

154.7

Table of Contents

THE EDITOR'S PREFACE..... xv

PART I.—HISTORICAL.

CHAPTER I.

THE DAWN OF HYPNOTISM—FROM MESMER TO BRAID.

Isis and the Ancient Egyptian Mysteries—Vishnu and the Hindoo Mythology—Hippocrates believed in Somnambulistic Powers—Names of prominent Adepts of the Science in the Middle Ages and Renaissance Periods—Frederick Mesmer—His sensational Experiments in Paris—Animal Magnetism—The Faculty and the Academy refuse to recognize his Discoveries—The Magnetized Tree of the Marquis de Puységur—Berlin leads the Way in Mesmeric Researches—Baron du Potet's Magic Mirror—The Advent of Spiritualism interferes with the Progress of the Science..... 21

CHAPTER II.

PROFESSOR CHARCOT AND HIS SCHOOL.

The first Time the word Hypnotism was used—Its Etymology and Meaning—Considered a Synonym of the word Magnetism—James Braid, the Manchester Physician—How he became interested in the Phenomena—His Claim that Hypnotic Sleep (thus christened by him) can be Induced by Physical Agents—Tried to localize the Mental Faculties in certain Parts of the Brain—Applied Hypnotism to the Treatment of certain Diseases—The Electro-Biology of Dr. Grimes, the American—Experiments of Dr. Azam, of Bordeaux—Dr. Burq, believing himself about to die, reveals his Discovery concerning the Effects of Brilliant Metal Surfaces on the Body—Metaloscopy and Metalo-Therapeutics—Professor Charcot's systematic Experiments at the Hospital of La Salpêtrière create the School of that Name—He recognizes three distinct Stages in Hypnotic Sleep: Catalepsy,