

LOW PRICE EDITION

PEARSON
Education

ANITA WOOLFOLK

EDUCATIONAL PSYCHOLOGY

NINTH EDITION

BRIEF CONTENTS

Preface xxiii

Chapter 1

Teachers, Teaching, and Educational Psychology 1

PART 1 STUDENTS

Chapter 2

Cognitive Development and Language 23

Chapter 3

Personal, Social, and Emotional Development 65

Chapter 4

Learner Differences and Learning Needs 105

Chapter 5

Culture and Community 153

PART 2 LEARNING AND MOTIVATION

Chapter 6

Behavioral Views of Learning 197

Chapter 7

Cognitive Views of Learning 235

Chapter 8

Complex Cognitive Processes 275

Chapter 9

Social Cognitive and Constructivist Views of Learning 313

Chapter 10

Motivation in Learning and Teaching 349

PART 3 TEACHING

Chapter 11

Creating Learning Environments 395

Chapter 12

Teaching for Academic Learning 431

Chapter 13

Teaching for Self-Regulation, Creativity, and Tolerance 477

PART 4 ASSESSING

Chapter 14

Standardized Testing 513

Chapter 15

Classroom Assessment and Grading 547

Appendix

Standards and Licensure: PRAXIS II™ and INTASC 581

CONTENTS

Preface xxiii

Chapter 1

Teachers, Teaching, and Educational Psychology 1

■ Teachers' Casebook: What Would You Do? 1

Overview 1

Do Teachers Make a Difference? 2

Teacher-Student Relationships 2

Teacher Preparation and Quality 2

■ Stories of Learning/Tributes to Teaching—Jay 3

What Is Good Teaching? 4

Inside Four Classrooms 4

A Bilingual 1st Grade 4

A Suburban 5th Grade 5

Two Advanced Math Classes 5

Expert Knowledge 6

■ Point/Counterpoint: What Is Good Teaching? 7

Beginning Teachers 8

■ Reaching Every Student: Creativity in an Urban School 9

The Role of Educational Psychology 9

Is It Just Common Sense? 10

Taking Turns 10

Helping Students 10

Skipping Grades 11

Obvious Answers? 11

Using Research to Understand and Improve Teaching 11

Descriptive Studies 11

Correlational Studies 12

Experimental Studies 12

Single-Subject Experimental Designs 13

Microgenetic Studies 14

The Role of Time in Research 14

Theories for Teaching 14

Teachers as Researchers 15

How This Book Can Help You Learn 15

Structure and Content Supports Learning 15

Getting Ready to Learn 15

Aids to Understanding 15

Applying Knowledge 16

Using Web Resources to Enhance Professional Development 16

Organize 16

Evaluate 16

Share 16

Becoming a Good Beginning Teacher 17

■ Enhancing Your Expertise with Technology: Professional Development 17

Summary Table 18

Becoming a Professional 20

■ Teachers' Casebook: What Would They Do? 21

PART I STUDENTS

Chapter 2

Cognitive Development and Language 23

■ Teachers' Casebook: What Would You Do? 23

Overview 23

A Definition of Development 24

General Principles of Development 24

The Brain and Cognitive Development 24

The Developing Brain: Cerebral Cortex 25

Specialization and Integration 25

The Developing Brain: Neurons 26

Implications for Teachers 28

■ Point/Counterpoint: Brain-Based Education 29

Piaget's Theory of Cognitive Development 28

Influences on Development 30

Basic Tendencies in Thinking 30

Organization 30

Adaptation 31

Equilibration 31

Four Stages of Cognitive Development 31

Infancy: The Sensorimotor Stage 32

Early Childhood to the Elementary Years:
The Preoperational Stage	33
Later Elementary to the Middle School Years:
The Concrete Operational Stage	34
Junior and Senior High: Formal Operations	37
Do We All Reach the Fourth Stage?	39
■ Stories of Learning/Tributes to Teaching—
Desmund Tutu	39
Implications of Piaget's Theory for Teachers	40
Understanding and Building
on Students' Thinking	40
Activity and Constructing Knowledge	41
The Value of Play	42
Some Limitations of Piaget's Theory	42
The Trouble with Stages	42
Underestimating Children's Abilities	43
Cognitive Development and Information Processing	43
Cognitive Development and Culture	44
Vygotsky's Sociocultural Perspective	44
The Social Sources of Individual Thinking	45
Cultural Tools and Cognitive Development	46
The Role of Language and Private Speech	47
Language and Cultural Diversity	47
Vygotsky's and Piaget's Views Compared	48
Self-Talk and Learning	49
The Role of Learning and Development	49
Vygotsky's and Piaget's Views Compared	49
The Role of Adults and Peers	50
Implications of Vygotsky's Theory for Teachers	50
■ Reaching Every Student: Scaffolding Learning	51
Assisted Learning	51
The Zone of Proximal Development	52
Private Speech and the Zone	52
Teaching	52
The Development of Language	53
Diversity in Language: Dual Language
Development	54
Language Development in the School Years	54
Pronunciation	55
Syntax	55
Vocabulary and Meaning	55
Pragmatics	55
Metalinguistic Awareness	55
Partnerships with Families	55
■ Family and Community Partnerships:
Promoting Literacy	56
■ Enhancing Your Expertise with Technology:
Language and Literacy Development	57
Summary Table	58
Becoming a Professional	62

■ Teachers' Casebook: What Would They Do?	63
Guidelines:
Teaching the Preoperational Child	35
Teaching the Concrete-Operational Child	37
Helping Students to Use Formal Operations	40
Applying Vygotsky's Ideas in Teaching	53

Chapter 3

Personal, Social, and Emotional Development 65

■ Teachers' Casebook: What Would You Do?	65
Overview	65
The Work of Erikson	66
The Preschool Years: Trust, Autonomy,
and Initiative	67
Elementary and Middle School Years:
Industry versus Inferiority	67
Adolescence: The Search for Identity	67
Identity Statuses	68
Consequences of Different Statuses	69
Beyond the School Years	69
Understanding Ourselves and Others	70
Self-Concept and Self-Esteem	70
The Structure of Self-Concept	71
How Self-Concept Develops	72
School Life and Self-Esteem	73
■ Point/Counterpoint: What Should Schools
Do to Encourage Students' Self-Esteem?	74
Gender, Ethnicity, and Self-Esteem	75
Diversity and Self-Esteem	76
Personal and Collective Self-Esteem	77
■ Family and Community Partnerships:
Building Self-Esteem	78
The Self and Others	78
Intention	78
Taking the Perspective of Others	78
Emotional Competence	79
Moral Development	80
Kohlberg's Stages of Moral Development	80
Alternatives to Kohlberg's Theory	82
Cultural Differences in Moral Reasoning	82
Diversity in Reasoning: The Morality of Caring	82
Moral Behavior	83
Aggression	84
Bullies	85
Relational Aggression	85
Victims	85
When Aggression Leads to Violence	86
Cheating	86

Socialization: Family, Peers, and Teachers 87

American Families Today 88

Divorce 88

Effects of Divorce 88

Peer Relationships and Peer Cultures 88

Who Is Likely to Have Problems with Peers? 89

Peer Cultures 90

New Roles for Teachers 90

Challenges for Children 91

Navigating Transitions 91

Young Children: Starting School 92

Students in the Middle Grades:

Another Transition 92

Children and Youth at Risk 93

Child Abuse 94

■ Reaching Every Student: Safety on the Internet 95

■ Stories of Learning/Tributes to Teaching—

David 95

Eating Disorders 96

Drug Abuse 96

Suicide 96

■ Enhancing Your Expertise with Technology:

Emotional and Social Development 97

Summary Table 99

Becoming a Professional 102

■ Teachers' Casebook: What Would They Do? 103

Guidelines:

Encouraging Initiative in Preschool Children 68

Encouraging Industry 68

Supporting Identity Formation 70

Encouraging Emotional Competence 79

Dealing with Aggression and Encouraging Cooperation 86

Helping Children of Divorce 89

Supporting Personal and Social Development 91

Chapter 4

Learner Differences
and Learning Needs 105

■ Teachers' Casebook: What Would You Do? 105

Overview 105

Language and Labeling 106

Person-First Language 106

Disabilities and Handicaps 107

Individual Differences in Intelligence 107

What Does Intelligence Mean? 107

Intelligence: One Ability or Many? 108

Multiple Intelligences 108

Multiple Intelligences Go to School 110

Intelligence as a Process 111

How Is Intelligence Measured? 113

Binet's Dilemma 113

Group versus Individual IQ Tests 113

What Does an IQ Score Mean? 114

Intelligence and Achievement 114

Intelligence: Heredity or Environment? 115

Ability Differences and Teaching 115

Between-Class Ability Grouping 115

■ Point/Counterpoint: Is Tracking an Effective Strategy? 117

Within-Class Ability Grouping 118

Cognitive and Learning Styles 118

Cognitive Styles 118

Field Dependence and Field Independence 119

Impulsive and Reflective Cognitive Styles 119

Learning Styles and Preferences 120

What Are Learning Preferences? 120

Cautions 121

Changes in the Law: Integration and Inclusion 121

Least Restrictive Placement 122

Individualized Educational Program 122

The Rights of Students and Families 123

■ Family and Community Partnerships:

Productive Conferences 123

Prevalent Problems and Mild Disabilities 124

Students with Learning Disabilities 124

Student Characteristics 125

Teaching Students with Learning Disabilities 126

■ Reaching Every Student: Higher Order

Comprehension and Severe Learning

Disabilities 127

Students with Communication Disorders 126

Speech Disorders 127

Language Disorders 128

Students with Mental Retardation 128

Students with Emotional or Behavioral

Disorders 131

■ Enhancing Your Expertise with Technology:

Learning about Learning Disabilities 133

Less Prevalent Problems and More Severe Disabilities 133

Students with Health Impairments 133

Cerebral Palsy and Multiple Disabilities 133

Seizure Disorders (Epilepsy) 134

Students Who Are Deaf and Hard of Hearing 134

Students with Low Vision and Blindness 135

Section 504 Protections for Students 136

Students with Hyperactivity and Attention Disorders	137
Treating and Teaching Students with ADHD	138
Students Who Are Gifted and Talented	140
Who Are These Students?	140
■ Stories of Learning/Tributes to Teaching—
Charelle	141
What Is the Origin of these Gifts?	141
What Problems Do the Gifted Face?	142
Strategies for Identifying and Teaching Gifted Students	143
Recognizing Gifts and Talents	143
Teaching Gifted Students	143
Summary Table	145
Becoming a Professional	150
■ Teachers' Casebook: What Would They Do?	151
Guidelines:
Interpreting IQ Scores	114
Grouping by Achievement	119
Teaching Students with Mild Retardation	130
Disciplining Students with Emotional Problems	132
Chapter 5
Culture and Community	153
■ Teachers' Casebook: What Would You Do?	153
Overview	153
Today's Multicultural Classrooms	154
Individuals, Groups, and Society	154
American Cultural Diversity	156
Culture and Group Membership	156
Cautions in Interpreting Cultural Differences	156
Social Class Differences	157
Being Poor	158
SES and Achievement	158
Poor Health Care	158
Low Expectations—Low Self-Esteem	158
Learned Helplessness	159
Peer Influences and Resistance Cultures	159
Tracking	159
Childrearing Styles	160
Home Environment and Resources	160
Ethnic and Racial Differences	161
The Changing Demographics: Cultural Differences	161
Cultural Conflicts	162
Cultural Compatibility	162
Ethnic and Racial Differences in School Achievement	163
■ Family and Community Partnerships: Building Learning Communities	164
The Legacy of Discrimination	164
The Development of Prejudice	165
Continuing Discrimination	167
Stereotype Threat	167
Short-Term Effects: Test Performance	167
Long-Term Effects: Disidentification	168
Combating Stereotype Threat	168
Girls and Boys: Differences in the Classroom	169
Gender-Role Identity	169
Gender-Role Stereotyping in the Preschool Years	170
Gender Bias in the Curriculum	171
Sex Discrimination in Classrooms	172
Sex Differences in Mental Abilities	172
Eliminating Gender Bias	172
■ Point/Counterpoint: Do Boys and Girls Learn Differently?	175
Language Differences in the Classroom	174
Dialects	174
Dialects and Pronunciation	175
Dialects and Teaching	176
Bilingualism	176
What Does Bilingualism Mean?	176
Becoming Bilingual	177
■ Reaching Every Student: Recognizing Giftedness in Bilingual Students	178
Bilingual Education	178
Research on Bilingual Programs	180
Creating Culturally Compatible Classrooms	181
Social Organization	182
Learning Styles	182
Possible Differences	182
Cautions about Learning Styles Research	183
Sociolinguistics	183
Participation Structures	184
Sources of Misunderstanding	184
Culturally Relevant Pedagogy	184
Students Must Experience Academic Success	185
Develop/Maintain Their Cultural Competence	185
Develop a Critical Consciousness to Challenge the Status Quo	185
■ Stories of Learning/Tributes to Teaching—
Mrs. Thompson	186
Bringing It All Together: Teaching Every Student	186
Know Your Students	186
Respect Your Students	187
Teach Your Students	187

■ Enhancing Your Expertise with Technology:
Teaching Every Student 189

Summary Table 190

Becoming a Professional 194

■ Teachers' Casebook: What Would They Do? 195

Guidelines:

Avoiding Sexism in Teaching 174

Dialects in the Classroom 177

Culturally Relevant Teaching 188

PART 2 LEARNING AND MOTIVATION

Chapter 6

Behavioral Views of Learning 197

■ Teachers' Casebook: What Would You Do? 197

Overview 197

Understanding Learning 198

Learning: A Definition 198

Learning Is Not Always What It Seems 198

Early Explanations of Learning: Contiguity and Classical Conditioning 200

Pavlov's Dilemma and Discovery: Classical Conditioning 200

Generalization, Discrimination, and Extinction 201

Operant Conditioning: Trying New Responses 202

The Work of Thorndike and Skinner 203

Types of Consequences 203

Reinforcement 204

Punishment 205

Reinforcement Schedules 206

Extinction 207

Antecedents and Behavior Change 207

Cueing 207

Prompting 207

Applied Behavior Analysis 209

Methods for Encouraging Behaviors 209

Reinforcing with Teacher Attention 209

Selecting Reinforcers: The Premack Principle 210

Shaping 211

■ Stories of Learning/Tributes to Teaching—

My Third Grade Teacher 212

Positive Practice 213

Coping with Undesirable Behavior 213

Negative Reinforcement 214

Satiation 214

Reprimands 215

Response Cost 215

Social Isolation 215

Some Cautions 215

Behavioral Approaches to Teaching and Management 216

Mastery Learning 217

Group Consequences 217

■ Reaching Every Student: Students with Learning and Behavior Problems 218

Token Reinforcement Programs 219

Contingency Contract Programs 219

Recent Approaches: Self-Regulation and Cognitive Behavior Modification 221

Self-Management 221

Goal Setting 221

Monitoring and Evaluating Progress 222

Self-Reinforcement 222

■ Family and Community Partnerships:

Student Self-Management 223

Cognitive Behavior Modification and Self-Instruction 223

■ Enhancing Your Expertise with Technology:

Self-Regulation 225

Problems and Issues 225

Criticisms of Behavioral Methods 226

Ethical Issues 226

Goals 226

■ Point/Counterpoint: Should Students Be Rewarded for Learning? 227

Strategies 228

Summary Table 229

Becoming a Professional 232

■ Teachers' Casebook: What Would They Do? 233

Guidelines:

Applying Classical Conditioning 202

Using Praise Appropriately 210

Encouraging Positive Behaviors 213

Using Punishment 216

Chapter 7

Cognitive Views of Learning 235

■ Teachers' Casebook: What Would You Do? 235

Overview 235

Elements of the Cognitive Perspective 236

Comparing Cognitive and Behavioral Views 236

The Importance of Knowledge in Learning	237
General and Specific Knowledge	237
Declarative, Procedural, and Conditional Knowledge	238
The Information Processing Model of Memory	239
An Overview of the Model	239
Sensory Memory	240
Capacity, Duration, and Contents of Sensory Memory	240
Perception	240
The Role of Attention	241
Attention and Teaching	241
Working Memory	242
The Central Executive	243
The Phonological Loop	243
The Visuospatial Sketchpad	244
Duration and Contents of Working Memory	244
Retaining Information in Working Memory	245
Forgetting	246
Long-Term Memory: The Goal of Teaching	246
Capacity, Duration, and Contents of Long-Term Memory	246
Explicit Memories: Semantic and Episodic	247
■ Reaching Every Student: A Picture and a Few Hundred Words	248
Propositions and Propositional Networks	249
Images	249
Schemas	250
Episodic Memory	251
Implicit Memories	252
Storing and Retrieving Information in Long-Term Memory	252
Levels of Processing Theories	253
Retrieving Information from Long-Term Memory	253
Forgetting and Long-Term Memory	255
Metacognition, Regulation, and Individual Differences	255
Metacognitive Knowledge and Regulation	256
Individual Differences in Metacognition	257
Individual Differences and Working Memory	258
Developmental Differences	258
Individual Differences	259
Individual Differences and Long-Term Memory	259
Becoming Knowledgeable: Some Basic Principles	260
Development of Declarative Knowledge	260
Making it Meaningful	260
Mnemonics	261
■ Stories of Learning/Tributes to Teaching—Susan	262
Rote Memorization	263
■ Point/Counterpoint: What's Wrong with Memorizing?	264

Becoming an Expert: Development of Procedural and Conditional Knowledge	264
Automated Basic Skills	265
Domain Specific Strategies	266
Learning outside School	266
■ Family and Community Partnerships:	266
Organizing Learning	266
■ Enhancing Your Expertise with Technology:	267
Memory Techniques	267
Summary Table	268
Becoming a Professional	272
■ Teachers' Casebook: What Would They Do?	273
Guidelines:
Getting and Maintaining Attention	242
Using Information Processing Ideas in the Classroom	256

Chapter 8

Complex Cognitive Processes	275
■ Teachers' Casebook: What Would You Do?	275
Overview	275
Learning and Teaching about Concepts	276
Views of Concept Learning	276
Prototypes and Exemplars	276
Concepts and Schemas	277
Strategies for Teaching Concepts	277
An Example Concept-Attainment Lesson	277
Lesson Components	277
Lesson Structure	279
Extending and Connecting Concepts	279
Teaching Concepts through Discovery	280
Structure and Discovery	280
Discovery in Action	281
Teaching Concepts through Exposition	281
Advance Organizers	282
Steps in an Expository Lesson	282
Teaching Concepts in Diverse Classrooms	283
Problem Solving	283
Problem Solving: General or Domain-Specific?	284
Identifying: Problem Finding	285
Defining Goals and Representing the Problem	285
Focusing Attention	285
Understanding the Words	285
Understanding the Whole Problem	286
Translation and Schema Training	286
The Results of Problem Representation	287
Exploring Possible Solution Strategies	288

Algorithms	288
Heuristics	288
Anticipating, Acting, and Looking Back	289
■ Point/Counterpoint: Should Students Be Allowed to Use Calculators and Spell-Checkers?	290
Factors That Hinder Problem Solving	290
Functional Fixedness	290
Response Set	291
The Importance of Flexibility	291
Effective Problem Solving: What Do the Experts Do?	292
Expert Knowledge	292
Novice Knowledge	293
■ Enhancing Your Expertise with Technology: Problem Solving	295
Becoming an Expert Student: Learning Strategies and Study Skills	295
Learning Strategies and Tactics	296
Deciding What Is Important	296
Summaries	296
Underlining and Highlighting	297
Taking Notes	298
Visual Tools for Organizing	298
Reading Strategies	299
■ Reaching Every Student: Teaching Them How to Learn	300
Applying Learning Strategies	300
Valuing Learning	301
Effort and Efficacy	301
Epistemological Beliefs	302
Teaching for Transfer	303
A Contemporary View of Transfer	303
Teaching for Positive Transfer	304
What Is Worth Learning?	304
How Can Teachers Help?	304
■ Stories of Learning/Tributes to Teaching—
Esme Codell	305
Stages of Transfer for Strategies	305
■ Family and Community Partnerships: Promoting Transfer	306
Summary Table	307
Becoming a Professional	310
■ Teachers' Casebook: What Would They Do?	311
Guidelines:
Applying Bruner's Ideas	281
Applying Ausubel's Ideas	283
Problem Solving	294
Becoming an Expert Student	301

Chapter 9

Social Cognitive and Constructivist Views of Learning 313

■ Teachers' Casebook: What Would You Do?	313
Overview	313
Social Processes in Learning	314
Parents, Peers, and Teachers	314
Social Learning and Social Cognitive Theories	315
■ Stories of Learning/Tributes to Teaching—
Three Letters from Teddy	316
Learning by Observing Others	317
Attention	317
Retention	317
Production	317
Motivation and Reinforcement	318
Factors That Influence Observational Learning	318
Observational Learning in Teaching	319
Directing Attention	319
Fine-Tuning Already-Learned Behaviors	319
Strengthening or Weakening Inhibitions	320
Teaching New Behaviors	320
Arousing Emotion	320
Reciprocal Determinism	320
Constructivism and Situated Learning	322
Constructivist Views of Learning	323
Psychological/Individual Constructivism	323
Vygotsky's Social Constructivism	324
Constructionism	325
How Is Knowledge Constructed?	325
Knowledge: Situated or General?	326
Common Elements of Constructivist Perspectives	327
Complex Learning Environments and Authentic Tasks	327
Social Negotiation	327
Multiple Perspectives and Representations of Content	327
Understanding the Knowledge Construction Process	328
Student Ownership of Learning	328
Applications of Constructivist and Situated Perspectives on Learning	329
Inquiry and Problem-Based Learning	329
Examples of Inquiry	329
Problem-Based Learning	331
Research on Inquiry and Problem-Based Learning	332
Dialogue and Instructional Conversations	333
■ Reaching Every Student: Lunch Learning	334
Cognitive Apprenticeships	334
A Cognitive Apprenticeship in Learning Mathematics	336

Cognitive Apprenticeships in Thinking	336
Developing Thinking in Every Class	336
■ Point/Counterpoint: Should Schools Teach Critical Thinking and Problem Solving?	337
Critical Thinking	338
The Language of Thinking	338
An Integrated Constructivist Program: Fostering Communities of Learners	339
■ Family and Community Partnerships:
Communicating about Innovations	340
Working with Families	340
■ Enhancing Your Expertise with Technology:
Thinking Skills	341
Looking Back at Learning	341
Summary Table	343
Becoming a Professional	346
■ Teachers' Casebook: What Would They Do?	347
Guidelines:
Using Observational Learning	321
Chapter 10
Motivation in Learning and Teaching	349
■ Teachers' Casebook: What Would You Do?	349
Overview	349
What Is Motivation?	350
Meeting Some Students	350
Intrinsic and Extrinsic Motivation	351
Four General Approaches to Motivation	352
Behavioral Approaches to Motivation	352
Humanistic Approaches to Motivation	353
Maslow's Hierarchy	353
Cognitive Approaches to Motivation	354
Attribution Theory	354
Attributions in the Classroom	355
Teacher Actions and Student Attributions	355
Expectancy × Value Theories	356
Sociocultural Conceptions of Motivation	356
■ Stories of Learning/Tributes to Teaching—
Creating Communities	357
Goal Orientation and Motivation	358
Types of Goals and Goal Orientations	359
Four Goal Orientations in School	359
Wait—Are Performance Goals Always Bad?	360
Beyond Mastery and Performance	360
Feedback and Goal Acceptance	361
Goals: Lessons for Teachers	361
Interests and Emotions	362
Tapping Interests	362
■ Point/Counterpoint: Does Making Learning Fun Make for Good Learning?	364
Arousal: Excitement and Anxiety in Learning	364
Curiosity: Novelty and Complexity	365
Anxiety in the Classroom	365
How Does Anxiety Interfere with Achievement?	366
Coping with Anxiety	366
Interests and Emotions: Lessons for Teachers	366
Self-Schemas	367
Beliefs about Ability	367
Beliefs about Self-Efficacy	368
Self-Efficacy, Self-Concept, and Self-Esteem	368
Sources of Self-Efficacy	369
Efficacy and Motivation	369
Teacher Efficacy	370
Self-Determination	370
Self-Determination in the Classroom	371
Information and Control	371
Learned Helplessness	371
Self-Worth	372
Self-Schemas: Lessons for Teachers	374
Motivation to Learn in School	374
On TARGET for Learning	375
Tasks for Learning	376
Task Value	376
Authentic Tasks	376
Supporting Autonomy and Recognizing Accomplishment	378
Supporting Choices	378
Recognizing Accomplishment	378
■ Reaching Every Student: Bounded Choice	379
Grouping, Evaluation, and Time	380
Grouping and Goal Structures	380
Evaluation	380
Time	381
Bringing It All Together: Strategies to Encourage Motivation and Thoughtful Learning	383
Can I Do It? Building Confidence and Positive Expectations	384
Do I Want to Do It? Seeing the Value of Learning	384
Attainment and Intrinsic Value	384
Instrumental Value	385
What Do I Need to Do to Succeed?
Staying Focused on the Task	386

- Enhancing Your Expertise with Technology:
Motivation to Learn 386
- Family and Community Partnerships:
Motivation to Learn 387

Summary Table 388

Becoming a Professional 392

- Teachers' Casebook: What Would They Do? 393

Guidelines:

- Building on Students' Interests* 363
- Coping with Anxiety* 367
- Supporting Self-Determination and Autonomy* 372
- Encouraging Self-Efficacy and Self-Worth* 374

PART 3 TEACHING

Chapter 11

Creating Learning Environments 395

- Teachers' Casebook: What Would You Do? 395

Overview 395

The Need for Organization 396

The Basic Task: Gain Their Cooperation 396

The Goals of Classroom Management 397

More Time for Learning 397

Access to Learning 397

Management for Self-Management 399

Creating a Positive Learning Environment 399

Some Research Results 399

Rules and Procedures Required 400

Procedures 401

Rules 402

Rules for Elementary School 402

Rules for Secondary School 403

Consequences 403

Who Sets the Rules and Consequences? 404

Planning Spaces for Learning 404

Interest Areas 405

Personal Territories 405

Getting Started: The First Weeks of Class 406

Effective Managers for Elementary

Students 407

Effective Managers for Secondary

Students 407

Maintaining a Good Environment for Learning 408

Encouraging Engagement 408

Prevention Is the Best Medicine 408

Withitness 409

Overlapping and Group Focus 409

Movement Management 410

Dealing with Discipline Problems 410

- Point/Counterpoint: Is Zero Tolerance a Good Idea? 412

Special Problems with Secondary Students 412

- Enhancing Your Expertise with Technology:
Classroom Management 414

- Stories of Learning/Tributes to Teaching—
Robert and Daniel 415

The Need for Communication 415

Message Sent—Message Received 416

Diagnosis: Whose Problem Is It? 416

Counseling: The Student's Problem 417

Confrontation and Assertive Discipline 418

"I" Messages 418

Assertive Discipline 418

Confrontations and Negotiations 419

Student Conflicts and Confrontations 420

Peer Harassment 420

Violence in the Schools 421

Summing It Up: Learning Environments for All Students 422

Research on Different Management Approaches 422

Culturally Responsive Management 422

- Reaching Every Student: Culturally Responsive Management 423

Communicating with Families about Classroom Management 423

- Family and Community Partnerships:
Classroom Management 424

Summary Table 425

Becoming a Professional 428

- Teachers' Casebook: What Would They Do? 429

Guidelines:

Establishing Class Procedures 401

Designing Learning Spaces 406

Keeping Students Engaged 409

Imposing Penalties 411

Chapter 12

Teaching for Academic Learning 431

■ Teachers' Casebook: What Would You Do? 431

Overview 431

The First Step: Planning 432

Objectives for Learning 433

Mager: Start with the Specific 433

Gronlund: Start with the General 434

Flexible and Creative Planning—Using

Taxonomies 434

The Cognitive Domain 435

Bloom 2001 435

The Affective Domain 436

The Psychomotor Domain 436

Another View: Planning from a Constructivist Perspective 437

An Example of Constructivist Planning 438

Integrated and Thematic Plans 439

Teacher-Directed Instruction 440

Characteristics of Effective Teachers 440

Teachers' Knowledge 440

Clarity and Organization 440

Warmth and Enthusiasm 441

Explanation and Direct Instruction 441

Direct Instruction 441

Rosenshine's Six Teaching Functions 443

Why Does Direct Instruction Work? 443

Criticisms of Direct Instruction 443

Seatwork and Homework 445

Seatwork 445

Homework 446

Making Seatwork and Homework Valuable 446

■ Point/Counterpoint: Is Homework a Valuable Use of Time? 447

Questioning and Recitation 447

■ Family and Community Partnerships:

Homework 448

Kinds of Questions 448

Fitting the Questions to the Students 449

Responding to Student Answers 450

Group Discussion 451

■ Enhancing Your Expertise with Technology:

Questioning Techniques 452

Teacher Expectations 453

Two Kinds of Expectation Effects 453

Sources of Expectations 454

Do Teachers' Expectations Really Affect Students' Achievement? 454

■ Stories of Learning/Tributes to Teaching—

Small Victories 455

Teacher Behavior and Student Reaction 456

Instructional Strategies 456

Teacher-Student Interactions 456

Student-Centered Teaching: Examples in Reading, Mathematics, and Science 457

Learning to Read and Write 457

Balance in Reading and Writing 458

Comprehension Monitoring and Reading:

Reciprocal Teaching 461

Applying Reciprocal Teaching 461

Learning and Teaching Mathematics 461

Learning Science 463

Beyond Debates to Outstanding Teaching 465

Effective Teaching in Inclusive Classrooms 465

Working with Individual Students 466

■ Reaching Every Student: Resource Rooms, Collaborative Consultation, and Cooperative Teaching 467

Technology and Exceptional Students 468

Summary Table 470

Becoming a Professional 474

■ Teachers' Casebook: What Would They Do? 475

Guidelines:

Using Instructional Objectives 437

Teaching Effectively 442

Productive Group Discussions 452

Avoiding the Negative Effects of Teacher Expectations 458

Teaching for Conceptual Change 464

Chapter 13

Teaching for Self-Regulation, Creativity, and Tolerance 477

■ Teachers' Casebook: What Would You Do? 477

Overview 477

Self-Regulation and Agency 478

What Influences Self-Regulation? 478

Knowledge 478

Motivation 478

■ Family and Community Partnerships: Parents Supporting Self-Regulation 479

Volition	479
Family Influences	479
Self-Regulation Processes	480
Creativity	482
Defining Creativity	482
What Is the Source of Creativity?	482
Creativity and Cognition	483
Creativity and Diversity	483
Assessing Creativity	483
Creativity in the Classroom	484
Brainstorming	484
Take Your Time—and Play!	485
The Big C: Revolutionary Innovation	486
Social and Emotional Learning	486
Emotional Intelligence	486
What Is EQ?	487
EQ Goes to School	487
Cautions	487
Social Skills	488
■ Reaching Every Student: Learning to Listen	488
Life Skills: Preventing High-Risk Behaviors	489
Compassion and Tolerance	490
■ Point/Counterpoint: Should Schools Teach Character and Compassion?	491
Group Work and Cooperation in Learning	492
Beyond Groups to Cooperation	492
What Can Go Wrong: Misuses of Group Learning	493
Making Cooperative Learning Work	494
Setting Up Cooperative Groups	494
Giving and Receiving Explanations	495
Assigning Roles	495
Strategies for Cooperation	496
Jigsaw	496
■ Stories of Learning/Tributes to Teaching—Carlos	497
Reciprocal Questioning	497
Scripted Cooperation	499
STAD	499
■ Enhancing Your Expertise with Technology: Cooperative Learning	501
Creating a Learning Community	501
Classroom Community	502
Getting Started on Community	504
Conflict and Negotiation	505
Respect and Protect	505

Community Outside the Classroom: Service Learning	506
---------------------------------------------------	-----

Summary Table	508
Becoming a Professional	510
■ Teachers' Casebook: What Would They Do?	511
Guidelines
Encouraging Creativity	485
Using Cooperative Learning	500

PART 4 ASSESSING

Chapter 14

Standardized Testing 513

■ Teachers' Casebook: What Would You Do?	513
Overview	513
Evaluation, Measurement, and Assessment	514
Norm-Referenced Tests	514
Criterion-Referenced Tests	515
What Do Test Scores Mean?	516
Basic Concepts	516
Frequency Distributions	516
Measurements of Central Tendency and Standard Deviation	517
The Normal Distribution	518
Types of Scores	519
Percentile Rank Scores	519
Grade Equivalent Scores	520
Standard Scores	521
Interpreting Test Scores	522
Reliability	522
True Score	522
Confidence Interval	523
Validity	523
Absence of Bias	524
Types of Standardized Tests	525
Achievement Tests: What Has the Student Learned?	526
Using Information from a Norm-Referenced Achievement Test	528
Diagnostic Tests: What Are the Student's Strengths and Weaknesses?	529
Aptitude Tests: How Well Will the Student Do in the Future?	530
IQ and Scholastic Aptitude	530

Discussing Test Results with Families 530

Issues in Standardized Testing 530

- Family and Community Partnerships: Explaining and Using Test Results 531
  - How Widespread is Standardized Testing?* 531
  - Accountability and High-Stakes Testing* 532
- Point/Counterpoint: Should Tests Be Used to Hold Teachers Accountable? 533
  - Testing Teachers* 534
  - PRAXIS™* 535
  - National Board Certification* 535
  - The Uses of Testing in American Society* 536
  - Preparing for Tests* 536
- Stories of Learning/Tributes to Teaching—The TEST 537
- Enhancing Your Expertise with Technology: Standardized Testing 538

New Directions in Standardized Testing 538

- Authentic Assessment* 538
- Changes in the SAT* 539

- Reaching Every Student: Accommodations in Testing 540
  - Accommodating Diversity in Testing* 540

Summary Table 542

Becoming a Professional 544

- Teachers' Casebook: What Would They Do? 545

Guidelines:

- Increasing Reliability and Validity* 524

- Becoming an Expert Test-Taker* 526

Chapter 15

Classroom Assessment 547

- Teachers' Casebook: What Would You Do? 547

Overview 547

Formative and Summative Assessment 548

Getting the Most from Traditional Assessment Approaches 548

- Planning for Testing* 549

- When to Test?* 549

- Judging Textbook Tests* 549

- Objective Testing* 550

- Using Multiple-Choice Tests* 550

- Writing Multiple-Choice Questions* 550

Essay Testing 552

- Constructing Essay Tests* 552

- Evaluating Essay Tests: Dangers* 552

- Evaluating Essays: Methods* 552

- Point/Counterpoint: Which is Better—Traditional Tests or Authentic Assessments? 554

Innovations in Assessment 554

- Authentic Classroom Assessment* 555

- Performance in Context: Portfolios and Exhibitions* 555

- Portfolios* 556

- Stories of Learning/Tributes to Teaching—Meaningful Testing 557

- Exhibitions* 558

- Evaluating Portfolios and Performances* 559

- Scoring Rubrics* 559

- Reliability, Validity, Generalizability* 560

- Diversity and Equity in Performance Assessment* 562

- Assessing Learning Potential: Dynamic Assessment* 562

- Enhancing Your Expertise with Technology: Assessment 563

- Effects of Grades and Grading on Students* 564

- Effects of Failure* 564

- Effects of Feedback* 565

- Grades and Motivation* 566

- Grading and Reporting: Nuts and Bolts* 566

- Criterion-Referenced versus Norm-Referenced Grading* 567

- Criterion-Referenced Systems* 567

- Norm-Referenced Systems* 567

- The Point System and Percentage Grading* 569

- The Contract System and Grading Rubrics* 570

- Grading on Effort and Improvement* 572

- Reaching Every Student: Using Technology to Recognize Improvement 572

- Cautions: Being Fair* 572

- Diversity and Grading* 573

- Beyond Grading: Communication* 573

- Family and Community Partnerships: Conferences 575

Summary Table 576

Becoming a Professional 578

- Teachers' Casebook: What Would They Do? 579

Guidelines:

- Writing Objective Test Items* 551
- Creating Portfolios* 559
- Developing a Rubric* 561
- Minimizing the Detrimental Effects of Grades* 567
- Using Any Grading System* 571

Glossary 599

References 609

Name Index 647

Subject Index 659

Appendix

---

Standards and Licensure:

PRAXIS II™ and INTASC 581