

CRITICAL
APPROACHES TO LITERATURE

DAVID DAICHES

ORIENT LONGMAN

BOMBAY ● CALCUTTA ● MADRAS ● NEW DELHI

809 ✓

→→→→→ Contents

Introduction

vii

PART ONE The Philosophical Inquiry

The Platonic dilemma	3
The Aristotelian solution	23
The poet as moral teacher	50
Imitation and instruction	73
The vindication of pleasure	89
Form and the imagination	97
Platonism against Plato	111
Science and poetry	129
The proper sphere of poetry	143
The poet and his medium	158

PART TWO Practical Criticism

	Introduction	17
11	The establishment of a critical scene	17
12	Possibilities and limitations of a method	24
13	History, relativism, impressionism	26
14	From appreciation to analysis	28
15	Analysis in action	30

PART THREE Literary Criticism and Related Disciplines

	Introduction	319
16	Criticism and scholarship	321
17	Criticism and psychology	340
18	Criticism and sociology	358
19	Criticism and the cultural context	376
	Epilogue	391
	Index	396