

MODERN GOVERNMENTS

B. M. SHARMA

*Retired Professor and Head of the Department of Political Science
Lucknow University*

ASIA PUBLISHING HOUSE

BOMBAY • CALCUTTA • NEW DELHI • MADRAS
LUCKNOW • BANGALORE • LONDON • NEW YORK

CONTENTS

Preface

v

PART ONE

1. CONSTITUTIONAL GOVERNMENT 3-17
State as the Highest Form of Society 3, Historical Basis of the State 4, Constitution indicates the Pattern of Society 4, Constitution defined 6, Necessity of a Constitution 7, History of Constitution 7, In England 8, In America 9, Elsewhere 10, Classification of Constitutions 11, Rigid or Flexible 11, Rigidity is Relative 12, Written Constitution only a Plan 13, Extreme rigidity is bad 13, Popular Control over Constitution 14, Constitutional Government defined 15, Constitutions made by Different Methods 15, What a Constitution contains 16, Contrast between Constitutionalism and Absolutism 17

2. THEORY OF FEDERALISM 19-38
Types of Political Unions 19, Personal Unions 19, Real Unions 20, Confederations or Temporary Alliances 20, Federations 20, Federalism defined 20, Federations : How formed 22, Integration of States 22, Division of a big State 23, Characteristics of Federations 23, Co-existence of Two Governments 23, Division of Powers 24, Residuary, Concurrent and Implied Powers 25, Residuary Powers 25, Concurrent Powers 25, Doctrine of Implied Powers 26, Double Citizenship in Federations 27, Written and Rigid Constitutions 28, Special Form of Judiciary 29, Theory of Secession 29, Factors that Promote Federal Unions 32, Physical Contiguity 32, Economic Incentive 33, Political Motives 33, Racial and Cultural Factors 34, Merits and Demerits of Federalism 35, Dicey's Criticism of Federal Tie 35, Brand's Criticism of Federal Tie 36, Laski's Appreciation of Federalism 36, What Experience says of Federalism 37

3. FORMS AND FUNCTIONS OF FEDERAL GOVERNMENT 39-65
Government is a Necessary Feature of Every State 39, Forms of Government are different in Modern States 39, Classification of Governments since Ancient Times 39, Two Bases of Classification 40, Quantitative Classification of Governments 40, Qualitative Basis of Governments 40, Modern Classification of Governments

41, Monarchy Benevolent or Despotic 41, Democracy : Direct or Representative 41, Democracy is still the most Popular Form 41, Different Views of Democracy 42, Principles of Democracy 42, Conditions Essential to the Success of Democracy 43, Liberty is obtained by Fight Against Despotism 44, Democracy and the Declaration of Rights 44, Democracy and the Great War (1914-18) 45, Independent and Dependent Governments 46, True Aim of keeping Dependencies 47, Responsible and Irresponsible governments 48, Government is a Complex Machine 48, Three Organs of Governments 49, Montesquieu on the Principle of Separation of Powers 49, The Legislature in a State 50, Forms of Legislatures : Unicameral and Bicameral 51, Advantages of Bicameralism 51, Disadvantages of Bicameralism 52, Are Upper Houses in Federations Necessary? 53, Composition and Powers of the Two Chambers 53, Different Methods of Election to Legislatures 54, Relative Majority System of Election 54, System of Proportional Representation 54, Representatives and Voters : Their Relations 55, The Executive is the Second Organ of Government 55, Classification of Governments According to the Forms of Executive : Despotic, Presidential or Parliamentary 56, Presidential Form of Government 56, Principles of the Cabinet System 56, Merits of Parliamentary Form of Government 57, Presidential and Parliamentary Types compared 58, Party System a necessity in a Democratic State 59, The Civil Service in a State 60, The Judiciary in a State is the Third Organ of Government 60, Principles on which a Judiciary works 60, Judiciary as the Guarantor and Protector of the Rights of Citizens 61, Functions which the State should perform 62, Classification of Functions into Obligatory and Optional 62, The Old Conception of Functions of State 63, Modern Conception of Functions of Government 63

PART TWO

4. EVOLUTION OF THE ENGLISH CONSTITUTION 69-86
 Anglo-Saxons in England 69, Influence of Christianity on Britain's life 69, Alfred unifies England 70, British Institutions before the Norman Conquest 70, The Witenagemot : Its Composition and Functions 70, England Under the Normans 71, Magna Carta of British Liberties, 1215 A. D. 72, English Constitution Under the Angevins 73, Provisions of Oxford, 1258, 73, Simon de Montfort becomes Leader of Barons 73, Simon's Parliament of 1264 and 1265, 74, Constitutional Reforms of Edward I 74, The Great Parliament of 1295, 74, Hundred Year's War and Parliament 74, The Evolution of the Judiciary in

- England under Normans and Angevins 75, Constitutional Effects of the Wars of Roses 76, Establishment of Tudor Despotism 76, Constitutional Changes during the Stuart Period 77, Charles I and His Parliaments 77, The Petition of Rights, 1628, 78, The Restoration of 1660, 78, The Glorious Revolution of 1688 and its Constitutional Results 79, The Bill of Rights, the Coping Stone of the Constitutional Building 79, Beginning of two Political Parties 80, Policies of the Whigs and Tories 80, Party Government Under the Hanoverians 81, Walpole, The First Prime Minister 81, Rise of the Cabinet System 81, Constitutional Reforms of the XIX Century 82, Their Reasons 82, The Reform Act of 1832, 83, Demand for Social Reforms 83, The Chartist Movement 84, The Second Reform Act of 1867, 84, The Reform Act of 1884, 85, Redistribution of Seats Act, 1885, 85, Reforms in Local Government : Acts of 1835, 1888, and 1894, 85, The Twentieth Century Reforms 86, Reform of the Judicial System 86
5. SALIENT FEATURES OF THE ENGLISH CONSTITUTION 87-103
 Evolutionary Growth is the Most Salient Feature of the British Constitution 88, British Constitution is not a Single Document 88, The Above List is not Exhaustive 90, Unwritten Constitution 90, It is Based on Conventions 91, Extreme Flexibility of the Constitution 96, The Constitution has set up a Parliamentary Democracy 96, Party System is a Feature of the English Constitution 96, Three Parties at Present 97, The Conservatives 97, The Conservatives and the Church 98, The Conservatives and Society 98, The Liberals as a Party 98, The Labour Party in England 99, Place of Political Parties in England 100, Rule of Law is a Feature of the Constitution 100, Difference between Theory and Practice 102
6. THE EXECUTIVE : KING AND CROWN 104-118
 The King 105, British Monarchy without a Parallel 105, Hereditary Monarchy 106, Promise to uphold Constitutional Government 106, The King is the Nominal Executive 107, Income of the King compared with other Heads of States 107, The King can do No Wrong 107, English Monarchy in Law and in Fact 107, The Legal Powers 108, Actual Powers of the King are Limited 108, Prerogative of the King is now Conditioned 109, The Crown and Judiciary 110, The Crown and legislative powers 110, The Crown and Executive Powers 111, Crown and King distinguished 112, Why is Monarchy retained? 112, Prerogatives of the Crown 114

- 7. CABINET AND MINISTRY 119-133
 Three Councils of the Crown 120, Early History of Curia 120, Curia becomes Privy Council 120, Privy Council: Composition and Functions 121, Size of Cabinet and Ministry 121, Nature of Ministerial Responsibility 121, Origin of the Cabinet 121, Cabinet under the Hanoverians 122, Formation of the Cabinet 122, The King's Influence 123, Composition of the Cabinet 123, Reconstruction and Reshuffling of a Cabinet 123, The Prime Minister: His Position And Responsibilities 123, Functions Regarding the Cabinet 127, Power of appointing and dismissing Ministers 127, Powers of supervision over Departments 127, Functions Relating to Parliament 128, Royal Patronage 128, Internal Organisation of the Cabinet 128, Meetings, How held 128, Attendance at Meetings 128, What Subjects are discussed? 129, No Regular Minutes are kept 129, Functions of the Cabinet Secretariat 129, Committees of the Cabinet 129, Inner Cabinet 130, War Cabinet, 1916-18, 130, War Cabinet, September 1939, 130, Cabinet and Ministry distinguished 131, Exact Position of the Cabinet 131, Dictatorship of the Cabinet 132
- 8. PARLIAMENT: ITS GROWTH AND SOVEREIGNTY 134-143
 What the Term Parliament Connotes 134, Under the Normans and Plantagenets 135, Under the Lancastrians and Yorkists 138, Under the Tudors 138, Under the Stuarts 138, Under the Hanoverians 140, Nature and Extent of Parliamentary Sovereignty 141
- 9. PARLIAMENT: ORGANIZATION AND POWERS 149-181
 House of Commons 149, Strength of the House 149, Representation in the Commons 149, Constituencies and Electorate 150, Boundary Commissions and Constituencies 151, Duration of Parliament 152, Dissolution of Parliament and New Election 153, Voters and Voting 154, Nomination of Candidates 155, Cost of Election 156, Electioneering Campaign 157, Declaration of Election Result 157, Defects of the System of Election to Commons 157, An M. P. may not be a True Representative 158, Distortion of Popular Will 159, Disproportionate Strength of Parties 160, Disfranchisement of a Majority of Voters 161, Remedies to remove the Defects of Electoral System 162, Single Transferable Vote System 162, Restrictive Vote and Cumulative Vote 163, Does the House of Commons Truly Represent all Classes of People? 163, Organisation of the House 164, Qualification of the Speaker 164, Duties of the Speaker 164, Dignity of the Speaker 165, Other

- Officers of the House 165, Committees of the House 165, How the Committee is Appointed 165, Rules of Procedure in the House 166, Devices for curtailing Discussion 166, Obligation and Privileges of Members 166, Rights and Privileges of the House as a Body 166, Rights and Privileges of Individual members 167, Declining Influence of an M. P. 167, The House of Lords 167, Why the name House of Lords? 167, Prerogative of the King to create Peers 168, Who composes House of Lords? 169, Obligation and Privileges of Lords 169, Privileges of the House of Lords 170, Whom do the Lords represent? 170, Reform of the House of Lords 172, The Rosebery Committee 172, The Bryce Committee suggestions 172, The Cave and Clarendon Schemes, 1929, 174, The Salisbury Plan of Reform 174, The Need for Reform continues 174, Organisation of the House of Lords 175, Functions of the House of Lords: Legislative Function 176, Judicial Function 176, Powers of Parliament 177, Sovereignty of Parliament 177, The 176, Real Power lies with the Commons 177, Relations between the two Houses 178, Parliament Act, 1911, 179
- 10. PARLIAMENT AT WORK 182-193
 Parliamentary Sessions 183, Meetings of Parliament 183, Question Time in the Commons 184, Functions of Parliament 185, Advantages of Delegated Legislation 187, Importance of Law 189, Distinction between a Bill and an Act 189, Kinds of Bills 190, The Work of an Ordinary M. P. 190, Notice of a Bill 190, First Reading of a Bill 191, Second Reading of the Bill 191, The Report Stage of the Bill 191, Third Reading of the Bill 191, Procedure Regarding Money Bills 192, Differences between the two Houses: How solved 193
- 11. THE WHITEHALL AND CIVIL SERVICE 194-208
 The Whitehall 194, What is the Whitehall? 194, Departmental Heads of Administration 194, How Present Departments may be Classified 197, The Exchequer 198, Chancellor of the Exchequer 198, The Home Office 199, The Foreign Office 200, The Ministry of Labour 201, The Ministry of Health 202, Powers of Health Ministry 202, Consultative Councils 203, Other Departments 203, Commonwealth Relations Office 204, The Civil Service 204, The Old System lacked Efficiency 204, Beginning of Central Control 205, The Reform of 1855 in the Civil Services 205, Completion of the System in 1870, 206, Public Service Commission 206, Present Civil Services in England 206, The Whitley Councils 207

- 12. THE ENGLISH JUDICATURE
The Rule of Law 309, Exception to the Rule of Law 310, All Rights of Citizens stated in the Rule of Law and the same Expects become applicable to the same Courts of Law and the same Expects of Law 311, Declining Priority of the Rule of Law 311, Other Principles of the English Judiciary 311, Immortality and Independence of the Judges 312, The Jury System in England 312, Real History of the Judiciary 313

318-336

- 13. ENGLISH LOCAL GOVERNMENT
Origin of Local Government 318, History of English Local Government 318, Reform of Local Government in the 1830s 318, Present System, the Result of Evolution 319, Present Structure 319, Present System, the Result of Evolution 319, Present Structure of Local Government in England 320, Rural Parishes 320, Rural Districts 321, Urban Districts 321, Counties 322, 323, Rural Districts 321, Urban Districts 321, Counties 322, 323, Urban Boroughs 323, Administration of a Borough 324, Powers of Town Councils 323, Administrative Counties 323, Central Control Over Local Government in England 326, Nature of Central Control Over Local Government 327, Central Control in the Administration of Poor Laws and Finance 326, Parliament-ary Control 328, Government of London 329, City of London 328, County of London 328, Functions of London County Council 329, London Metropolitan Borough 331, Conclusion 333, Finance of Local Bodies 329, Central Control over Local Bodies 334

PART THREE

- 14. FROM EMPIRE TO COMMONWEALTH
The British Empire 339, Purposes underlying Formation of the Empire 340, Advantages to England from the Possessions Overseas 340, Prosperity of the Colonies brought a Change 341, Liberal Statesmen opposed the Colonial Policy of XVIII Century 341, Durham's Report on the Change in Colonial Policy 342, Colonial Policy in the Second Half of the XIX Century 343, Era of Colonial Conference 343, Imperial Conference of 1917, 344, Imperial Conference of 1926, 344, Imperial Conference of 1930, 345, Statute of Westminster, 1931, 345, Legal Sovereignty of Parliament is Intact 349, The Position of King in the Dominions 349, External Independence of the Dominions 350, Position of King in the Commonwealth 350, External Independence of the Commonwealth Nations 350, Position of the Governor-General 351, Cooperation in the Commonwealth 353, Citizenship in the 339-355

- Commonwealth 353, The Political Matters 254, Economic 254, Technical Assistance 254, Miscellaneous 254
- 15. THE DOMINION OF CANADA 254-274
History of the Constitution 254, Upto 1759, 254, Durham's Report 257, United Canada 257, Quebec Resolutions and After 258, The Constitution of 1867, 258, Principles of the Constitution 258, The Federal Government 260, Its Powers 260, Federal Control Over Provinces 261, The Federal Legislature 262, Principles of Representation in the Lower House 262, Composition of the Senate 263, Qualifications of Senators 264, Nominees of the Governor-General 264, Organisation and Working of the Senate 264, The Federal Executive 265, King as the Executive 265, Privy Council of Canada 265, Cabinet is the Real Executive 265, Composition of the Cabinet 267, Civil Service 267, The Canadian Judiciary 267, Four Grades of Courts 268, Provincial Governments 268, Their Powers 268, Provincial Legislatures 270, Provincial Heads 270, Amendment of the Constitution 271, Political Parties 272, Farmers' Party 273, Labour Party 273, Conservatives and Liberals 274
- 16. THE COMMONWEALTH OF AUSTRALIA 275-296
History of the Constitution 275, Extent and Population 275, Discovery of the Continent and Formation of Colonies 275, Australian Institutions borrowed from England 275, Character of Australian Democracy 276, Beginning of Federal Idea 276, Powers and Functions of the Federal Council 276, Federal Idea receives a New Stimulus 277, Making of the Federation 278, Hopes from the Federation 278, The Constitution of 1900, 279, Nature of the Constitutional Problem 279, Federation comes into Being 279, A Union between Independent States 280, The Federal Government 280, Powers of the Federal Government 280, Its additional Powers 282, Direct Control of Territories under the Federal Government 282, Financial Powers of the Federal Government; The Commonwealth Legislature 283, King in Parliament exercises Legislative Powers 283, Senate of Australia 283, How formed 283, Does the Senate represent State Sovereignty? 284, Casual Vacancies in the Senate: How filled 284, Quorum and Voting 284, The House of Representatives 284, Powers of the Legislature 285, Conflicts between the Two Houses; How solved 285, Governor-General's assent to Legislation 286, The Commonwealth Executive 286, The Real Executive 286, Formation of the Cabinet 287, The Commonwealth Judiciary 288, The High Court and Its Constitution 288, Powers of the High Court 288, Amendment of the Constitution 289, A Democratic Method 289, Restrictions on Parliament's Power of amending the Constitution 289, State and Local Governments 290, Powers of the States 291, Position of the Governor as Head of the State 291, Contrast with other Part-States 291, State Legislatures 291, Legislative Powers of State 292, No Party Feelings in the Beginning 293, Economic Factors as Party Issues 293, Labour Party comes into Power 294

17. THE IRISH FREE STATE 297-318
 Constitutional History 297, Four Periods of Irish Constitutional History 297, British Conquest of Ireland 297, Consolidation under the Tudors 298, Clash Between Catholics and Protestants 298, A Pawn in the International Game 298, In the XVIII Century 299, Union with Britain as a Part of the United Kingdom 299, Fight for Home Rule 299, The Sinn Fein Movement 300, From the Treaty of 1921, 302, The Constitution of 1922, 302, The Legislature 303, The Executive 303, The Head of the State 304, The Judiciary 305, The Irish Republic 306, The Constitution is a Gift of the People to Themselves 306, Eire a Sovereign State 307, Rights of Citizens 307, Jurisdiction of the Irish State 308, The Executive 309, The President of the Republic 309, Election of the President 309, How nominated 309, Limitations on Powers 311, The Council of State 311, The Government 312, The Taoiseach 312, The Legislature 313, The National Parliament 313, The Lower House 314, The Upper House 314, Laws: How made 314, Money Bill 315, Conflicts between the Houses: How solved 315, Signature of President 316, Amendment of the Constitution 317

PART FOUR

18. EVOLUTION OF THE POLITICAL SYSTEM 320-340
 Introductory 320, The Career of the East India Company 320, End of the East India Company 324, Under the Crown as a Dependancy 325, Morley-Minto Reforms and Lessons in Self-Rule 327, On the Road to Responsible Government 328, Reforms of 1919, 329, The Central Government of India 330, Provincial Administration and Dyarchy 331, Main Features of the Act of 1935, 336, The Federal Government of India 337, The Constituent Assembly 337

19. SALIENT FEATURES OF THE CONSTITUTION 341-350
 It is the Longest and most Ponderous Constitution 341, Sovereign Democratic Republic 342, The Constitution Establishes a Welfare State 343, Directive Principles of State Policy and Fundamental Rights 344, Secular State 345, Federal Character of the Constitution 345, Parliamentary System of Government 347, Curious Method of Amendment 348
20. BASIC PRINCIPLES 351-373
 The Preamble and the Territory of the Union 351, Introductory 351, The Preamble of the Constitution of India 353, Importance of the Preamble 354, The Territory of the Union of India 354, Citizenship 357, Citizenship in a Federation 358, Nature of Citizenship in the Indian Republic 359, Loss of Citizenship 361, Fundamental Rights 362, Right to Equality 363, Right to Freedom 365, Right against Exploitation 366, Right to Freedom of Religion 366, Cultural and Educational Rights 367, Right to Property 367, Right to Constitutional Remedies 368, The Directive Principles of State Policy 370, Significance of the Principles 370, Implementation of the Principles 372
21. THE UNION EXECUTIVE 374-396
 President 374, Election, Term of Office and Removal of the President 374, Eligibility for Re-election 378, Oath of Office 378, Impeachment of the President 379, Powers of the President 380, Executive Powers 380, Administrative Powers 380, Administration of Union Territories and Tribal Areas 382, Military Powers 382, Legislative Powers 382, Judicial Powers 384, The President and the Supreme Court 384, Emergency Powers 385, General Powers 386, The Vice-President of India 388, Council of Ministers 389, The Attorney-General for India 393, Position and Powers of the Prime Minister 394, Inner Cabinet and Sub-Committees 396
22. THE UNION LEGISLATURE : PARLIAMENT 397-421
 Composition and Powers 397, Composition of Parliament 397, The Council of States 399, House of the People 399, Resolutions 417, Subordinate Legislation 418, Secret Sitting of the House 418, Parliamentary Committees 418, General Committees of the House of the People 419, Legislative Committee 419, Financial Committees 420
23. GOVERNMENT OF THE STATES 422-432
 The State Executive 422, The Governor 425, Qualifications

- and Conditions of Service 425, Powers of the Governor 426, Powers in the Legislative Sphere 426, Powers of Appointment 426, Governor as Agent of the Union Government 428, Council of Ministers 429, Advocate-General of the State 430
24. THE STATE LEGISLATURE 433-442
Composition of the State Legislatures 433, Qualifications and Disqualifications 435, Powers and Privileges of Members 436, Officers of the State Legislature 437, State Legislature at Work 437, Procedure and Conduct of Business 437, Procedure in Financial Matters 439, Functions of the State Legislature 441, State Legislature and Political Parties 441
25. THE UNION TERRITORIES AND OTHER AREAS 443-446
Scheduled and Tribal Areas 443, Union Territories 444, Pondicherry 445, New Set-up for Union Territories 445
26. THE INDIAN JUDICIARY 447-462
The Supreme Court of India : Its Establishment and Constitution 448, Final Adoption of the Constitution of the Supreme Court 448, Supreme Court Constitution 449, Jurisdiction and Powers of the Supreme Court 451, Appellate Jurisdiction of the Supreme Court 451, Other Forms of Jurisdiction 452, Achievements of the Supreme Court 453, The Supreme Court of India and Judicial Review 453, Comparison with American Supreme Court 453, The State Judiciary 457, The High Courts 457, Jurisdiction of High Courts 459, Subordinate Courts 462
27. UNION-STATE RELATIONS 463-470
Union-State Relations Since 1950, 463, Legislative Relations between the Union and States 463, Administrative Relations between the Centre and the Units 465, Union-State Relations during Emergency 467
28. SERVICES UNDER THE UNION AND STATES 471-474
All India Services 471, Public Service Commissions—Union, State and Joint Commissions 471, Composition of the Public Service Commission 472, Term of Office of Members, their Removal and Suspension 472, Safeguards against Partiality 473, Functions of Public Service Commissions 473, Extension of the Functions of Public Service Commission 474

29. MISCELLANEOUS 475-485
Financial Provisions in the Union Constitution 475, Control Over Finance 478, Comptroller and Auditor-General 479, Duties and Powers 479, Special Provisions for Certain Classes 480, The Anglo-Indian Community 480, Backward Classes and Scheduled Castes 481, Backward Classes 482, Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes 482, Official Languages 483, Language of the Union 483, Regional Languages 483, Language of the Supreme Court, High Courts, etc. 484, Special Directions 485
30. FRANCHISE, ELECTIONS AND POLITICAL PARTIES 486-493
Present Constitutional Provision Relating to Franchise and Election 486, Election Machinery and its Working 387, Composition of the Election Commission 487, Election Machinery at the Head Quarters 488, Electoral Machinery in the District 489, Returning Officers and Their Functions 489, Filing of Nominal Papers of Candidates 490, Returning Officer and Withdrawal of Candidates 491, Returning Officer and Retirement of Candidates 491, Returning Officer and Scheme of Polling Stations 492
31. POLITICAL PARTIES IN INDIA 494-517
Party System and Democracy 494, Advantages and Disadvantages 494, Political Parties in India 496, The Congress 498, Congress Ideology, 498, Political Programme 498, Reorganisation of States 498, Emotional Integration 499, Economic Programme 499, Village Planning and Cooperation in Agriculture 500, Community Project and National Extension Service, Establishment of Cooperative Commonwealth, Industrial Policy, Unemployment 500, Establishment of Industrial Estates, Social Programme, Moral and Ethical Advancement, Socialist Order 501, Education, Foreign Policy—Peace and Non-Alignment 502, The Praja Socialist Party, Political Programme, Economic Policy 503, Industrial Estates 504, Economic Programme, State Ownership of Means of the Production 505, Social Programme, Justice and Fair-play to the Minorities, Foreign Policy, The Socialist Party, Decentralisation of Administration 506, Law and Order, Complete Separation of Judiciary from the Executive, Workers' Position 507, Taxation Policy, Education, Elimination of English from Government and Public Use 508, Public Health—A Special Responsibility, Cheap Houses, Foreign Policy, Akhil Bharatiya Jan Sangh, Unitary Form of Government 509, Civil Liberties, Reforms in Administration, Justice, Economic Programme 510, Labour Policy, Revival of Swadeshi

511, Tax Reforms, Village Uplift, Education, Health and Medical Aid 512, Social Programme, Ban on Cow Slaughter, Foreign Policy 513, Integration of Kashmir with India 514, The Communist Party of India, Extension of Democracy 514, Effective Authority to the Organs of Local Self-Government, Rapid Industrialisation, Basic Wages, Respect for Trade Union Rights 515, Land to the Peasant, Liquidation of Cultural Backwardness of the People, Improvement in the Condition of Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes, Improvement in the Social Position of Women 516, Protection of Minority Rights, Foreign Policy 517

32. LOCAL SELF-GOVERNMENT 518-529
 Introductory 518, The District Boards 521, Village Panchayats 522, The Municipal Boards 524, Town Areas 525, Cantonment Boards, Notified Areas, General Remarks on Local Self-Government in India 526

PART FIVE

33. THE CONSTITUTION OF U. S. A. 533-558
 History of the Constitution 533, The Early Colonies 533, Similarities between the Colonies 534, Colonies desired English Institutions 534, Colonies declared War on the Mother Country 535, League of Colonies 535, Nature of the Confederation 536, No Real Perpetual Union 536, The Philadelphia Convention 537, The Constitution of 1787 and its Salient Features 538, Constitution is the Supreme Law 538, Increase of Powers 549, American and British Constitutions Compared 549, Amendment of the Constitution 551, Political Parties in the United States 552, Role of Conventions in the Constitution 554
34. FEDERAL GOVERNMENT IN THE UNITED STATES 559-587
 The Federal Legislature 559, Electoral Districts 560, Franchise 560, Local Representation 561, Emoluments of Members 561, House controls its Procedure 562, Officers of the House 562, Committees in the House 562, Legislative Procedure 563, Conflicts between the Houses 564, President's Signature 564, Upper Chamber 565, Qualifications of Senators 565, Privileges of Senators 565, Presiding Officers 566, Powers of the Senate 566, Most Powerful Upper Chamber 567, Senate controls its Own Procedure 568, Freedom of Speech 568, Influence of the Congress 570, Congress, a Busy Legislature 570, American Congress and British Parliament compared 570, Federal Executive 571, Qualifications of a President 572, Term of Office of President 572, How Elected 573, Election of Presidential Electors 573, Election of President and Vice-President 573, Majority of Presidential Electors and not of Primary Voters Necessary 574, Oath of Office 575, Emoluments of the President 575, President the Most Popular Figure 575, Powers: Strongest Head of State 576, Legislative Powers 576, Veto over legislation 577, Importance of Veto Power 577, Executive Powers 578, Discretionary Powers 578, Impeachment 579, President's Cabinet 579, Secretaries are Subordinate to the President 580, Vice-President 580, Federal Judiciary 580, The Supreme Court 580, Appointment of Judges 580, Jurisdiction of the Supreme Court 581, Original jurisdiction 581, Interpretation of the Constitution 582, Doctrine of Implied Powers 582, Composition of the Supreme Court 584, Circuit Courts 584, District Courts 585, Other Courts 585, Political Parties in the United States 585

35. GOVERNMENTS OF STATES IN THE U.S.A. 588-597
 Growth of the States 588, Essential Facts about States 588, Independent State Constitutions 588, Fifty State Constitutions 590, New States adopted the Old Models 590, General Features of State Constitutions 590, The State Legislature 591, Bicameralism is the General Rule 591, How elected 591, Term of the Legislature 591, Working of Legislature 592, Constitutional Amendments 592, Powers of State Legislature 592, The State Executive 593, The Governor 593, Powers of a Governor 593, Other Officers 594, The State Judiciary 594, State Judicial System Analogous to Federal Judicial System 594, Removal of Judges 595, Different Local Bodies: Their Functions 595, Local Government 596, Their Officials 596, Direct Democracy 596, Initiative 596, Referendum 596, Why the Demand for them? 596, Evils of the System 597, Recall 597

PART SIX

36. THE GOVERNMENT OF SWITZERLAND 601-627
 History of the Constitution 601, The Country 601, Nature of Population 601, Five Periods of Constitutional History 602, Napoleonic Period 603, Confederation of 1845-48, 603, Inefficiency of the Constitution of 1848, 603, Nature of the Constitution of 1874, 604, Its Chief Features 604, Division of Powers 605, Freedom of Cantons 605, Powers of the Central Government 606, Federal Sources of Revenue 606, The Federal Legislature 607,

Lower Chamber : Its Composition 607, Its Terms 607, Members : Their Qualifications 607, Sessions, When Held 608, The Presiding Officer 609, Upper Chamber 608, How Constituted 608, Term of Members 609, Members paid by Cantons 609, Presiding Officer 609, Powers of the Federal Legislature 609, Joint Session 611, Records of the Legislature 611, Quality of Membership 611, The Federal Executive 612, Collegiate Executive 612, How Constituted 612, Elected President as Head of the Executive 613, Head Without Powers 613, Duties of the Federal Council 613, Departments of Administration 614, Working of the Federal Council 614, Not Responsible to the Legislature 615, Bryce on its importance 615, Success of the Federal Council 616, The Chancellor 616, The Federal Judiciary 616, Its Composition 616, Its Jurisdiction 617, Its Working 617, Political Parties 618, Amendment of the Constitution 619, Two Kinds of Revision : Partial and Total 619, How a Partial Revision takes Place 619, Compulsory Referendum for Amendment of the Constitution 620, Cantonal Governments 620, Cantonal Legislatures 621, Cantonal Executives 622, Cantonal Judiciary 622, Local Government in Cantons 622, Education in Cantons 623, Direct Democracy 623, Switzerland, the Home of Direct Democracy 623, Referendum in the Confederation 624, Referendum in Cantons 624, Its Criticism 624, Value of Referendum 625, Initiative in the Confederation 625, Initiative in Cantons 626, Swiss View of Democracy 626, Criticism of Initiative 626, Supporters' View of Initiative 627, Brooks on Direct Democracy 627

37. THE GOVERNMENT OF THE U.S.S.R.

628-657

History of the Constitution, Upto 1917, 628, First Attempt to call the Duma 629, Czar's Authority remained Unaltered 629, The Revolution of 1917, 629, The Constitution of U.S.S.R. till 1936, 630, Rule of the Proletariat 631, Local and Provincial Governments 631, Elections and Basis of Representation 632, Village and Factory Soviets 632, District Soviet 633, Regional Soviets 633, Autonomous Republics 633, Government of the Republics 634, The Central Government of U.S.S.R. Upto 1936, 634, Soviet Judicial System 635, Lower Courts, 635, Supreme Court 636, Soviet Constitution Under Revision 636, Effort to evolve a new Constitution 637, Stalin's Assessment of the Constitution 637, The Soviet Constitution compared 639, Salient Features of the Constitution 640, Democratic Centralism 642, Organisation of the Union—Powers of the Central Government

643, Structure of the Union Government—Supreme Soviet 645, Lower Chamber of the Legislature 645, Directly elected by the People, 645, The Upper Chamber of the Legislature 646, How the Legislature Works 646, Conflict between the Two Chambers: How resolved 646, The Executive—The Presidium : Its Function 647, Council of Ministers : Its Functions 647, Its Composition 648, How it works 648, Judicial System of the U.S.S.R., 648, Organization of the Judiciary in the U.S.S.R. 651, The Supreme Court 651, Other Courts 651, Government of the Units 652, Legislatures of Units 653, Executives of Units 653, The Communist Party 654, Non-Racial Party 654, Membership of the Party 655, Party Discipline 655, Aims of Communism 655, Organization of the Party 656, One Party Government the Goal 656

38. THE GOVERNMENT OF FRANCE

658-693

Constitutional History 658, Too Many Constitutional Experiments 660, Republic Again 661, Efforts to Make a Constitution 661, The New Constitutional Law of 1875, 661, Constitutional Law of July 16, 1875, 662, A Mixture of Laws 663, Constitution of the Third Republic—Not a Single Document 662, Product of Many Revolutions 663, A Brief Rigid Document 663, How it might be amended 664, The Legislature of the Third Republic—Bicameralism adopted 664, The Senate 664, How elected 664, Quality of Members 665, Conflict with the Other Chamber : How solved 665, Other Powers 665, The Chamber of Deputies 666, Franchise 666, Form of Election 666, Speaker, a Party Man 667, Powers of the Chambers 667, The Executive—Parliamentary Republican Executive 667, President as the Head of the State 667, President : How elected 668, Powers and Status of the President 668, The Cabinet—Principles of the Cabinet System 668, Failure of Parliamentary Government in France 669, Causes of the Instability of the Cabinet 669, The Fourth French Republic of 1946, 671, Features of the New Constitution—Principles of the Constitution and Rights of Citizens 673, The Legislature 673, The Executive of the Fourth Republic—The President, His Position and Powers 674, Powers of Appointment 674, President and the Legislature 675, President was the Constitutional Head 675, The Cabinet : How formed and how it worked 675, Amendment of the Constitution 675, The Fall of the Fourth Republic 676, Voting for the Fifth Republic 677, Communist Defeat 677, Visit to Algeria 678, A Few Incidents 678, The Fifth Republic 678, Prince-President 679, The New Phase 679, Government of the Fifth Republic 680, The Judiciary - Contrast with England 681, Principles of French Judiciary 681, What Administrative Law means and is 682, History of Administrative Law in France 682, Why Administrative Courts Continue 684, Administrative Courts 683, Classes of Administrative Tribunals 685, The Rule of Law and Administrative Law compared 683, Grades of French Courts 685, Local Government Before the Revolution 685, Effect of the Revolution 686, Commune: Composition of Council 686, Working of the Council of Commune 687, The Canton, the Arrondissement, The Department 688, City of Paris 689, Commune: Composition of Council 690, Finances of Local Bodies in France 690, Central Control 691, By the President and Ministry of the Interior 691, By the Prefect as Agent of the Central Government 692

PART SEVEN

38. THE GOVERNMENT OF JAPAN 697-717

Constitutional History 698, Causes of the Fall of the Tocu-gawa Shogunate 698, The Period of Restoration and Reform (1868-1889) 699, Methods by which Westernisation of Japan was accomplished 700, The framing of the Constitution of 1889, 702, The 1889 Constitution of Japan: Its Nature 702, Rigidity 703, Influence of Custom 703, A Strong Monarchy 704, Centralised System 704, Adoption of Western Institutions 704, The Genro 705, Place of the Legislature 705, The Privy Council: Its Powers 705, Lord Privy Seal 706, The Legislature 707, How composed 707, Lower Chamber 707, Power of the Legislature 707, Control over Finances 708, Political Parties 708, The Judiciary, Independence of Judges 709, Local Government 710, Cities 711, Rural and Urban 711, Central Control 711, Japanese Constitution of 1946—Japan under the Allied Occupation 712, How the new Constitution was made and Promulgated 712, Rights of the People in the Constitution 712, Legislature and Its Functions 713, Powers of the Diet: How Laws are made 713, Amendment of the Constitution: How Finally made 714, The Executive—The Emperor: His Position and Powers 714, The Cabinet: Its Composition and Powers 715, The Judiciary 716, On Way to Amendment 716.

39. THE GOVERNMENT OF CHINA 718-739

History of the Constitution 718, Ancient China 719, The Manchu Dynasty in China 719, Causes and Results of the First and Second Opium Wars (1841 and 1856) in China 720, China struggles against Foreign Domination 722, Sun Yat-sen and New Chinese Nationalism 724, The Boxer Protocol 725, The Reformist Movement 725, China under Republican Rule (1912-26) 726, The People's Republic of China 728, Chinese Government under the Constitution of 1954, 729, Analysis of the Constitution and Organs of Government 729, National People's Congress as the Legislature 731, The Standing Committee 732, The Executive in the People's Republic 733, The State Council 734, Administrative Areas and their Administration 735, The Judicial System of the People's Republic 737, Fundamental Rights and Duties of Citizens 737

APPENDICES

Appendix A	740-769
Appendix B	740-752
Index	753-769
	771-778