

INDIA
FROM CURZON TO NEHRU
& AFTER

DURGADAS

*with a Foreword by the President of India
Dr. Zakir Husain*

Rupa & Co.

By arrangement with

COLLINS
1974.

CONTENTS

Foreword, 13

Introduction, 15

BOOK I

1900-21

Political Awakening

1. Childhood in a Punjab Village	page 23
2. The Social and Religious Milieu	26
3. First Contact with the White Man	30
4. School Days	32
5. Moment of Destiny: Journalism Beckons	37
6. With A.P.I. under K. C. Roy	40
7. Curzon and Nehru	43
8. Minto and Hardinge	49
9. Gokhale: Towering Parliamentarian	54
10. Chelmsford: Pledge of Reforms	56
11. Tilak: Home Rule is my Birthright	61
12. Passing of the Tilak Era	63
13. The New Challenge of Non-Cooperation	75
14. Dyarchy in Action	78

BOOK II

1921-39

The Gandhian Revolution

1. Simla-Delhi Exodus	85
2. Reading as Viceroy	89

3. The Prince of Wales's Tour	93
4. Gandhi's Triumph and Retreat	96
5. Indianisation of the Services	102
6. Three Revolutions	105
7. Serving the Nationalist Press	108
8. The Rise of Communalism	110
9. The Question of Council Entry	114
10. Reading's Successes and Failures	118
11. Irwin's Bid to Ease Tension	121
12. Divide and Rule	125
13. The Simon Inquiry	129
14. The Worsening Crisis	132
15. Gandhi-Irwin Pact	138
16. (1) Giants of the Central Legislature	142
(2) Irwin's Departure	146
17. Voyage to London	149
18. The Indian Problem: British View	151
19. The Press and India Office	157
20. Willingdon-Civil Disobedience Resumed	160
21. Council Entry-Reforms Act	164
22. The Seeds of Pakistan: Fazli's Views	169
23. Non-Cooperation Ends	174
24. Grigg - Break with Reuter and A.P.I.	177
25. Jinnah - Break with the Congress	181
26. Provincial Autonomy at Work	183

BOOK III

1939-47

Independence Dawns

1. World War II

191

2. The Cripps Mission	200
3. Do or Die	204
4. Over to the Hindustan Times	209
5. Pakistan on a Platter	213
6. War Correspondent	217
7. In London Again	221
8. Cabinet Mission	224
9. Interim Government	230
10. The Assembly Scene	235
11. Towards the Transfer of Power – Mountbatten	238
12. Divide and Quit	247
13. The Final Scene	252
14. The Auspicious Hour	255

BOOK IV
1947-64
The Nehru Era

1. Tryst with Destiny	261
2. Resettling the Refugees	267
3. Constitution Making	271
4. The Passing of the Mahatma	274
5. Meeting Challenges	279
6. Talks with Nehru	288
7. To the New World	295
8. Clash of Personalities	301
9. First General Election	306
10. Planned Development	309
11. India and the Big Powers	317
12. Linguistic States	326
13. President and Prime Minister	331

14. Round the World	339
15. X-Raying the Nation	346
16. The Shrunken Image	351
17. I.N.F.A. is Born	357
18. China Betrays Nehru	359
19. Father and Daughter	368
20. Enter the Scothsayer	374
21. Nehru, Man and Prime Minister	376

BOOK V

1964-68

After Nehru, What?

1. "Big Little Man"	389
2. The Twenty-one-Day War	393
3. A Woman Leads	400
4. Democracy on Trial	407
5. India Counts	413
6. India and the United States	417
7. Moscow looks at Delhi	433
8. The Crystal Ball	438
9. Challenging Issues	440
10. Break-up or Break-through	448
11. Epilogue	457