

Political Development In India

Dr. B.C. DAS

M.A. (Pol. Sc.) M.A. (Pub. Adm), Ph. D.,
Utkal University, Vani Vihar,
BHUBANESWAR

ASHISH PUBLISHING HOUSE
NEW DELHI-110027

CONTENTS

	Page
Author's Preface	v
Chapter
1. Unity and Integration	1
I. National Integration, Prospects of Afro-Asian Democracy, Nationalism in the Developing States.
2. Emergency in India	36
II. Introductory Background, Object of Emergency, Provisions, Types of Emergencies, Features, Duration of Emergency Proclamations, National Emergency, Effects, End of an Era, Post-Script.
3. Amendment	71
III. Need, Procedure, 42nd Amendment Act, 1976, Features and Provisions, Contemplated, 43rd Amendments. Limitations on Parliamentary Supremacy.
4. The President of India	94
IV. Institutional Motives, Presidential or Parliamentary? Presidential Election, 1967, National Consensus, Election to the Rastrapati Bhawan 1969, Dissolution of Lok Sabha; Use and Abuse, Promulgation of Ordinances : A Study on Desirability.
5. Gandhism	167
V. Gandhian Polity : Urge of the Century, Ends & Means, Individual, State and Society, Gandhian Democracy. Impact of Gandhism on the Indian Constitution : His Ideal Society, Decentralized

Democracy, The Gandhian Impact, Gandhi and Untouchability.
6. Socialism and the Directive Principles	193
VI. Objects, Provisions and Prospects, Socialism.
7. Leadership in Democracy	206
VII. Political Power, Rural Leadership, Background, Anatomy of Leadership, Political Socialization Conclusion.
Appendix :
AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION OF INDIA	217
BIBLIOGRAPHY	386
INDEX	387