

SCHOOL RADIO STATION OF THE YEAR

Does your school have their own radio station, podcast or create audio content?

What we are looking for

Primary and Secondary schools who:

- Have their own radio station
- Create their own podcast
- Use radio or audio as a learning tool whether in lessons or out
- Encourage their students to create radio or audio content
- Have a passion for creating audio content
- Want to help students develop their skills for a future in the media industry

This award is for the schools who are providing a platform for students to explore and create their own audio and radio projects.

Your school could gain national recognition along with once in a lifetime prizes including a national radio show.
