Summary of Purpose

- The State's Attorney is the chief law enforcement officer in and for the County and is also the chief legal adviser for the County.
- The State's Attorney has many duties, including, but not limited to, the following:
- To commence and prosecute all actions, suits, indictments and prosecutions, civil and criminal, in the circuit court for her county, in which the people of the State or county may be concerned.
 - To prosecute all forfeited bonds and recognizances, and all actions and proceedings for the recovery of debts, revenues, moneys, fines, penalties and forfeitures accruing to the State or her county, or to any school district or road district in her county; also, to prosecute all suits in her county against railroad or transportation companies, which may be prosecuted in the name of the People of the State of Illinois.
 - To commence and prosecute all actions and proceedings brought by any county officer in her official capacity.
 - To defend all actions and proceedings brought against her county, or against any county or State officer, in her official capacity, within her county.
 - To attend the examination of all persons brought before any judge on habeas corpus, when the prosecution is in her county.
 - To attend before judges and prosecute charges of felony or misdemeanor, for which the offender is required to be recognized to appear before the circuit court, when in her power so to do.
 - To give her opinion, without fee or reward, to any county officer in her county, upon any question or law relating to any criminal or other matter, in which the people or the county may be concerned.
 - To appear in all proceedings by collectors of taxes against delinquent taxpayers for judgments to sell real estate, and see that all the necessary preliminary steps have been legally taken to make the judgment legal and binding.
