

HISTORY OF EUROPEAN POLITICAL PHILOSOPHY

BY
D. R. BHANDARI

WITH A
FOREWORD

3713

BY
Late Dr. BENI PRASAD, M.A., Ph.D., D.Sc.
Head of the Politics Department, University of Allahabad

PUBLISHED BY THE BANGALORE PRINTING & PUBLISHING CO., LTD.
(BANGALORE PRESS)
MYSORE ROAD, BANGALORE 18
1970

TABLE OF CONTENTS

CHAPTER

PAGES

I. POLITICAL PHILOSOPHY OF GREECE

1. Hellenic Institutions ; The Greek view of life ; The Greek view of the City-State ; Characteristic features of the Greek City-State ; Greek idea of Citizenship ; Greek reverence for Law ; Greek notions about Justice ; Greek meaning of Virtue 1-6
2. The Sophists and their Political Philosophy ; Nature and Convention ; Socrates and his teaching ; Socrates on Law and State ; Virtue is Knowledge ; significance of his death ; Cynics and Cyrenaics 6-12
3. Plato ; Socrates and Plato ; Ideal is the real ; Plato's works: The Republic ; Platonic idea of Right Action ; Plato's Ideal State ; The Class State ; criticism ; Platonic conception of Justice ; criticism of Platonic Justice ; Platonic idea of Citizenship ; his system of education ; general remarks and criticism ; Plato's Theory of State ; functional specialisation ; Evils of functional specialisation ; Plato on the rule of philosophy ; The Philosopher-King ; limitations ; criticism ; Plato's Communism ; Comparison with Modern Communism ; The First Feminist ; criticism of Plato's Communism ; Decline of the Ideal State ; Plato's classification of Governments ; Plato on Democracy ; Plato and Marxism ; Plato and Fascism ; Individualism in Plato ; Plato on the idea of the Good ; The Politicus or The Statesman ; classification of Government on the basis of Law ; The Laws ; Plato's modified Communism ; wealth and political power ; administrative machinery with proper checks ; the Hellenic and the Universal in Plato ; Estimate of Plato 12-53

CHAPTER

PAGES

- 4. Aristotle; His environment and method of work; Influences on Aristotle; Natural origin of the State; nature of the State; the ends of the State; Aristotle's defence of slavery; Aristotle's Realism; Criticism; Aristotle on Citizenship; qualifications of Citizenship; Criticism; Aristotle on Law and Justice; Distributive Justice; Aristotle on Education; distinction between State and Government; Aristotle on Government; Sovereignty of Law; classification of Government; economic basis of Government; best Constitution; Aristotle on Revolutions; varying degrees; general causes of revolutions; particular causes; causes in particular kinds of States; prevention of revolutions; Aristotle on Tyrants; Aristotle on Democracy; Aristotle's criticism of Plato; Aristotle's indebtedness to Plato; Inconsistencies of Aristotle; the Hellenic and the Universal in Aristotle; A Pure Conservative; Estimate of Aristotle; Influence of Aristotle .. 54-81
- 5. The Epicureans and the Stoics; Characteristics of post-Aristotelian Political Thought; the Epicureans; emphasis on the Individual; origin of the State; the Stoics; Stoic Conception of Happiness; Natural Law; Universal brotherhood; Individual and the State; importance of Stoic teaching .. 81-89
- 6. Greek contribution to Political Thought .. 89-90

II. ROMAN POLITICAL THOUGHT

- Roman Institutions; Roman Political Philosophy; Roman conception of State; Popular Sovereignty; Roman Imperium .. 91-94
- 1. Polybius; Classification of Government; Mixed type, the best .. 94-95
- 2. Cicero: De Republica; De Legibus; State and True Law; Seneca .. 95-97

CHAPTER

PAGES

- 3. The Roman Legal System and its influence; its development; growth of Jus Gentium; the Code of Justinian; the importance of Roman Law; Roman Contribution to Political Thought .. 98-103

III. EARLY MEDIEVAL POLITICAL THOUGHT

- The Early Church and its Political Theory; the establishment of the Church; the growth of Papacy; comparison between the Roman Empire and the Roman Catholic Church; Papacy and the Holy Roman Empire .. 104-106
- 1. Christianity and Political Thought .. 106-109
- 2. The Political Theory of the New Testament and the Apostles .. 109-111
- 3. Political Theory of the Fathers of the Church; St. Augustine; his environment; De Civitate Dei; general treatment of the book; Philosophy of History; two virtues of Civitas Dei; St. Augustine on the State; property and slavery; St. Augustine's influence on later thought; theory of the two Swords—Gelasius I .. 111-120
- 4. Political ideas of the Teutonic people; Individual Independence; Representative Government; Constitutional Government; Legal System of the Teutons 121-122
- 5. Feudalism and Political Theory; Organisation of Feudalism; political significance of Feudalism; Personal loyalty; Idea of Contract .. 122-123
- 6. The Holy Roman Empire; Growth of the Holy Roman Empire; significance of the Dark Age; Comparison between the Dark Age and the later Middle Ages .. 123-126

IV. MEDIEVAL POLITICAL THOUGHT

- Characteristic features of medieval political philosophy .. 127-128

CHAPTER	PAGES
1. Conflict between the State and the Church; relation between the State and the Church ..	128-129
2. Rival claims for supremacy; The Ecclesiastical claim; reforms in the Church; Clerical arguments ..	129-133
3. The Secular claim; Secular arguments ..	133-138

V. SUPPORTERS OF PAPAL CALIPHATE

1. Hildebrand; Doctrine of Absolution; St. Bernard; Manegold; John of Salisbury; Secular authority delegated by the Church; organic conception of the State; justification of Tyrannicide .. 137-141
2. St. Thomas Aquinas; His Environment—Revival of Ancient Classics; Scholasticism; Christianised Aristotle; Aquinas on the State; classification of Government; supremacy of Papal authority; classification of Law; Augustus Triumphus; Secular reaction 142-152

VI. THE SECULARISTS

1. Marsiglio of Padua; Averroist Aristotelianism; Marsiglio on the State; Marsiglio on Law; sovereignty of the people; the Church; Marsiglio's Erastianism; William of Ockham; Limitations on Papal authority .. 153-160
2. Dante: Universal Monarchy; Empire based on Law and Service; superior Roman claim to Imperial authority; Imperial and Papal authority derived directly from God; Pierre Dubois; French leadership of the world .. 160-165

VII. THE LATER MIDDLE AGES

1. Wycliff: Dominion of Grace; Reform of the Church; relations between State and Church; Wycliff on property; on Government; John Huss .. 166-170

CHAPTER	PAGES
2. The Conciliar Movement; Gerson; Supremacy of the General Church Council; Nicholas of Cusa; decentralisation on National basis; Aeneas Sylvius; significance of the Conciliar Movement ..	170-178
3. General political conceptions and tendencies in the Middle Ages; Universalism; Keynote of Medieval Thought; Parallelism; the supremacy of the Church; the Monarchical Government in Church and State; limitations on Royal Absolutism; the idea of Popular Sovereignty; Representative Government; Group Life; Medieval Theory of Corporations ..	178-195
4. A. Medieval concept of sovereignty. B. The law of nature; growth of the concept of law of nature; Cicero on the law of nature; Corollaries of the law of nature; law of nature in medieval thought; St. Thomas Aquinas on Natural Law ..	185-191

VIII. MACHIAVELLI

His environment; the spirit of Renaissance; The Method of Machiavelli; Machiavelli's conception of human nature; its criticism; The Prince; separation of politics from ethics and religion; Machiavelli's Erastianism; classification of Government; Law-giver and law; A Realist in Politics; Machiavelli's inconsistency; the doctrine of Aggrandisement; the Modern in Machiavelli; his contributions .. 192-210

IX. POLITICAL THEORY OF THE REFORMATION

1. The general bearing of Reformation on Political Philosophy; growth of Monarchical Absolutism; the Nation State dominating the Church; growth of Individualism and Democracy .. 211-213

1. Thomas Hobbes; his spiritual ancestry; Scientific Materialism; the Leviathan and its general treatment; Hobbes and Social Contract; conception of Human Nature; Hobbes on the State of Nature; conception of right and wrong; Natural Rights and Natural Law; the origin of Commonwealth; Nature and Consequences of Hobbesian Contract; the attributes of the Sovereign Leviathan; Rights and duties of the sovereign; liberty and rights of the individual; Individualism in Hobbes; classification of Government; diseases of the Commonwealth; Hobbes on Law; the Erastianism of Hobbes; criticism of Hobbesian conceptions and theories; Estimate of Hobbes .. 278-308
2. Continental political thought in the 17th century; Spinoza; right identified with might; sovereignty unlimited; individual liberty; Aristocratic Democracy; separation between Ethics and Politics; estimate of Spinoza; Pufendorf; State of Nature—a historical fact; contractual basis of Civil Society; Bossuet; Absolutism of Hereditary Monarch .. 308-314
3. John Locke; his works; conception of human nature; the State of Nature; its shortcomings; its criticism; Locke on Natural Rights; Locke on property; Lockean conception of the Social Contract; Government by Consent; Popular Sovereignty; Individualism: Majority Rule; Limitations on Government; Government and separation of powers; Limitations on the Legislature; nature of Lockean State; the right of Revolution; State and Church; comparison between Hobbes and Locke; criticism of Lockean conceptions and theories; estimate of Locke .. 314-340

1. British theory; Bolingbroke; ideal of a Patriot King; popular sovereignty; personal liberty and separation of powers; David Hume; social institutions based on utility; refutation of the social contract theory; against Democracy .. 341-344
 2. Italian theory; Vico; Origin of Society; Vico on the Law of Nature—variable; cyclic change in form of Government; Theory of Triads .. 344-345
 3. The German Theory .. 345-347
- XVI. EIGHTEENTH CENTURY RATIONALISM
- Montesquieu; his intellectual environment; his empiricism and historical method; Montesquieu and Aristotle; Liberty, the Central Theme of Montesquieu; Relativity of human institutions; Montesquieu on kinds of Law; basic principles of Government; virtues of a Government relative; Relation between form of Government and religion and size of a State; Montesquieu's Conception of Liberty; Separation of powers to insure Individual Liberty; Influence of Physical Phenomena on National life; State and the Church; Estimate of Montesquieu; Voltaire; The age of the Unrest; Voltaire on the Origin of Civil Society and on the Natural Rights of Man; Classification of Government; Rousseau; his works; Rousseau's spiritual ancestry; Human Nature; the State of Nature; Formation of Political Society; Theory of General Will; conclusions from Rousseau's Theory of General Will; Will of All; Characteristics of General Will; criticism of Rousseau's Theory of General Will; merits of the Theory; Rousseau's General Will and Idealist Thought; Rousseau on Sovereignty;

CHAPTER

Characteristics of Sovereignty; Liberty and Individual Rights; on Law; distinction between State and Government; origin of Government; classification of Government; Rousseau on Religion; Romanticism of Rousseau; Paradox of Freedom; Weakness of Rousseau; estimate of Rousseau; his influence .. 348-397

XVII. RATIONALISM IN THE LATTER HALF OF THE EIGHTEENTH CENTURY

1. French social and moral philosophy; Morelly; communistic conception of the State of Nature; establishment of a Communistic Society; Abbé Mably; Natural Equality; ethical basis of Politics; Republican Monarchy based on separation of powers; Holbach; Natural Inequality and Social Contract; return to Natural Order; the main French Reformist Groups .. 398-407

XVIII. POLITICAL THEORIES OF THE FRENCH REVOLUTION

1. The political theory of the French Revolution; Abbe Sieyès; the Third Estate; Sieyès's conception of the State; a plea for a written Constitution and a Constituent Assembly; Condorcet; Constitution based on pure reason; Constituent Assembly; Thomas Paine; the Rights of Man; Paine on Society and Government; Natural Rights and Written Constitutions; classification of Governments; the French Documents and Constitutions; their political theories; influence of the French Revolution 408-419

XIX. POLITICAL THOUGHT DURING THE REVOLUTIONARY ERA

1. English thinkers; Edmund Burke; Burke's theory of State; Burke on Natural Rights; Burke on America;

CHAPTER

PAGES

Principle of expediency; Burke as a Conservative Reformer; repudiation of fundamental revolutionary principles; criticism of Burke's eulogy of the British Constitution; estimate of Burke; William Godwin; his spiritual ancestry; Godwin's individualism; uniformity of Human Nature; basis and forms of Government .. 420-433

2. The Continental reactionary thought; Marquis de Bonald; Joseph de Maistre; Ludwig Von Haller; Repudiation of Social Contract; Monarchy and Republic the only forms of Government 433-436

XX. THE IDEALIST POLITICAL THOUGHT

1. The idealist School in Germany; its origin; its theory; Immanuel Kant; Moral freedom; Social Contract; Kant on State; Law and Punishment; Individual—Rights and Duties; Forms of Government; politics bound to ethics; inconsistencies of Kant; Johann Gottlieb Fichte; Fichte's intellectual reactions to political environment; Social Contract; classification of Governments; Fichte's collectivism; Hegel; "outline of the Philosophy of Right"; Rational is Actual; Hegelian Dialectics; the State; Sovereignty and Government; Hegel on Freedom; Father of Totalitarian Ideologies; criticism of the Idealist Theory; Humboldt; Individualism of Humboldt; influence of the German Idealists .. 437-460
2. The English Idealists: Neo-Hegelianism; the State; T. H. Green; Green's spiritual Ancestry; Green's Theory of the State; Will, not Force, is the basis of the State; Positive Freedom; Principles of political obligation; Green on Rights; limitations on the State; individual right of resistance; Green's views on State action; Associations;

CHAPTER	PAGES
Green on punishment; Green on war; Green on property; Estimate; Bradley; the State; Bosanquet; State and Society; State Action; System of Rights ..	460-483

CHAPTER	PAGES
XXI. THE ENGLISH UTILITARIANS
Utilitarianism; its principles ..	484-487
1. Jeremy Bentham; Bentham on utility; Felicific Calculus; Theory of Sanc- tions; The State; Law; Rights; Cha- racteristics of the State; Bentham on Sovereignty; Right of resistance; Government; Punishment; Assessment of Bentham; Inconsistency and Weak- ness of Benthamism ..	487-500
2. James Mill; Essay on Government; Mill on Government ..	500-501
3. John Austin; Austin on Law; origin of the State; Austinian conception of Sovereignty; criticism; civil liberty ..	501-503
4. John Stuart Mill; Mill modifies Bentham- ism; Mill on Liberty; freedoms of the individual; Representative Govern- ment; proportional representation; Sphere of the State action; Estimate of J. S. Mill; influence of Utilitarian- ism; achievements of Benthamism ..	503-518

CHAPTER	PAGES
XXII. SOCIETARIAN POLITICAL THEORY
The Rise of Socialism; Utopian Social- ism in England ..	519-520

CHAPTER	PAGES
I. THE FRENCH SOCIALIST THEORY
1. Jean de Sismondi: Utopian Socialism in France ..	520-521
2. St. Simon: Positive Morality; regulation of Society on the basis of productive capacity; St. Simon on property ..	521-523
3. Louis Blanc ..	523-525
4. Fourier: the Phalange ..	525-526
5. Proudhon: What is Property? ..	526-528

CHAPTER	PAGES
II. THE ENGLISH SOCIALIST THEORY
The Importance of English Socialism ..	528
Dr. Hall ..	529-531
2. Robert Owen: Utopian Communities ..	529-531
III. THE GERMAN SOCIALIST THEORY
1. Karl Marx; The Communist Manifesto; intellectual indebtedness of Marx; Marx on Surplus Value; concentration of capital; evolution; definitions and distinctions; dialectic materialism; the materialistic interpretation of history; economic determinism; criticism of Marxian Dialectic Materialism; the notion of class warfare; the Dictatorship of the Proletariat; Future Society; Marx on the State; criticism of Marxian Fundamentals; Marx and Hegel ..	531-550
2. Lorentz von Stein: distinction between State and Society; the importance of Socialism ..	550-552
IV. OTHER SOCIALIST SCHOOLS
German Social Democrats; Revisionism; Marxist reply to Revisionists; Syndi- calism; Guild Socialism; Collectivism or State Socialism; Fabianism ..	552-558
V. SOCIOLOGY AND POLITICAL THEORY
1. Auguste Comte: Positive Philosophy; Society and Government; Comte's Positive Government; Biological concep- tion of Society ..	558-561
2. Herbert Spencer; Evolution of Spencer's thought; organic and evolutionary Society; Spencer's Individualism; Anar- chy the goal of Society ..	561-567
XXIII. SOME RECENT TENDENCIES IN POLITICAL THOUGHT
1. The State as an Organism
The Psychic Theory; The Biological Theory; The State as a Social Organism ..	568-571

CHAPTER	xxii	PAGES
II. Enquiry into the Basis of Political Obligation
The basis of political authority; Limitation on political authority and obedience; Green on political obligation		571-576
III. The Application of Psychology to Politics
Close alliance between ethics and politics; group psychology; William Bagheot; Graham Wallas; William McDougall; Role of Instinct; Group mind; Nation		576-583
IV. Some Recent Theories of Sovereignty
A. Harold J. Laski—Political Pluralism; Second Phase; Third Phase; The State; Sovereignty; Authority as Federal; problem of obedience; Laski on Rights; Rights of the Individual; Particular Rights; Liberty; Equality; Law; Property; Capitalism; Economics and Politics		583-592
B. Duguit and others: 1. The political thought of Leon Duguit; Duguit on Law; Duguit on State; Duguit on Rights		593-598
2. Hugo Krabbe; Krabbe on Law; Krabbe on State		598-601
3. Esmein—National Sovereignty		601
4. Jellineck—Sovereignty as Auto-Limitation		601-602
5. Kelsen—Pure Jurisprudence and International Law		602
V. Pluralism versus Monism
Revival of the study of Medieval Corporations; Pluralism represents a reaction against State Absolutism; the State not superior to other social institutions; the State vis a vis other institutions; internationalism against State Monism; Pluralism and Law		602-610

CHAPTER	xxiii	PAGES
VI. Democracy and Parliamentaryism
Meaning of Democracy; opposition to Democracy; criticism of Democracy in the Light of Biology and Psychology; Defence of Democracy; Representative Government; Reaction against Parliamentary Government		610-614
VII. Nationalism, Internationalism, Imperialism, Federalism
1. Nationalism: The meaning of nationality; Historical origin of nationalism; Sane nationalism; German Racialism; Criticism; Advantages of Nationalism; Evils of Nationalism		614-619
2. Internationalism: Growth of Internationalism; The Principle of Arbitration; International Organisation; The League of Nations		619-624
3. Imperialism: Justification of Imperialism; Evils of Imperialism		624-625
4. Federalism: Conditions necessary for the success of the Federal System		625-627
VIII. Individualism versus Socialism
Growth of individualism; its justification; Mill on individualism; group individualism; criticism of Individualism; Anarchism; growth and justification of Socialism		627-634
IX. Philosophic Irrationalism		635-640
XXIV. FASCISM AND BOLSHEVISM
1. Fascism: rise of Fascism; its meaning; the Fascist Philosophy; the Fascist Idea of the Nation; the Corporate State; the Totalitarian State; the Fascist State and the Individual; Fascism and the Church		641-647

CHAPTER

PAGE

2. Bolshevism : the aims of Communism ; the Communists and the State ; justification of violence and revolution ; the State withers away ; the Dictatorship of the Proletariat ; Criticism of the Communistic notions ; Communism opposed to freedom and Democracy ; Communism and Natural Rights .. 647-65
3. Lenin : Capitalist Imperialism ; Proletarian Revolution ; Dictatorship of the Proletariat ; the State ; State withers away ; the Communist Society ; The Communist Party : the Professional Revolutionary 653-660
4. Joseph Stalin . Socialism in one Country ; On Revolution ; The Totalitarian State 660-662
- INDEX 663-666