HOW TO GET RICH QUICK

By Reverend Dollie Harrell

Sermon by the late Rev. Dollie Harrell, Founder and Pastor of The Pentecostal Revival Center- Palatka, Florida

This pamphlet will tell you how anyone can get rich quick. Yes, that is right, anyone that follows the advice of this pamphlet will be rich.

You know, if you really think about it, life is very short, and it is also very restricted. Take money for instance. Money is restricted to this earth. You cannot take one penny of that money you have down at the bank with you once you leave this world, or life. As Jesus said in Luke 9:25, "For what is a man advantaged, if he gained the whole world, and lose himself, or be cast away." If this is true, which it is, we must conclude that money is worthless, for we cannot take it beyond this life.

One might ask then, "How can I be rich?"
The answer is simple, you are rich when you are eternally rich.

"But as it is written, Eye have not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God have prepared for them that love him", 1st Corinthians 2:19.

By becoming a Christian, which is accepting Jesus Christ as master, one automatically becomes an heir to his riches. These riches are beyond monetary value. They are even beyond comprehension.

Jesus is soon coming back to receive his bride, the church, unto him, for Jesus promised, and "If I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself, that where I am, there you may be also", John 14:3.

As one Christian asked me, "Do I receive riches in this life?" Of course you do. The riches received are spiritual riches, faith, hope, and charity. (1st Corinthians 13:13).
If you are rich in faith, hope, and charity, which the true Christian is, then you will be a happy person.

God has never let one of his children go without. As David once said in Psalms 37:25, "I have been young, and now old; yet have I not seen the righteous forsaken nor his seed begging bread."

Thus, the riches received by the Christian are the priceless intangibles; Joy, love, and happiness. Jesus went to prepare a place for a prepared people.

Are you prepared to go?

FAITH, HOW DOES IT WORK?
By Pastor Troy Wiley

There is something that can work, and can make things work, when nothing can or will work. Faith will work when nothing is working. And faith can go where nothing else can go. Faith can work when the office is closed. Faith can pay bills when the bank and the loan company are out of business. And faith can cause needs to be met, when every door is closed. Faith, how does it work, and will it work for you?

This question concerning faith has a definite answer, and the answer is from the only source that can be trusted. This source is revealed in the Holy Scripture by this verse, "It is impossible for God to lie", Hebrews 6:18. And Jesus said, "According to your faith, so be it unto you", Matthew 9:29.

Faith sees beyond the two fish and the five loaves. Faith sees the multitude fed, over five thousand, and faith sees the twelve baskets full, when it's all over. Faith always ends up with more than what you started with. Faith works when we see the invisible. Faith works when we believe without seeing, John 20:29.

Faith takes a hold of the invisible and causes it to materialize. Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, Hebrews 11:1. Therefore, one must see that it is faith that causes the invisible to materialize and become visible. The question is, is there something in your life that you desire to see? Is there something in your life that you desire to put your eyes upon in the natural? You must first see it by faith.

Pastor Dollie Harrell, founder of The Pentecostal Revival Center in Palatka, Florida, for years would raise the windows in the church and ask the people, do you see the lights of the TV tower. She was believing God for the TV station known as Gospel Vision. She was birthing it by the Spirit. She saw it when it was not there. She saw it coming by faith and in faith. Today the Gospel Vision TV station has won many thousands of souls to the Lord. And it continues, as a result of the working of faith in Sister Dollie's life. She saw the lights years before they were there.Is it possible to see something that is not there? Is it possible to see the answer when it's not there? Is it possible to know that you are healed when you are sick? Faith is the substance of things hope for. If you are willing to believe it by faith, God can cause it to manifest.

This is why the Bible teaches that the sick are to say that they are healed, Job 22:28.

Faith can work without anything being said. Faith can work without anything being done. Faith can work whenever and wherever we need it to work, as long as we activate our faith from the inside. The Bible says God gave to every man the measure of faith, Romans 12:3. If we cannot speak, we can still activate our faith in our human spirit. If we cannot move physically, we can still move by faith. This is all from within.

Faith works when it is activated internally. In other words, before there is anything that can materialize, or before the invisible becomes visible, faith must be activated from within. Faith without works is dead. Dead faith will not work. But where there is within the will of the human being, to believe God and release faith, faith will cause the invisible to materialize.

OUR CHURCH IN SHANNON

By Pastor Troy Wiley

In this sermon, I want to share with you a story about a vision from God, and its fulfillment. This story is very true because God showed it to me over many years, and I'm sharing it with you. All of it is to God's glory. The Bible says where there is no vision, the people perish. The things that God shows us, can keep us alive. If we are willing to walk by faith, the hand of God can hold back death, if we believe what his Spirit reveals to us. This vision is something I saw by the Spirit. Some professed Christians today, don't believe in visions from God. This is not in line with God's Word. For the Bible says your young men shall see visions, Acts 2:17. The Lord said in the Word, he would pour out his Spirit upon all flesh. And part of this outpouring would be prophecy and visions from God, in the last days.

When I was about 18 or 19 years old, I was on Shannon Road, driving to a home prayer meeting in the country. I was not on the road I was use to taking, because I had made a wrong turn. Despite that, I was right where God wanted me to be. I was going through Shannon, North Carolina, on the way to cut through Lumberton. Prayer service was in South Carolina. Going down Shannon Road, I was in prayer. I had been asking the Lord to guide me to the right road to get back on my way to where I was supposed to be going. While I was praying, the Lord showed me by the Spirit, an open vision. This is how it happened. While looking to see if I could recognize where I was, I saw a block building with unpainted block. It had two French glass doors on the front. As I looked at it in the natural, this building was turned into a church in a vision, I saw the glory of God upon that old block building. I saw God's Spirit showing me that this building should be used for a country church, and in a vision, God let me see and know that he would let me be part of this vision in the time to come. I saw that ground that the building stood on, as Holy ground. God breathed on me in this vision. And the breath of God made me to know, that one day in the future, I would Pastor a church in Robeson County. Looking back now, this vision was before God showed me the church in Carthage, North Carolina in a dream. At the time God showed this vision to me, I was working with Sister Pearl Hall, and I was a member and an officer in her church. But God sees all things. To everything there is a season, a time to every purpose under the heaven, Ecclesiastes 3:1. God was speaking, and he was showing me a vision of the future. this vision was in the plan of God for my life and ministry. This vision was in 1993.

Following this vision from God, I would have the invitation to pastor a church in South Carolina. My pastoral responsibility there lasted for two years. Once that was complete, I returned to Sister Pearl Hall's Church in Raeford. I worked with her for another several years and the church and property in Raeford was paid off and debt free while she was the pastor, and I was to clerk. But this vision from God in Shannon never left me. Years went by and I was directed to organize a non-denominational church in Moore County, North Carolina. It would be and is in Carthage, North Carolina. The Lord told me that is where I was to start a church. The Lord gave me a dream concerning an empty church building. That building was found and purchased. From that church, the Lord promised me another church in Aberdeen, North Carolina. I waited 12 years, and God brought that to pass.

In 2015, one night the phone rang. I was invited to hold a prayer service in Pembroke, North Carolina. From that service in Pembroke, a definite move of God began to take shape. Over the next few months, this move of God would take me down Shannon Road. And after 20 years, I was holding service in a house, right down the road from the building that God gave me the vision of so many years before.

The Lord gave my mother a Word that year. She told me the Lord said that I would have a church in Robeson County. She had never heard me mention the vision that God gave me all those years before. Another minister prophesied over me in a service on my birthday, and told me that God would give me property, homes, churches and land in Robeson County. She had never heard me share the vision that God gave me all the years before.
On January 1, 2017, the Lord spoke to me and told me to take a witness and go to the property in Shannon where I had the vision all those years before. No one knew that this was divinely appointed more than me. God put everything in order. He told me that I would end up on the inside of that building before the sun set that day. God who is always faithful to his Word, worked this series of miracles. And before the sun set that day, I had been allowed to go inside that building, which by this time had been vacant and abandoned for many years.

So many years had passed, and I saw the hand of God performing his Will. Time is not a problem, as long as we are willing to wait upon the Lord. This vision from God came to pass. When people from Robeson County, came all the way to our services in Carthage and Aberdeen, I would say to them, don't worry God is going to give us a church in Robeson County I see it and I know It by the Spirit.

The organization that had the deed to the property in Shannon, had gone into partial dissolution. As a result, the property returned legally back to the municipality of the county. A process had to be initiated where in the county would take the property back through the court, and then auctioned off to the highest bidder. God sent an angel into the service one Sunday night at our church in Aberdeen and told me that we would be in the church in Shannon in 30 days. That same week the phone rang from the district attorney in Robeson County, asking me to bid on the property. On Easter Sunday that year, I told the church that God assured me that nobody would bid on it. And on April 17, 2018 we purchased that property and paid cash. God gave us a beautiful facility in Robeson County. The vision was fulfilled. Though it tarry wait for it will surely come. These doors are open to feed the hungry both naturally and spiritually. These doors are open to clothe those that are in need spiritually and naturally. God provided everything that has been needed for the ministry. To God be all the glory.

MONEY AND FAITH

By Pastor Troy Wiley

The Bible says money answers all things, Eccleciastes 10:19, and of course we know this is true. If you really want to know about a situation or about what a person is really made of, just see how they do by money, and you will have the answer. Money answers what is really important in a person's heart. And where your treasure is, there will your heart be also, Matthew 6:21. In many ways, money, or how we let money move us, can make or break our faith.

Jesus said, the poor you have always, Matthew 26:11.There has always been those poor in the means of this world that we are to bless and try to care for. It is not always clear why some are in the poverty that they are in. And some who are financially without, possess great spiritual wealth. This is a great truth. But God has said he wished above all things, that we would prosper, and be in health, 3 John 2.

The enemy knows that greed is a spirit. Some people who say they are conservative, meaning they love to save, they miss alot of blessings because they do not love to give. The Lord loves a cheerful giver, 2 Corinthians 9:7. Many are living under a spirit of poverty and financial bondage, because they have never let God liberate their faith, so that they become willing to give. The seed remains in their hands, so they pay for it with the lack of victory in their life.

Greed and poverty are spiritually related. Because people talk lack and poverty, what money they do get or have, they greedily hold on to it, not even offering it to God, in their tithes and offerings. This is what the Lord told us in Malachi. He said that he had been robbed, Malachi 3:8. Think about the Lord who owns everything, telling his own people, you have robbed me.

Faith and money relate to one another, more closely then what you may think. Some wonder why consistent blessings and victory are so hard to obtain, but look at the money situation, and you may very well find the reason. They claim the blessings, but they are not willing to believe God to help them tithe and give consistently. Money has somehow broken their faith down. They are willing to believe God for everything, except victory in their finances.

Faith and finances are related in at least three ways. One way is because of the curse. When we do not honor God with the first fruits of our substance, which is the tithe and then honor him with a free will offering, the Bible says we are cursed with a curse, Malachi 3:9. This curse is a spiritual curse, and it also has to do with the natural and physical life as well. It is very difficult to walk in victory in faith, when there is a double curse over your life because of financial disobedience. Deuteronomy the 28th chapter explains these curses. So faith and finances go hand in hand. If we walk in faith and obey God in our finances, we will prosper and we will not live under the curse. If we disobey God with our finances there will be a double curse there and this will hinder our faith, because the curses will be present.

Our finances and faith are also related in the area of pleasing God. The Bible teaches without faith it is impossible to please him. When we do not have faith to believe God and to obey him concerning our finances, then we are disobedient and we cannot please him in the same manner. This opens the door for instability and inconsistency. This can greatly hinder our faith. The Bible says he that wavereth is as the wave of the sea driven by the wind and tossed, and let not that man think he shall receive anything from God, James 1:6.

The third area where our faith and our finances relate is concerning our family. If we are raising a family, and we lack the proper faith for our finances, it opens the door for struggles and curses to be passed on to our natural descendants. This is why we are to lay up a foundation of good works against the evil days to come. We are to lay up in store for our children, so when the Lord has taken us home to glory, they will have a spiritual inheritence. Part of this laying up in store, 1 Timothy 6:19, is to pass on the type of faith that will cause the blessing to come in the area of finances to our children.

THE YEAR 2025, BREAK THE CURSE

By Pastor Troy Wiley

The scriptures teach in the book of Proverbs there is no curse without a cause, Proverbs 26:2. The Lord has given to me a word concerning the year 2025. This is a time that God has ordained for curses to be broken off of our life. The will of the Lord is always for his people to be set free. If you be willing and obedient you should eat the good of the land, Isaiah 1:19. God's will is for his people to be liberated from bondage and curses.

I have seen people who were in a demonic rage. I have seen the Lord touch those people and that rage leave, yet they were not completely delivered. The difference between a full deliverance and a partial deliverance, is the will of the individual. In other words, if the person is not willing to open up to God, that curse cannot fully be broken and that deliverance cannot be complete.

Curses come upon individuals, upon families, upon nations, and upon churches for spiritual reasons. We reap what we sow. If we sow unto the flesh, we shall reap of the flesh corruption. Be not deceived God is not mocked, Galatians 6:7-8. When there is rebellion in the life of an individual, it opens the door for spiritual strongholds to be put in place by the demonic and satanic powers of the enemy.

There are times that it is so clear that God is ready to completely deliver an individual, but yet they draw back. The Bible says if any man shall draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him, Hebrews 10:38. I have seen people who opened up only to a certain extent or a certain point. And then they stopped. they would not go any further. They would not go any deeper, and they would not go any higher. In essence, their faith to believe God for more was cut off because of their will. In order to have God's best, we must open up from the inside. Our will must open up so that God can do his will in our life.

The enemy comes to steal, kill and destroy, John 10:10. When man fell in the garden, he opened up to the curse. When Cain rebelled against God, a curse came upon his life and upon his descendants. Many times there is much effort everyday put into living under the curse. There is an alternative. There is a spiritual option. There is a better way. That way is the way of obedience and liberty. Where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty, 2 Corinthians 3:17.

God's will for his people in the year 2025 is to be liberated from bondage, and to come out from under the curse of compromise. The Word of God tells us neither give place to the devil, Ephesians 4:27. It is within the will of man and the faith of God for the human spirit to be delivered. He whom the son set free is free indeed. If the individual will let God deliver them from curses and strongholds, not only will they be liberated individually, but it will open up the door for their descendants to be set free in the days to come. The Bible says, thy and thine house shall be saved, Acts 16:31.
