

16. AGENCIES SUPPLYING RURAL CREDIT 433—488

Rural moneylenders, 433. Malpractices followed by money-lenders, 436. Cooperative credit societies, 437. Land development banks, 441. The government and rural credit, 441. Suggestions for improvement, 444. State Bank of India and rural credit, 450. Reserve Bank of India, 454. Rural credit survey committee, 455. Rural credit follow-up survey, 458. Recommendations of committee on cooperative credit, 460. Statutory mandations of the rural credit review committee, 460. Reserved Bank credit control of RBI over cooperative banks, 460. Reserved Bank credit to cooperative, 461. Recent developments, 467. Other contributions of the RBI, 468. Future role of the R. B. I., 470. Agricultural refinancing corporation, 470. Suggestions, 476. Regional rural banks, 477. Crop loan scheme, 480. Early developments, 480. Objectives of the scheme, 481. Necessity of the scheme, 481. Action programme, 482. Three component formula, 483. Salient features of the system, 484. Evaluation of the crop loan system, 484. Suggestions for improvements, 487.

17. PRIMARY CO-OPERATIVE CREDIT SOCIETIES 489—520

Three-tier structure, 489. Agricultural credit cooperative structure, 489. Functions of primary agricultural credit societies, 491. Management, 493. Membership, 494. Liability, 494. Loans and financing policy, 503. Period of repayment, 505. Non-credit operations of the primary credit societies, 507. Present position of primary societies, 507. Problems of primary agricultural credit cooperatives, 511. Suggestions for improvement, 512. Grain banks, 513.

18. OTHER CO-OPERATIVE CREDIT INSTITUTIONS 521—547

Weaknesses of the central cooperative banks, 527. Suggestions for improvement in working, 529. Apex or state cooperative banks, 530. Evaluation of the working of the banks, 534. Problems and weaknesses in the working of state cooperative banks, 535. Suggestions for improvement, 536. Land Development banks, 536. Need for land development banks, 537. Growth and development of land development banks, 540. Evaluation of the working of the banks, 543. Suggestions for improvement of working of the banks, 545.

19. MULTI-PURPOSE SOCIETIES AND SERVICE CO-OPERATIVE 548—555

Multi-purpose cooperative societies, 548. Necessity for developing multi-purpose societies, 548. Benefits claimed for multi-purpose societies, 549. Disadvantages of the multi-purpose societies, 549. Growth and development of multipurpose societies, 550. Evaluation of the working and problems, 550. Large-sized societies, 551. Service cooperatives, 552. Chief Features of service cooperatives, 553. Origin and Growth of service cooperatives, 554. Evaluation and problems, 554. Suggestions for improvement, 555.

20. HISTORY AND GROWTH OF CO-OPERATIVE MOVEMENT 556—590

Traditional Forms of Co-operation in India, 556. Growth of the Modern Movement, 558. History of the Movement, 560. Early Stage of Development (1904-1912), 560. Period of Hurried Expansion (1912-1918), 562. The Period of Unplanned Expansion (1919-1929), 565. Period of Recovery (1939-1946), 567. The Period of Planned Development, 571. Co-operation During the First Plan, 572. Co-operation During the Second Plan, 574. National Development Council Resolution, 577. Working Group, 578. Policy Letter of May, 1959, 580. Mysore Conference of State Ministers of Co-operation, 1959, 580. Jaipur Conference of State Ministers, 1960, 581. Committee on Co-operative Credit, 581. Working Group on Panchayat and Co-operative, 1961, 582. Committee on Co-operative Administration, 1963, 583. Co-operation during the Third Plan, 583. Progress during the Third Plan, 584. Report of the Committee on Co-operative Marketing, 585. Committee on Co-operation, 1964, 585. Co-operation during the Fourth Five Year Plan, 586. Conference of State Ministers of Co-operation, 1969, 588. All-India Rural Credit Review Committee, 1969, 588.

21. EVALUATION OF, AND THE GOVERNMENT AID TO CO-OPERATION 591—620

Achievement of the movement, 592. Economic benefits, 592. Social and Moral Benefits, 593. Educational Benefits, 594. Other Benefits, 594. Weakness of the Movement, 596. Causes which have retarded the Growth of Co-operation, 597. Inefficient Management, 597. Existence of Too Many Dormant and Non-Viable Societies, 598. Failure to Serve the Needy Strata, 599. Absence of Self-Help, 599. Inadequacy of Finance and Defective Loan Policies, 600. High Incidence of Overdues, 601. Domination of Vested Interests, 601. Unplanned and Hurried Expansion, 602. Lack of Dedicated Leadership, 602. Fragmentary Approach, 602. Lack of Congenial Atmosphere, 603. Lack of Supervision, Audit and Inspection, 603. Inconsistency in Policies and Their Half-Hearted Implementation, 603. Future of Co-operative Movement, 604. Movement has potentialities for Future Development, 605. Suggestions for Improvement of the Movement, 605. Condition for Success, 606. Measures for Future Development of the Movement, 606. Official Control should be slackened, 606. Co-operative Education and Training, 607. Recovery of Overdues, 607. Reorientation of Loan Policies and Procedures, 607. Consolidation, Reorganisation and Revitalisation, 608. Elimination of Vested Interests, 608. Creation of Strong and Dedicated Leadership, 608. Mobilizing of Savings, 608. Cooperative Movement should deal with the whole life of the villagers, 609. Efficient Management, 609. Government Aid to Co-operation, 610. Is Government Assistance Desirable, 610. Forms of State Assistance, 612. Legislative Aid, 612. Fiscal Assistance, 613. Financial Assistance, 614. Concluding Observations, 620.

22. STATE AND AGRICULTURE 621—661

Early Agricultural Policy, 621. The Royal Commission on Agriculture, 624. Functions of the State Agricultural Departments, 625. Agricultural Education, 626. Indian Council of Agricultural Research, 626. Russel and Wright's Enquiry, 628. Post-War Agricultural Developments, 629. Ford Foundation's Agricultural Production Team, 629. National Commission on Agriculture, 632. Agricultural Research and Extension, 633. Role of Extension, 635. Indian Agriculture through the Plans, 638. Agricultural Situation