receptions, and life in general slow down our Masonic endeavors this time of year. I know that many of our Commanderies in particular are planning Observances, and I will be spending much of the remainder of today involved with our Observance in Williamsburg. I've taken the liberty to place some of those that I'm aware of on the calendar of events found further on in the newsletter. Let me encourage you to send pictures of your Observances; I do hear from folks who enjoy seeing what is happening across the state. The old adage that a picture speaks a thousand words is still true, and while Facebook can be a wonderful thing, we have a number of subscribers who don't do Facebook.

I must confess that this has never been one of my favorite times of the year. The stress, the craziness, the traffic, all make me want to just go away until it's over. It's also one of my favorite times of the year, as a person of faith; The promise, the hope, the peace and serenity that gets through all the other when we slow down and take the time to consider the awe-inspiring wonder of the events that we celebrate on December 25th.

I pray that each of you and those you love have a wonderful Christmas.

This Christmas may you have...

*"Walls for the wind
And a roof for the rain,
And drinks bedside the fire,
Laughter to cheer you,
And those you love near you,
And all that your heart may desire."*

Christmas Message from the Grand Chaplain of the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of Kentucky

Carl Jones, PMIGM,
Grand Chaplain, Grand
Council of Kentucky,

Isaiah 9:6 (KJV)

6 For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace.

The prophet Isaiah told of the birth of Christ approximately 700 years before the birth of our Lord and Savior. As we gather with family and friends during this very special time of the year let us all remember the true meaning of Christmas. My prayer for all is that each will be blessed with safety as we travel, good health to each and all we love and blessing from the Christ of Christmas to each and every one.

Luke 2 (KJV)

2 And it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus that all the world should be taxed.

2 (And this taxing was first made when Cyrenius was governor of Syria.)

3 And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city.

4 And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judaea, unto the city of David, which is called Bethlehem; (because he was of the house and lineage of David:)

5 To be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child.

6 And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered.

7 And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn.

8 And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night.

9 And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid.

10 And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.

11 For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord.

12 And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.

13 And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying,

14 Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.

Merry Christmas

Christmas Message 2019

Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of Kentucky

Archie R. Smallwood, PGC
Grand Prelate
Grand Commandery of
Knights Templar of Kentucky

Sir Knights, it is the Christmas Season and we as Soldiers of the Cross should reflect on this time of year with a renewed desire to complete our obligation of being just what we profess to be. As Knight Templar we are to protect not only travelers on their pilgrimage but to ensure that we set an example to others by our actions and devotion to our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, who we know to be the Captain of our Salvation.

Today we know of taxation, and even then, when our Savior was born, Mary and Joseph had to return to the city of David because Joseph was of the lineage of David to be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child. The time passes and Jesus was born in a lowly manger; because there was no room in the inn for them. The Wise Men sought Him and presented Him with gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

As we reflect on this wonderful story of our Savior's birth and through His life the many miracles he performed, we should realize just what He gave to us, the greatest gift of all for our salvation and that was His death on the cross, no greater gift.

Sir Knights during this Christmas season, let us gather and share with our families and friends the greatest gift ever given. May God continue to bless each and every one of you and our fraternal order of Knights Templar.

Courteously,

Sir Knight Archie R Smallwood
Grand Prelate
Grand Commandery of Kentucky, KT

THE MORE YOU KNOW

We are charged to hold our elections on Saint John the Evangelist's Day, December 27, and frequently reference "the holy Saints John" in our ritual. Herewith a few extractions about the Saints John taken from the Dr. Mackey's 'Encyclopedia of Freemasonry'. Editor

Saint John the Evangelist. One of the patron saints of Freemasonry, whose festival is celebrated on the 27th of December. His constant admonition, in his Epistles, to the cultivation of brotherly love, and the mystical nature of his Apocalyptic visions, have been, perhaps, the principal reasons for the veneration paid to him by the Craft. Notwithstanding a well-known tradition, all documentary evidence shows that the connection of the name of the Evangelist with the Masonic Order is to be dated long after the sixteenth century, before which time St John the Baptist was exclusively the patron saint of Masonry. The two are, however, now always united, for reasons set forth in the article on the Dedication of Lodges, which see.

Saint John the Baptist. One of the patron saints of Freemasonry, and at one time, indeed, the only one, the name of St. John the Evangelist having been introduced subsequent to the sixteenth century. His festival occurs on the 24th of June, and is very generally celebrated by the Masonic fraternity. Dalcho (Ahim Eez., p. 150.) says that "the stern integrity of St. John the Baptist, which induced him to forego every minor consideration in discharging the obligations he owed to God; the unshaken firmness with which he met martyrdom rather than betray his duty to his Master; his steady reproof of vice, and continued preaching of repentance and virtue, make him a fit patron of the Masonic institution."

The Charter of Cologne says: "We celebrate, annually, the memory of St. John, the Forerunner of Christ and the Patron of our Community." The Knights Hospitallers also dedicated their Order to him; and the ancient expression of our ritual, which speaks of a "Lodge of the Holy St. John of Jerusalem," probably refers to the same saint.

It is worthy of note that the Grand Lodge of England was revived on St. John the Baptist's day, 1717, and that the annual feast was kept on that day until 1727, when it was held for the first time on the festival of the Evangelist.

Opening of the Lodge A Lodge is said to be opened in the name of God and the Holy Saints John, as a declaration of the sacred and religious purposes of the meeting, of profound reverence for that Divine Being whose name and attributes should be the constant themes of contemplation, and of respect for those ancient patrons whom the traditions of Masonry have so intimately connected with the history of the Institution.

To my knowledge there have been only 7,677 Gold Awards given in college history. If we count America and Canada only, that is less than 100 awards given per year across both countries. A rare and select group of recipients so these are pretty special brothers and pillars of the craft. Without their influence and works the craft would be so much less. One recipient has more than fifty years of service to the craft and that was just a start of their service to mentoring and faithful help in so many degrees worked over the years but always being in the background as brothers were initiated. Worthy Brothers.
