

425 ✓

INTERMEDIATE GRAMMAR, USAGE and COMPOSITION

M.L. TICKOO, M.A. (Lond.), PH.D. (Lond.)
A.E. SUBRAMANIAN, M.A., L.T. (Madras)
P.R. SUBRAMANIAM, M.A., L.T. (Madras)

Orient Longman

Bombay Calcutta Madras New Delhi
Bangalore Hyderabad Patna

CONTENTS

Chapter		Page
1	THE SENTENCE Subject and predicate; kinds of sentences: statements, commands, questions, exclamations, affirmative/negative sentences.	1
2	PARTS OF SPEECH: IDENTIFICATION Nouns; pronouns; adjectives; verbs; adverbs; prepositions; conjunctions; interjections.	5
3	THE NOUN PHRASE Nouns: proper nouns; countables; formation of plurals; gender: forms of. uncountables: material and abstract. determiners: demonstratives; possessives; some, any; articles. the genitive: forms and use.	12
4	ARTICLES Uses of the definite and the indefinite articles; omission of articles.	21
5	PRONOUNS Pronouns: personal; possessive; in 'self' form; demonstrative; indefinite; of number and quantity; distributive; reciprocal; interrogative; relative.	26
6	ADJECTIVES Kinds of adjectives: descriptive; limiting. certain grammatical items functioning as adjectives.	37
		51
7	THE VERB Uses: attributive and predicative uses; position; order of use; use as other parts of speech. Comparison of adjectives: degrees of comparison; formation of degrees of comparison and transformation; uses of some comparatives and superlatives. Main and auxiliary verbs; intransitive and transitive; complements of verbs; linking verbs; uses of transitive verbs; direct and indirect objects; object complements. Phrasal verbs: uses.	51
8	AUXILIARIES AND MODALS Primary auxiliaries: uses of be, do, have . Modal auxiliaries: will, shall, can, may, would, should, might, could, must, need, ought (to), dare, used (to) .	62
9	ADVERBS AND ADVERBIAL PHRASES Formation; prepositional adverbs; uses as modifiers; kinds of adverbs and adverb phrases; relative adverbs; comparison of adverbs.	75
10	PREPOSITIONS Single-word prepositions; complex prepositions; examples of use; words functioning as prepositions; kinds of prepositional objects. Prepositions used after verbs, adjectives and nouns.	83

Chapter	Page
11 CONJUNCTIONS AND CONNECTORS	102
Kinds of conjunctions: co-ordinating, correlative, subordinating.
✓ 12 THE TENSES: FORM AND USE	107
Present Simple: uses
Simple Past: forms and uses
Present Continuous: uses
Present Perfect: uses
Past Progressive: uses
Past Perfect: uses
Present Perfect Continuous: uses
Past Perfect Continuous: uses
The Future: ways of expressing the Future; uses
Future Continuous: uses
Future Perfect: uses
13 CONCORD: SUBJECT-VERB	139
14 NEGATIVE AND INTERROGATIVE SENTENCES	144
Negatives: use of auxiliary in formation; use of negative verbs; contracted forms; negatives of statements, questions and commands; negating words.
Interrogative sentences: yes-or-no questions — formation; alternative questions; rhetorical questions; short responses with auxiliaries.

Chapter	Page
15 THE PASSIVE VOICE	160
When to use the passive; the form of the passive; use of by + agent; passives of commands; passives of questions; passives with modals; passives of negative sentences; passive with retained object; use of other prepositions than by ; non-agent passives.
✓ 16 NON-FINITES	171
The Infinitive: uses; passive forms; perfective infinitive; infinitive with subject and object; too... + infinitive .
The Gerund: uses as subject, object, object of preposition, subject complements, in the function of adjectives; perfective form; verbs that take gerunds as objects.
Participles: present and past: uses; un-related or misrelated participles.
✓ 17 DIRECT AND INDIRECT (REPORTED) SPEECH	183
Form and punctuation; use of reporting verbs; transformation of statements; commands, questions and exclamations; sequence of tenses in reporting; change of pronouns, adverbials and demonstratives.
✓ 18 SIMPLE SENTENCES	196
Structure of simple sentences: subject, single verb, complements and modifiers. Patterns ('structures') of simple sentences.

19 COMPOUND SENTENCES

218

Co-ordinate clauses; co-ordinating conjunctions and examples of their use; synthesis of compound sentences.

20 COMPLEX SENTENCES

222

Main and subordinate clauses; kinds of subordinate clauses; use of subordinating conjunctions and relative adverbs.

Adjectival clauses: defining and non-defining; use of relative pronouns.

Adverbial clauses: kinds of adverbial clauses — time, place, purpose, reason or cause, result or effect, condition (open, hypothetical and unfulfilled), concession, manner, comparison.

Noun clause: Use as subject, object, complement and object of preposition; if/whether clauses; question-word clauses; sequence of tenses in complex sentences.

Appendix

1	EXERCISES IN SYNTHESIS	247
2	WORD-FORMATION	254
3	COMMON ERRORS	264

COMPOSITION

1	LETTER-WRITING	272
2	EXPANSION	291
3	PRECIS-WRITING	296
4	ESSAY-WRITING	314