

The Stockmarket Bestseller

19456

Making Money ON THE Stock-market

A Practical Handbook

S.S. GREWAL

5th Printing
"...an indispensable handbook"
The Tribune

658.152
— C — ✓

Contents

Preface

vii

INTRODUCTION

INVESTMENT IN SHARES: PROS AND CONS 1

Profits from shares—How profitable are shares —Liquid investment—How safe is investment in shares —Investment vs. speculation—Advantages for the small investor—Other advantages

PART I: THE INVESTMENT BACKGROUND

1. THE COMPANY 17

Distinctive features of a company—Public limited and private limited companies—How companies are formed—How companies are financed—Preference and equity shares—Company management—The annual report—Company meetings—
Register of members

2. THE STOCK EXCHANGE 27

Main functions—Organisation and management—Members of the stock exchange—Listing of securities—Trading—Bulls and bears

3. THE STOCKBROKER 38

Functions—Locating a stockbroker—The procedure for buying shares—The procedure for selling shares—Closing of books—Some common problems

4. THE BALANCE SHEET AND THE PROFIT AND LOSS ACCOUNT 49

The balance sheet—The profit and loss account
—Limitations

5. THE CORPORATE ENVIRONMENT 63

Inflation—Bank credit—Union budget—Infrastructure and infrastructural industries—Performance of the industrial sector—Agriculture and monsoons—Price controls—International factors

PART II : BECOMING AN INVESTOR

- | | |
|---|-----|
| 6. APPROACHES TO INVESTMENT ANALYSIS | 73 |
| Fundamental analysis—Technical analysis—
An approach to investment analysis | |
| 7. PRELIMINARY SCREENING | 80 |
| Don't buy unlisted shares—Avoid inactive shares—Avoid very small companies—Go for diversified companies—Avoid closely held companies—Look at the company's management—
Avoid companies with chronic labour problems | |
| 8. GETTING TO KNOW THE COMPANY | 96 |
| Is the company solvent?—Rights and bonus shares—Capital structure and leverage—Changes in the capital structure—How efficient is the company—Is the depreciation adequate?—Plant and equipment—Book value per share—Dividend and yield—Earnings per share and earnings to equity —Examine the company's order book position and capacity utilisation | |
| 9. ARE THE SHARES REASONABLY PRICED? | 121 |
| Market price and par value—Market price and book value—Price/Book value ratio—Price/Earnings (P/E) ratio—Market price and dividend—
Other factors influencing market price of shares—
Intrinsic price | |
| 10. PROJECTING A COMPANY'S FUTURE | 134 |
| Projecting future earnings and share prices—Use your personal judgement | |
| 11. UNDERSTANDING PRICE MOVEMENTS | 141 |
| How prices are fixed—What causes price movements—Basic price movements—Trends—Resistance levels—Human motivation behind price movements—Market trends—Volatile shares—
Investment climate | |
| 12. INDIVIDUAL AND MARKET BEHAVIOUR | 158 |
| The market is a crowd—Characteristics of crowd behaviour—Avoid becoming part of the crowd—
Distinguish between what the market is and what | | it ought to be—Admit your mistakes—Don't be emotionally attached to your shares—Keeping up with the Joneses—Belief and reality—Buy cheap and sell dear—Don't be greedy—Avoid double standards

PART III : MAKING MONEY ON THE STOCK-MARKET

- | | |
|--|-----|
| 13. GO FOR GROWTH COMPANIES | 169 |
| Spotting growth companies—Characteristics of growth companies—Some growth companies | |
| 14. SPOTTING INVESTMENT OPPORTUNITIES | 182 |
| Look for 'turnaround' situations—Amalgamations and mergers—Taking advantage of management changes—Removal of price controls—Investment opportunities in a depression—Investment opportunities during a boom | |
| 15. NEW EQUITY ISSUES | 187 |
| Procedure for a public issue—Investing in new companies—Investing in new issues of existing companies—FERA companies | |
| 16. DEBENTURES: CONVERTIBLE AND NON-CONVERTIBLE | 198 |
| Why do companies issue debentures—Non-convertible debentures—Convertible debentures—
Investing in convertible debentures | |
| 17. MAKING INVESTMENT DECISIONS: STEP-BY-STEP
GUIDE & CASE STUDY | 208 |
| Procedure for taking an investment decision—
Larsen & Toubro: a case study—Shares to watch | |

PART IV : TAX PLANNING

- | | |
|---|-----|
| 18. MINIMISING YOUR TAXES | 225 |
| Income tax—Capital gains tax—Tax implications of conversion of debentures into shares—Taxes
on original and bonus shares—Tax planning | |

APPENDICES

- | | |
|-------------------------------|-----|
| A. Investment Recommendations | 233 |
| B. Sources of Information | 236 |
| C. Important Financial Ratios | 239 |
| D. Compound Interest Table | 241 |