

BEST USE FOR EDUCATION

Do you use Radio as a learning tool whether in the classroom or in other innovative ways?

Inspiration

Why not use audio to discuss facts and events from history like Stuff you Missed in History podcast.

Science explained like Prof Brian Cox's Infinite Monkey Cage podcast.

Specialising on a particular icon like the Shakespeare Unlimited podcast

Or even using audio to set the scene of ancient rome or Churchill's war room, the possibilities are endless!

If you entwine radio or podcasts into your lessons or produce audio content with an educational theme then this category is for you.
