CHURCH FAMILY

Pastor David & family will be on vacation this week. If a need arises, please call one of the Elders.

From Anthony & Sara Sytsma: Thank you so much for your faithful financial support for me and Anthony and the work we are doing in Uganda. We also appreciate your prayers and encouragement. We are doing well and enjoying plenty of good teaching opportunities. Also, like we shared lately, we are praising God for the way he has been working in the life of Julius, our night guard, and his friends with whom he has shared the Gospel and led to Christ. Please continue to pray with us that Julius and his friends would continue to grow in their relationship with God and their understanding of their Christian faith.

I am excited to share with you some really inspiring and encouraging testimonies. They are about the continuing impact of Timothy Leadership Training since the graduation we had a few years ago. See our blog - <http://anthysara.blogspot.com> As I noted in the email last week, I am fundraising for a new project with Timothy Leadership Training. This is a wonderful opportunity for you to get involved with the great things God is doing in Uganda! I am very grateful for your partnership. Please see this website for more details - Timothy Leadership Training Assistants

The Persecuted Church: CRC Congregations Invited to Join in Day of Justice, Aug. 19

Christian Reformed Church congregations are encouraged to commemorate the CRC's first Day of Justice on Aug. 19 in whatever ways they set fit to honor the theme of the day.

However, a range of justice resources are available for churches to use in worship or in other ways.

If this date doesn't work, churches are asked to pick another day is better for them. "Doing justice can come in a variety of actions. As the church, may CRC members use their resources towards those who need hope," said Reggie Smith, director of the CRC's Office of Social Justice and Race Relations.

Designated by Synod 2017, this day is a time to remember as "Christians, we are called to a lifetime of justice and righteousness," says the website linking to the resources.

"In the earliest parts of the Old Testament, God calls people to be stewards of creation and to care for their brothers and sisters."

Then in the New Testament, "Jesus models a new kind of justice that includes extending the gospel to all people, appropriately challenging authority, and caring for the "least of those" among us."

In the words of the synodical recommendation, "This day will serve as a designated time for congregations to consider the meaning of biblical justice, to lament injustices in the world, and to commit themselves to the transforming work of standing alongside people whom society oppresses and pushes to the margins."

The timing of the Annual Day of Justice, the third Sunday in August, aligns with the United Nations designated World Humanitarian Day in its call "for global solidarity with the more than 130 million people around the world who need humanitarian assistance to survive."

Are you continuing to pray that God would use us to share His love and the Good News of the Gospel with our community? Pray that the presence of God will shine through us, the Emden Church Family, and that He will use us in His Kingdom will.

Continue to pray for area churches: Ebenezer Presbyterian, St. John's Lutheran, First Lutheran, United Methodist, Holy Redeemer, Our Saviors Lutheran, Temple of Jesus Christ, Hispanic Church and Emden. Ask God to continue to move through His church to the glory of His kingdom. Remember—we are part of God's kingdom and need to always be following Him.

"Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your request to God"
