

PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION

Mohit Bhattacharya

WORLD PRESS

Contents

---

---

|   |  |              |
|---|--|--------------|
| Chapter 1                                | Public Administration : NatureSignificance and Evolution ..... | 1-21  |
| Definition .....                                | 1  |              |
| The Public Interest .....                       | 3  |              |
| Significance of Public Administration .....     | 5  |              |
| Evolution of Public Administration.....         | 7  |              |
| The first stage .....                           | 7  |              |
| The second stage.....                           | 8  |              |
| The third stage .....                           | 9  |              |
| The fourth stage .....                          | 10   |              |
| The fifth stage.....                            | 12   |              |
| New Public Administration .....                 | 12   |              |
| Values .....                                    | 14   |              |
| Social Equity.....                              | 14   |              |
| Change .....                                    | 15   |              |
| The Public Choice School .....                  | 16   |              |
| Critical Theory and Public Organisations .....  | 16   |              |
| Current trend .....                             | 19   |              |
| References .....                                | 20   |              |
| Chapter 2                                | Efficiency in Government :Public-Private Debate .....          | 22-29 |
| Three kinds of Efficiency .....                 | 25   |              |
| Business and Public Administration .....        | 27   |              |
| References .....                                | 29   |              |
| Chapter 3                                | Theories of Administration.....                                     | 30-44 |
| Theory .....                                    | 30   |              |
| Two Approaches to Organisational Analysis ..... | 33   |              |
| Scientific Management : Taylor .....            | 34   |              |
| Classical Theory of Management : Fayol .....    | 37   |              |
| Fayol's followers.....                          | 39   |              |
| Criticism of Classical Theory .....             | 41   |              |
| References .....                                | 44   |              |

|   |              |
|---|--------------|
| Chapter 4 Basic Concepts .....                             | 45-63 |
| What is a Concept ? .....   | 45           |
| Organisational structure .....                                    | 45           |
| Departmentation .....   | 47           |
| Two Aspects of Structure .....                                    | 50           |
| Division of Work and Hierarchy .....                              | 52           |
| Differentiation and Integration .....                             | 53           |
| Authority and supervision .....                                   | 53           |
| Scalar chain and unity of command .....                           | 53           |
| Line and staff .....  | 53           |
| Centralisation and Decentralisation .....                         | 58           |
| Delegation .....  | 58           |
| Decentralisation .....  | 59           |
| References .....  | 63           |
| Chapter 5 Max Weber and Bureaucratic Theory .....          | 64-78 |
| Classical Writings on Bureaucracy .....                           | 64           |
| Mark on Bureaucracy .....   | 64           |
| The Weberian Model .....  | 69           |
| Charismatic domination .....                                      | 70           |
| Traditional domination .....                                      | 70           |
| Legal domination .....  | 71           |
| Bureaucratic Structure .....                                      | 71           |
| Critique of Weber .....   | 74           |
| References .....  | 77           |
| Chapter 6 Human Relations and Behavioural Approaches ..... | 79-93 |
| Chester Barnard .....   | 82           |
| Systems Approach .....  | 86           |
| What is a system .....  | 87           |
| Relevance for Organisation Theory .....                           | 88           |
| Situational Theories .....  | 89           |
| The Closed and Open Models (CM and OM) .....                      | 91           |
| References .....  | 93           |

|   |                |
|---|----------------|
| Chapter 7 Decision-Making and Policy-Making .....                                | 94-112  |
| Decision-Making .....   | 94             |
| Simons behaviour alternative model .....  | 95             |
| Organisational context of decision.....   | 97             |
| Goal-setting in Government .....  | 99             |
| Policy-Making in Government.....  | 100            |
| Need for Policy Analysis .....  | 101            |
| Models of Public Policy .....   | 103            |
| Institutionalism .....  | 103            |
| Group Theory .....  | 104            |
| Elite Theory .....  | 104            |
| Rational Model .....  | 105            |
| Incrementalism .....  | 107            |
| Game Theory .....   | 109            |
| Systems Theory .....  | 110            |
| Summing-up .....  | 110            |
| References .....  | 111            |
| Chapter 8 Administration in Action .....   | 113-128 |
| Communication .....   | 113            |
| Perceptual Process .....  | 115            |
| Formal and informal communication .....   | 115            |
| Management information system .....   | 116            |
| Behavioural Implications of Control .....   | 117            |
| Theory X.....   | 118            |
| Theory Y.....   | 118            |
| Leadership in organisations .....   | 121            |
| Co-ordination .....   | 124            |
| Summing-up .....  | 126            |
| References .....  | 127            |
| Chapter 9 Comparative Public Administration and Development Administration ..... | 129-147 |
| Basic Interest .....  | 130            |
| Two Models .....  | 130            |
| Development Administration .....  | 132            |
| The Riggsian Model .....  | 133            |
| Later Modifications .....   | 137            |

|   |                |
|---|----------------|
| Bureaucratic Culture .....                                    | 140            |
| Specificity of Development Administration.....                | 141            |
| References .....  | 146            |
| Chapter 10 People's Participation in Development ..... | 148-163 |
| Why Participation ?.....                                      | 148            |
| Counter development Thesis.....                               | 150            |
| Participation ; a Critique .....                              | 151            |
| Organisation types.....                                       | 153            |
| Nature and Types of Participation .....                       | 154            |
| Benefits of Participation .....                               | 156            |
| Critics of Community Participation .....                      | 158            |
| The Role of the State .....                                   | 160            |
| References .....  | 162            |
| Chapter 11 Administration in Socialist Countries ..... | 164-178 |
| Ethnocentricity of Public Administration .....                | 164            |
| Importance of "Socialist Administration" .....                | 166            |
| Roots of Socialists Management "Principles" .....             | 167            |
| Lenin's Concept of "Socialist Management" .....               | 169            |
| Democratic Centralism .....                                   | 173            |
| References .....  | 178            |
| Chapter 12 Personnel Administration .....              | 179-216 |
| Objectives and Significance of Personnel Management .         | 180            |
| Personnel Functions or Processes .....                        | 181            |
| The Civil Service .....                                       | 182            |
| Development Needs.....  | 183            |
| Changing Scenario .....                                       | 185            |
| Position Classification .....                                 | 188            |
| Recruitment .....   | 191            |
| Merit System.....   | 193            |
| Spoils System .....   | 193            |
| Process of Recruitment .....                                  | 194            |
| The Recruiting Authority .....                                | 194            |
| Recruitment from Within andRecruitment from Without.....  | 195            |
| Qualifications of the Employees .....                         | 196            |

|  |                |
|--|----------------|
| General Qualifications .....   | 196            |
| Special Qualifications .....   | 197            |
| Methods of Determining Qualifications .....  | 198            |
| Determination of Qualifications.....   | 200            |
| Training .....   | 201            |
| Types of Training .....  | 203            |
| Training in The Third World .....  | 204            |
| Career Development .....   | 206            |
| Significance of Effective Career Development .....                                       | 207            |
| Hindrances to Career Development .....   | 208            |
| Performance Appraisal.....   | 208            |
| Promotion .....  | 211            |
| Essentials of Promotion System.....  | 211            |
| Principles of Promotion .....  | 212            |
| Principle of Seniority.....  | 212            |
| The Principle of Merit .....   | 213            |
| Methods of Testing Merit .....   | 214            |
| A. Promotional Examination .....   | 214            |
| B. Efficiency Ratings or Service Records .....   | 214            |
| C. Personal Judgement of the Head.....   | 215            |
| Appendix to Chapter 12 Cadre System and PositionClassification Compared..... | 217-231 |
| The Concept of Service .....   | 217            |
| Position Classification .....  | 218            |
| Service Concept and Position Classification .....  | 219            |
| Some Fallacies .....   | 221            |
| Latral Entry.....  | 223            |
| Conclusion .....   | 229            |
| Chapter 13 Financial Administration .....   | 232-257 |
| Meaning of Financial Administration .....  | 232            |
| The Concept of Budget .....  | 233            |
| Evolution of Budgetary Thought.....  | 235            |
| Economic and Social Implications of Budget .....   | 235            |
| Budgetary Processes .....  | 236            |
| Budget Types .....   | 238            |
| Accounts and Audit .....   | 244            |
| Standards of Public Accounting .....   | 245            |

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| Accounting in India.....                       | 247 |
| Separation of Accounts and Audit.....          | 248 |
| Audit, Pre-Audit and Post-Audit.....           | 249 |
| Functions of an Auditor.....                   | 249 |
| Comptroller and Auditor-General of India ..... | 250 |
| Functions.....                                 | 251 |
| Audit of Expenditures .....                    | 252 |
| Audit Against Rules and Orders .....           | 253 |
| Audit Against Propriety .....                  | 253 |
| Zero-Base Budgeting (ZBB).....                 | 253 |
| Fifth Central Pay Commission.....              | 255 |