

Welcome to the Skibbereen Farm Spring Newsletter!!Feb. 2017*Summer will be here before you know it!

Skibbereen Farm has lots to do for your horse enthusiast ... especially more opportunities for them to spend time at the barn.

Summer Camp is coming!!! Want to learn more about horses? Sign up for summer camp. Camp runs 9 am - 1 pm Tuesday - Friday in July & August. More information online at www.skibbereenfarm.com.

Have you already taken summer camp? Want to learn more? If you're thinking of showing in the near future, then the Advance Camp is perfect for you! This interactive camp is open to all students who are already taking lessons. Check us out online or talk to Molly for more details.

Calling all Volunteers!! Need service hours for school?

Skibbereen is looking for camp volunteers to help the beginner campers during our summer camp sessions. Sign up sheet is up in the A-barn or call Molly to let her know your availability.

Just a safety reminder about dress code. Appropriate foot wear is mandatory in the barns - no flip flops or sandals. Students should wear full length pants - no shorts. Long hair should be back in ponytail or braided. We thank our older students for being such great role models for our younger riders.

Skibbereen is proud to announce we will be part of the 2018 Buffalo Show Series!

Save the Date: July 29, 2018

The Buffalo Show Series is open to all riders who wish to show locally. A sign up sheet for all horseshow dates will be posted in the A-Barn. Students participating in the Advance Camp receive a discount towards the Skibbereen Show fees. Anyone interested in showing should speak with Molly or Chrissie for further details.

Congratulations to the Skibbereen IEA team for a great show season! Ally Dann, Mara Keats, Mackenzie Kelly, and Amanda Schurr all made it to regionals on March 3rd. Good Luck girls! The Interscholastic Equestrian Association (IEA) is open to students in grades 6-12. Please see Molly or Chrissie if you are interested in joining the team for the 2018-2019 season.

RELEASE FORM/PAYMENT POLICY UPDATES

Summer also brings a busy lesson schedule. Please fill out and return updated release forms and payment policy. All lesson students are required to pay for their monthly lessons on the first lesson day of the month for the entire month. Students are required to take a minimum of 4 lessons per month. You are paying for your lesson slot; NOT by attendance.

We look forward to another busy, fun-filled, and safe summer!!

Chrissie and Molly
