

Our Mission

Mission

Caliburn provides consulting, engineering, program management, construction management and mission support services that address fundamental needs for resource management, medical, environment, infrastructure, and international development.

Core Values

We are a values-based organization that achieves mission success by building long-term partnerships with our customers through the delivery of superior technical solutions and services. Our core values guide us as we perform for our customers and our communities.

Ethics and Integrity

Unwavering adherence and commitment to ethical business practices and behaviors which demonstrate the highest levels of integrity. Always choose the hard right over the easy wrong. Do the right thing.

Service

We aggressively pursue innovative, creative solutions that meet or exceed the needs of every customer, partner, and employee.

Collaborate

Connecting with our colleagues, customers and partners to build diverse teams that can leverage expertise, experience and efficiency to create innovative solutions.

Transparency

"We have great relationships with our clients because we're transparent; we don't hide anything." Gary G. Palmer, Chief Client Officer

Inspire

We hold ourselves and others to ambitious standards – operationally, professionally, and personally. Our people and customers are important to us and we want the best for one another and our communities.
