

8793

Pakistan in Transition

Meenakshi Gopinath

Contents

PREFACE	v
LIST OF TABLES	xi
ABBREVIATIONS	xii
Chapter I
INTRODUCTION	1
Definition of Basic Concepts	2
1. Political Party	2
2. Modernity/Tradition	3
3. Social Mobility	3
4. Political Development	4
Crisis in the Political History of Pakistan	7
1. Identity Crisis	7
2. Crisis of Penetration and Integration	9
3. Crisis of Participation	13
4. Crisis of Distribution	15
5. Crisis of Legitimacy	16
Yahya's Promise	18
Chapter II
THE PAKISTAN PEOPLE'S PARTY	20
The Genesis	21
Origins of the PPP : A Theoretical Explanation	24
Declared Objectives of the PPP	27
Socialism Defined	29
The Election Manifesto (1970)	31
(a) Foreign Policy	32
(b) Economic Policy	33
(c) Agrarian Measures	34
(d) People's Rights	35
(e) Education and Culture	36

(f) National Health	36
(g) National Defence	37
(h) The Constitution	37
Bhutto's Radio and Television Broadcast	38
The Power Configuration within the Party	39
Other Parties	42

Chapter III

THE ELECTION CAMPAIGN	50
The Election Strategy	52
The PPP Image	63
Issues and Themes of the Campaign	66
Favourite Slogans of the Campaign	79
The Campaign Style	80
The Reactions to the Campaign	84

Chapter IV

THE ELECTORAL RESPONSE TO THE PPP	87
The East and West Social Structure	89
The Election Results	91
Causes of the PPP Victory	102
Aspirations. Charisma, Culture and the PPP	105

Chapter V

THE PARTY IN POWER : EARLY PHASE	108
Political Mobilization	109
Domestic Activities of the PPP Regime	112
Economic Activities and Election Promises	117
EPILOGUE	130
BIBLIOGRAPHY	150
INDEX	154