

CONSTITUTIONAL HISTORY
OF INDIA
1765-1975

A.C.Kapur

Contents

PART I

I. Traders Become Rulers	1
II. Gradual Tightening of Parliamentary Control	12
III. Last Phase of the Company	23

PART II

IV. End of 'Company Bahadur'	39
V. Structure of the Government of India	53
VI. Structure of the Government of India (Contd.)	65
VII. Development of Legislative Bodies	76
VIII. Rise of Nationalism	88
IX. The Indian National Congress	105
X. The Rise of Muslim Nationalism	129
XI. The Indian Councils Act, 1892	149
XII. Morley-Minto Reforms	163

PART III

XIII. Prelude to Montagu-Chelmsford Reforms	182
XIV. Montagu-Chelmsford Reforms	202
XV. Montagu-Chelmsford Reforms (Contd.)	229
XVI. Working of the Reforms	244
XVII. Towards the New Constitution	264
XVIII. Government of India Act, 1935	286
XIX. Constitutional Development, 1937-45	305
XX. Towards Division and Independence	335

PART IV

XXI. Making of the Constitution	359
XXII. Fundamental Rights and the Directive Principles of State Policy	400
XXIII. Government at the Centre—the President	427
XXIV. Government at the Centre—the Council of Ministers	482
XXV. Government at the Centre—Parliament	507
XXVI. The Supreme Court	553
XXVII. The Union and the States	578
XXVIII. The State Executive	609
XXIX. The State Legislature	637
XXX. The State Judiciary	652
XXXI. Services under the Union and the States	662
Bibliography	677
Index	685