Producer's notes:

When I listen to music just for fun, I tend to listen to jazz as much as I listen to classical music. The complexity and freedom in jazz, with its transatlantic origins in Africa and Eastern Europe, expresses and exposes the greatness and weakness of 20th and 21st century culture in the United States. Jazz may be one of America's unique art forms, revealing much of the American psyche to ourselves and to the rest of the world. Indeed jazz musicians from the United States served as the country's unofficial ambassadors of American culture in Europe and Asia following World War II, and in places like Paris and Shanghai in the 1920s and 1930s. Jazz is no longer an "American" art; some of the finest jazz clubs thrive in Shanghai, Tokyo, London, Berlin and Paris, not just Los Angeles, Chicago, Detroit, New Orleans and New York.

Sophisticated Lady jazz quartet pays homage to the Great Tradition of American jazz but most of their repertoire is written by members of the quartet. Unlike the majority of contemporary jazz recordings, which are carefully and surgically perfected in postproduction, this album remains raw and fresh. These tracks are complete takes, "live to tape," without editing. The music on this recording is how Sophisticated Lady plays without the help of digital magic. The quartet rehearsed and performed some of these tracks before our recording but at least half are the first time through; the quartet discussed the tunes and who would take what solo in which order but without rehearsal. I wanted the intensity of raw improvisation. This is possible when superb musicians tackle new material together, listening carefully to each other and playing as a single organism. Some melodies, For Andrew, for example, I played for them on the piano right before our take and the quartet improvised from there. Music cannot get fresher than this.

Yarlung Records did it again. This time it's their first jazz entry that has golden warmth of a Blue Note from its heyday as well as visceral instruments presence of a Contemporary Records. Recorded in Cammilleri concert hall using only a vintage tube stereo microphone, the sound of the CD is creamy like butter while the texture is so rich that you can easily discern which parts of the drum set the player hits and rubs. The big crescendo on 'For Andrew' is mind blowing!

--Mori Shima, Stereo Sound, Japan

Yarlung makes recordings in concert halls, not studios. Our albums capture the sound of our musicians playing in real acoustic spaces. One of the leading neuroscientists in the world, Dr. Antonio Damasio, hired Yasuhisa Toyota to build a concert hall for him in the Dornsife Brain and Creativity Institute at the University of Southern California in Los Angeles. The result is the spectacular and intimate Cammilleri Hall where Dr. Damasio generously invited us to make this recording.

When the members of Sophisticated Lady quartet first played in this acoustic marvel their eyes lighted up and excitement built. They responded to the beautiful sound in the hall immediately, and the acoustics enabled Yarlung to record this album with our characteristically minimalist approach. We used one AKG C24 stereo microphone from our friend Jon Fisher at Gearworks Pro Audio, with the addition of one AKG C12 for a small amount of reinforcement for Gary's bass. Elliot Midwood designed our microphone preamplification, and we recorded directly to RMGI 468 tape on our analog recorder with tube circuitry designed for Yarlung by Len Horowitz and to high resolution digital media. Our Steinway technician Robert Koning kept the piano in beautiful shape for our recording.

More jazz records should be like Sophisticated Lady Quartet—relaxed yet focused, tradition-based yet modern, elegant yet conveying a sure sense of swing. The recording is so pure that you almost feel as if you're eavesdropping on four musicians who seem completely in their element while performing, in a one-take environment, a set that's evenly split between previously rehearsed arrangements and performances where they had one chance to turn a composition into a memorable piece of music. No splicing or editing here—just a live-in-the-studio recording where the mood, playing and sonics are so solid that that jazz lovers will wish that the mostly-classical label Yarlung wandered over to this side of the street more often.

--Jeff Wilson, The Absolute Sound

We wish to thank Cammilleri's technical director Nic Monaco, as well as Dr. Damasio's "two right arms," Susan Lynch and Pamela McNeff-Smith. You made our first recording experience at Dornsife such a pleasure.

When the musicians first learned how Yarlung makes a recording, relying on the acoustic environment, without editing and without much post production, they understood it intuitively and welcomed the challenge. The quartet knew that Dr. Damasio had generously given us plenty of time in the hall (we spent our first day on set up and balance) and the fabulous acoustics meant they heard each other perfectly. This helped them relax into the recording.

Sophisticated Lady joins me in thanking our executive producer John Pruit, a man whose friendship and wisdom I prize. John's generosity and coordination made our recording possible. John has helped jazz and folk and Native American musicians through Dog Soldier Press, which releases recordings, books and video, especially in support of the Lakota tradition.

We would also like to thank Brenda Barnes, president of the board of Yarlung Artists and our friend Gerry Tywoniuk for their generous support of this album. Thanks also to Robert Levi and The Los Angeles and Orange County Audio Society.

The members of Sophisticated Lady met at USC, where they earned their Master's degrees.

JJ Kirkpatrick, trumpet and flugelhorn, was born in Portland, Oregon. JJ began his diverse musical career at 9 when he scored the opening sequence to a 10-minute film he co-directed with his brother. JJ began playing trumpet that same year, studying with Portland legend Thara Memory. Mr. Kirkpatrick has performed with Wynton Marsalis, Tootie Heath, Beyonce, Craig Robinson, Louis CK among others, and works as a performer, composer and producer. Along with Andrew Boyle, Misha Bigos and Gary Wicks, JJ founded Sophisticated Lady jazz quartet. www.jjkirkpatrickmusic.com

Misha Adair Bigos, piano, grew up in Seattle, Washington. After graduating from Gonzaga University he played piano on cruise ships for two years. Misha just graduated with his Master's Degree from the University of Southern California in Los Angeles, where he studied piano with Alan Pasqua and Sara Gazarek. Rather than holding his master's recital at school, Misha and Sophisticated Lady made their debut performance at Catalina Bar and Grill in Hollywood. "Sophisticated Lady" performed this year for The Young Artist Jazz Series at Catalina Bar and Grill, and brought the crowd to their feet. I was so impressed with the group's innovation and talent in both their playing and writing. They bring a modern and creative energy to their original songs as well as standards, while maintaining the integrity of what is at the heart of jazz music. I have no doubt that they will have enormous success.

--Barbara Brighton, producer, Young Artists Jazz Series

Andrew James Boyle, drums, lives in Los Angeles, where he continues to study with his mentor, the legendary drummer Peter Erskine at USC. Andrew also studied with the wonderful Aaron Serfaty in Los Angeles, and before that with Tim Metz in Sacramento. Andrew maintains a busy schedule teaching and performing, locally and overseas. In addition to receiving multiple prestigious awards from USC, Andrew also earned the Outstanding Soloist Award from the Monterey Next Generation Jazz Festival. Andrew was Yarlung's introduction to Sophisticated Lady quartet. Please visit andrewboylemusic.nubook.com

Gary Wicks, bass, a virtuoso on both acoustic and electric bass, played and toured around the world with the Grammy Award® winning group The Manhattan Transfer for 5 years. With "The Transfer," Gary played in myriad international music festivals and on the group's most recent recording. Originally from Albany, NY, this second generation bassist has been a part of the vibrant music scenes in London, Los Angeles, Albany and Boston, where he earned his Bachelor's degree in Double Bass Performance from the New England Conservatory. Gary taught on faculty at the Silver Lake Conservatory of Music and currently teaches at The Musician's Institute. Gary proudly plays D'Addario Zyex bass strings and endorses Eden Electronics amplification. ## Thoughts on the music:

Jerome Kern's I'm Old Fashioned, an arrangement by Gary, was the first piece played by the quartet several years ago and has become one of the quartet's most requested tunes. By contrast, Andrew Boyle's Gone, was a piece Yarlung commissioned and which Andrew presented to the quartet for the first time during our session. We had two takes, both of which earned a "star" in my recording notes. This is one of them. Gary surprised the group with his arrangement of Duke Ellington's and Billy Strayhorn's Isfahan, which was one of our first takes in Cammilleri Hall.

For Andrew, in honor of Andrew Norman, is a free improvisation on a melody kernel I played for the quartet right before the take. These few notes come from Andrew Norman's Music in Circles III, a commission by the Los Angeles Chamber Orchestra, an organization close to Yarlung's heart. I asked Andrew if we could steal his notes in his honor, to commemorate his joining the faculty at USC, and he was delighted.

We hear Sophisticated Lady guided by JJ in a free improvisation on Strange Fruit, the Abel Meeropol melody made so famous by Billie Holiday, a song instrumental in civil rights progress in the United States in the mid 20th century. Misha wrote Ropes of Sand in a couple of hours while visiting his grandmother. Ropes of Sand and Finale, also by Misha, are pieces the quartet has played often. Andrew Boyle wrote Green Eyed Monster after a painful experience with a green eyed monster named Danielle.

Look out Brubeck, Sophisticated Lady's remarkable debut should perhaps be re-titled TAKE ONE. Why? Each tune was captured in one take! The 60+ minute CD also celebrates Yarlung's audiophile venture into JAZZ with a splatter of Chet Baker's seductive, kicked-back Californication daubed with a drizzle of Miles at his mellowest. No matter how busy your day, an evening spin through this one will definitely move your mood.

--David Thomson

The Sophisticated Lady Jazz Quartet's debut recording should be of great interest to fans of forward-looking straight ahead jazz. Each of the four musicians is excellent both as soloists and in ensembles, the music that they perform ranges from melodic versions of standards to lyrical originals and freer explorations, and their subtle playing keeps one guessing. This CD is well worth exploring and I certainly recommend it. --Scott Yanow

Gary built Night Night around a major seventh sharp five chord, which he uses to evoke the cozy feeling just before one falls asleep at night. Duke Ellington's timeless ballad Sophisticated Lady inspired both the name and the sound of the quartet. Gary structured Weightless around the quintessential dark tonality of the minor major seventh chord, reminiscent of early Miles Davis. Andrew reinforces this quality with his use of damped mallets on the drums.

Misha named Fields of Kurdistan in honor of John Pruit, our valiant executive producer, who has been working on rotation as an oil geologist in Northern Iraq for the past few years and knows Kurdistan well. John arrived in Los Angeles from the Near East for the first day of our recording. The quartet's playing kept him awake and smiling for all three days of our sessions despite severe jetlag. Thank you John and thank you Misha.

I like "Sophisticated Lady." A unique voice. Great improvising. One can hear everything on this recording, all the nuances and textures. I can really listen to this music because they have their own classic style. So much jazz is all the same today. "Sophisticated Lady" is refreshing. --Billy Mitchell

The group Sophisticated Lady has its eyes set on tomorrow's horizon — while their feet are planted in the terra firm of today — with the consummate skills and musical knowledge that have always been part of the jazz lore. They know their stuff and they can play! Sophisticated Lady gives me joy, hope, and I recommend them to you. --Peter Erskine

One of those very cool involving jazz performances that bring you into the music from the very first note. The only thing this recording is missing are the expensive tickets and the sticky floor. It has become a reference of mine for space, front to back and left to right, and natural timbres. --Robert Levi
