We would like to thank you all for the special Bags of Blessing. We enjoyed all the treats and all of the special notes and words of greeting and love. We have been lonely this past year but the Lord is taking care of us. It is a blessing to be part of a loving church congregation.

—Adeline and Char Groen

Thank you for the Bag of Blessing with your notes of love and encouragement, the wonderful gifts and all the tasty treats...they are already packed for my upcoming road trip. It is truly a blessing to be part of Emden! —Connie Mulder

Dear friends, it has been a hot and dusty dry season with never-ending sweeping and dusting in our house, but we just had rain for several days so there are signs the rainy season is coming! We just have one blog post for you today at <https://anthsara.blogspot.com>

Kotido TLT Workshop and Graduation

Please pray for these graduates as they go out and teach what they have learned. Next time, you'll get to see a blog post from Sara about what she was up to in Kotido at the same time. We are grateful for your prayers for us. We've been feeling quite tired lately, and ask that you pray for our rejuvenation. It is our own fault, but we have made ourselves over-committed to many different things, so we need to do the hard work of saying "no" to some things. Please pray that we are strong enough to go against our pride, realize our limits, and set some new boundaries. We would love to pray for you as well so we invite you to share your prayer requests with us. We are grateful for all of you.

—Anthony and Sara

Mickey McKee, teen King of the Song-Pluggers, dreams of writing the next crackerjack million-selling hit-song. She becomes Mickey's partner/sweetheart/arch-nemesis when she pulls on the trousers that she once sewed to be named the new King of the Pluggers. As they navigate first love, class-struggles, social reform, street-gangs, and ukuleles, Mickey, Betty and company make Tin Pan Alley sing and dance again, selling the songs that we're all still humming a hundred years later.

The Persecuted Church - Niger

Rejected Son Now Leading Others

A young man who was kicked out of his home when he became a Christian is now leading a church. Annahi became a Christian as a teenager after he visited a church out of curiosity. After he gave his life to Christ, he was chased out of his Muslim family’s home, and his father disinherited him. He took refuge in his church, until he connected with a Christian ministry who provided him with job training. During his time as a student, Annahi was able to share the gospel with multiple families in the neighborhood. Two of those formerly Muslim households gave their lives to Christ, and Annahi led the two households in daily devotionals and prayer. Now that Annahi has finished his mechanic training, he is in a village completing an internship and planting churches in his new community during his free time. Pray for Annahi as he continues to share Christ where God has him. Pray for the impact of his faith to spread.

Continue to pray for area churches: Ebenezer Presbyterian, St. John’s Lutheran, First Lutheran, United Methodist, Holy Redeemer, Our Saviors Lutheran, Temple of Jesus Christ, Hispanic Church and Emden. Ask God to continue to move through His church to the glory of His kingdom. Remember—we are part of God’s kingdom and need to always be following Him.

Are you continuing to pray that God would use us to share His love and the Good News of the Gospel with our community? Pray that the presence of God will shine through us, the Emden Church Family, and that He will use us in His Kingdom will.

~ OUR MISSION ~

*Our mission is affirming the Lordship of Christ, expressing our faith through worship, fellowship, growth and service.
We would welcome you to share with us the joy of this exciting venture of faith.*
