CANDIDATE PROFILE: DAVID RICHARDSON, LD12 SENATE

VOTE FOR David Richardson, Republican candidate for Arizona State House

LD12. According to his web page: Born and raised in Phoenix, David attended Arizona public schools (Richard E. Miller, Madison Meadows, and Sunnyslope) and ultimately earned a full-ride scholarship to Arizona State University. Balancing a full-time student course load while supporting himself through full-time employment, David became a first-generation college graduate, finishing with a B.S. in Mechanical Engineering and a PSM in Nanoscience. David ventured out on his own to start his first business in 2016. He and his co-founders developed drug discovery and diagnostic tools to enable truly personalized treatment for cancer patients, winning multiple federal and local grants for their projects. In addition to his professional projects, David routinely mentors local men and women who have a desire to start their own small businesses, ranging from nonprofits to deep tech. He has been an active member of his church since 2012, where he served as a volunteer youth pastor for high school students. Outside of Arizona, David has served on over a dozen humanitarian projects in Central America, South America, Central Africa, and India, working with local businesses and nonprofit organizations to establish fiscally sustainable education, housing, and farming systems in their communities. David is an experienced martial arts fighter and in nearly 20 years has learned that true winning is achieved by turning an opponent into a respected friend. He believes this mindset is essential to overcoming our divisive political atmosphere and finding positive, long-term solutions for our community. You can learn more at www.votedavidrichardson.com

CANDIDATE PROFILE: ANTHONY RAMIREZ, LD12 SENATE

VOTE FOR Anthony Ramirez – The People’s Advocate. People Before Party...Results Over Politics.

From his web page:

Independent voters are the largest voting bloc in Arizona, but they have almost no representation in the legislature. Anthony Ramirez is running to change that. He’ll bring his experience as a parent, homeowner, and small business owner to the State Senate. He’ll work with both parties to deliver solutions that strengthen the community, but not caucus with either. He will vote bill-by-bill based on what’s fair for LD 12. Arizona’s future requires leadership focused on three priorities: Prepare Arizona, Preserve Arizona, and Protect Arizona. We must Prepare Arizona by expanding STEM education and creating pathways that prepare our students for high-paying careers in technology, engineering, aerospace, cybersecurity, and advanced manufacturing.

We must Preserve Arizona by protecting our most critical resource—water—because Arizona cannot continue to grow and prosper without a secure, sustainable water future. We must Protect Arizona by making public safety a priority, supporting effective law enforcement, strengthening accountability, and ensuring families and businesses feel safe in their communities. These issues should rise above party politics because preparing our children, preserving our water, and protecting our communities are not Republican or Democratic priorities—they are Arizona priorities.
