

Chap.

5 INDIA'S FOREIGN TRADE
Changes effected before 1938-39—Effects of war and conditions thereafter—Changes effected during plan periods—Changing pattern of our foreign trade—Export stimulation measures—International co-operation and international trade.

6 INTERNATIONAL BANKING
International Monetary Fund—The I. M. F. and the less developed countries—The I. M. F. and international liquidity—International Bank for Reconstruction and Development—International Finance Corporation—International Development Association—Regional banking.

PART IV PUBLIC FINANCE

1 INTRODUCTION
Definition—Public finance and public economic Comparison of public finance and private finance—Principle of public finance—Tests of social advantage—State intervention—Contents public finance.

2 PUBLIC REVENUE
Nature—Principle—Effects—Classification.

3 PUBLIC EXPENDITURE
Growth of public expenditure—Its principles—Classification—Effects of public expenditure in an advanced country—Its effects on economic growth in a developing country—Effects of public expenditure in the developing economy of India.

4 CLASSIFICATION OF TAXES
Sacrifice based—Direct and indirect—Personal and impersonal—Specific and advalorem—Prominent taxes—Their significance and allocation between centre and states in India.

SHIFTING AND INCIDENCE OF TAXES
Meaning of shifting and incidence as of impact also—Incidence and taxation—Effects of taxation policy—Examination of certain taxes from the point of view of incidence and effects.

Page

6 A SOUND TAX SYSTEM 588
Canons of taxation—The role of taxation in a developing country—Index of ability to pay taxes—Ability principle interpreted in terms of equal sacrifice—Application of principles of taxation to certain classes of taxes.

7 PUBLIC DEBT 599
What is public debt—Public debt and private debt compared—Importance of necessity of public debt—Public debt in India—Loan versus Taxes—The role of loans in depressions—Deficit financing—Effects of loan on consumption, production and distribution—Classification of loans—Redemption.

8 FEDERAL FINANCE AND BUDGETING 614
(With reference to India)
Meaning and scope of federal finance—Financial relationship between the centre and the States in India—Indian Finance Commissions—Items of expenditure of the centre and the states.

9 THE PROBLEM OF UNEMPLOYMENT 633
The classical theory of unemployment—Criticism of classi-cist's theory—Keynes' general theory of employment, interest and money—A comparison of the two theories
—Criticism of Keynesian theory—Solution in undeveloped countries.

PART V INDIAN CURRENCY

1 HISTORY OF INDIAN CURRENCY 647
Early British Attempts—Currency from 1835-93 (silver standard)—Currency from 1893-1898 (Transitional Stage)
—Gold Exchange Standard—Currency from 1927-39 (Sterling Exchange Standard)—Paper currency in India
—Effects of World War II (1939-1945) Post War II period—Sterling Balances.

2 INDIAN CURRENCY DURING PLANS AND TODAY 721
Deficit Finance—Extent and Relation with Money Supply —Inflationary Pressure—Foreign Exchange Deficits—1966 Devaluation—Indian Currency System Today.