

DEMOCRACY AND DISCONTENT

INDIA'S GROWING CRISIS OF GOVERNABILITY

ATUL KOHLI

Contents

List of tables and figures	page vii
Preface and acknowledgments	ix

PART I. INTRODUCTION

1 An overview of the study	3
2 Some conceptual and theoretical considerations	22

PART II. THE GROWING PROBLEMS OF GOVERNING THE PERIPHERY: POLITICS IN THE DISTRICTS

Introduction: the districts	35
3 Kheda, Gujarat	37
4 Guntur, Andhra Pradesh	61
5 Belgaun, Karnataka	93
6 Calcutta, West Bengal	123
7 Madurai, Tamil Nadu	154
Conclusion: the districts	184

PART III. ORDER AND BREAKDOWN IN THE STATES

Introduction: the states	203
8 Breakdown in a "backward" state: Bihar	205
9 Growing turmoil in an "advanced" state: Gujarat	238
10 From breakdown to order: West Bengal	267
Conclusion: the states	297

PART IV. CENTRALIZATION AND POWERLESSNESS AT THE CENTER

Introduction: the Center	303
11 Managing the economy: halfhearted liberalization	305

12	Managing the troubled political institutions: the Congress party and relations with Punjab	339
	Conclusion: the Center	378

PART V. FINAL INFERENCES

13	Political change in a democratic developing country	383
	Bibliography	405
	Index	415