

NEHRU
THE FIRST SIXTY YEARS

9214

CONTENTS OF VOLUME TWO

Map of India after Partition, x-xi

PART SIX

1940-1941

1. On U.S. Understanding of India—From Five Letters—What of Russia Now? The Russo-German Pact and the Russo-Finnish War, 3
2. Constituent Assembly—Congress and the War—World War II Developments—Congress and Non-Violence—Related Problems, 18
3. Resumé of Developments: World War II (Summer, 1940), 27
4. Fresh Congress Offer—Viceroy's August 8 Statement—Reactions to Statement—Bombay Congress Meetings, 1940, 33
5. Individual Satyagraha—Eighth Arrest—Letter from Gandhi—Statement at Trial, November, 1940—Letters from Jail—Interruption of Work of National Planning Committee, 42
6. Eastern Federation—India, China, Asia, 50
7. World War II Developments, 1941: Atlantic Charter—Evolution of U.S. and British Policy Toward India, 53
8. Tagore and Gandhi—Letter from Jail—Release from Prison, 55
9. Statements after Release from Prison, 1941, 62

PART SEVEN

1942

1. Military Situation and Developments in East—International and Domestic Issues, 71
2. Visit to India of Madame and General Chiang Kai-shek—U.S. and Chinese Efforts in Behalf of Indian Freedom, 75
3. The Cripps Mission—Congress Resolution Concerning Mission—Breakdown of Mission—Roosevelt's Efforts to Avert Breakdown—Further Statements, 79
4. Post-Cripps Mission Period—Congress Resolution on Possible Invasion of India—India's Day of Reckoning—Other Statements of the Period—Press Interview, July, 96
5. India and China, 112

a*

CONTENTS

5. Quit India Movement, Summer, 1942—Comments on Quit India Resolution—Ninth Prison Sentence—Consequences of Movement and Jailing of Congress Leaders—British Statements—Further U.S. Interest in Indian Independence—The Discovery of India—Afterthoughts on August, 1942 Struggle—Jinnah and the Muslim League—India's Communists—Letters from Jail, 117

PART EIGHT

1943-1945

1. The War, 1943—Phillips-Roosevelt Efforts in Behalf of Indian Freedom—Famine, 135
2. Reveries in Jail, 140
3. Industrialization in India—Religion, Philosophy and Science—The Discovery of India—Letters from Jail, 143
4. Further Course of World Events, 1944-1945: End of War in Europe—Fresh British Proposals—After Prison, 1945—Pious Platitudes, 161
5. The Simla Conference, June, 1945—Statements on Other Matters, Summer, 1945, 165
6. End of World War II—Fresh Examination of "Indian Problem"—For an Undivided, Progressive India—Britain's Decision to Convene Constitution-Making Body for India, and to Create Representative Executive Council, 168
7. The Indian National Army and Military Disaffection, 173
8. Dialogue with Gandhi—Message to Youth of Ceylon—Anti-National Policy of Communist Party of India—End of 1945, 177
9. On Development of Indian Literature as a Uniting Force, Address at P.E.N. Symposium, 1945, 186

PART NINE

1946: Year of Decision

1. Developments, Early 1946: Cross-Section of Statements, 195
2. Mounting Tensions: Naval Mutiny—Acts of Violence in Bombay and Related Problems—Announcement of 1946 Cabinet Mission, 201
3. Reactions to Cabinet Mission Proposals—Colonialism Must Go—India and the Future, 206
4. Publication of The Discovery of India—Trip to South-East Asia—First Meeting with Lord and Lady Mountbatten—Statements on Return to India, April, 217

CONTENTS

vii

5. Clarification of Purpose of Cabinet Mission—Arrival of Mission in India, 223
6. Simla Conference Proposals—Mission's Further Offer, and Failure of Conference—The Princes: General Congress-League Controversies, 225
7. Cabinet Mission's Own Plan, May 16—Formation of Interim Government, 230
8. Cabinet Mission's and Viceroy's June 16 Statement—Journey to Kashmir—Congress and Muslim League Reactions to Britain's Proposals—Speech to Congress, July 7, 232
9. Muslim League Reactions to Cabinet Mission Plans and Congress Position—July 10 Press Conference—Criticism of Statements at Conference—Speech of July 22, 235
10. Summer, 1946, 242
11. The Interim Government—Reactions to Communal Riots, August, 247
12. Congress-League Controversy, October—Letters to Jinnah—Correspondence with Wavell, 254
13. Of Subjects other than the Impending Independence of India: Statements at Time of Arrest in Kashmir, on Atomic Bomb, Racial Issues, Foreign Policy, Food Situation, African Aspirations, Communalism (Summer-Autumn, 1946), 263
14. Congress-Muslim League Tensions, November, 273
15. London Conference, December—Creation of Constituent Assembly, 275
16. After Return from London: Resolution Concerning Independent Sovereign Republic, 278
17. Appointment of Lord Mountbatten as Viceroy, 287

PART TEN

Year of Independence: 1947

1. Upheaval and Transition—Of Gandhi and Difficulties within Congress, 291
2. Congress Resolution—Mountbatten Accepts Invitation to Become Viceroy—Constituent Assembly Acceptance of Objectives Resolution, 294
3. Attlee's February 20 Statement—From Letters to Gandhi—Jinnah's Decision to Cooperate with Congress: Proposal to Divide the Punjab—On the Punjab, 303

CONTENTS

- viii
4. Inter-Asian Relations Conference, 309
 5. Mountbatten's Arrival in India and Subsequent Developments, March-April, 316
 6. Developments, May 18-June 2—The Mountbatten Plan, 320
 7. Acceptance of Mountbatten Plan—Commonwealth Relations and Dominion Status, 325
 8. Indian Independence Act—Problem of Princely States and Patel's Role in Integrating Them, 329
 9. On the Eve of Freedom—Independence: Creation of Pakistan, 333
 10. In the Wake of Independence, 341
 11. The Tragedy of Kashmir, 345
 12. Hyderabad—India's Foreign Policy—"The Universities Have Much to Teach", 353

PART ELEVEN

1948

1. January, 1948, 363
2. Assassination of Gandhi, 363
3. Kashmir Developments: January, 375
4. Economic Policy—Foreign Policy, 379
5. Launching of S.S. Jala-Usha (first ocean-going steamer made in India): March 14, 387
6. Kashmir Developments—March, April, 389
7. Current Dilemmas, 398
8. Economic Freedom for Asia, 402
9. Kashmir: Further Statement, Summer, 1948, 407
10. Departure of Lord and Lady Mountbatten—On Partition—Socialism and Communism, 410
11. Commonwealth Relations—European Trip—Last Lap of Our Journey, 414
12. Hyderabad—Kashmir, 433
13. Of the Father of the Nation, 443

PART TWELVE

1949-1950: To The Founding of the Republic of India—January 26, 1950

1. Eighteen Nations Conference—Emergence of India in World Affairs, 449

CONTENTS

ix

2. Foreign Policy—India and the Commonwealth, 460
3. Independence Day, 1949, 486
4. First Visit to United States of America, 490
5. Miscellany: End of 1949, Early 1950, 516
6. Indo-Pakistan Relations, 526
7. Sages of India, 530
8. 1950—Republic Day, January 26, 536
9. Postscript: "Changing India", 538

Appendix, 543

Glossary, 577

Bibliography, 583

Index, 589