

361
RULERS OF INDIA

LORD CLIVE

COLONEL G. B. MALLESON

S. CHAND & CO.

DELHI — NEW DELHI — BOMBAY
JULLUNDUR — LUCKNOW

CONTENTS

CHAPTER	PAGES
I. Early Year ...	1—6
II. Southern India in 1744 ...	7—12
III. How the War in the Karnatik affected the French and English Settlements ...	13—20
IV. How the Fortunes of Robert Clive were affected by the Hostilities between the French and English in Southern India ...	21—29
V. Clive decides for the Career of a Soldier ...	30—37
VI. The First Year of Soldiering at Trichinopoli and Arcot ...	38—45
VII. 'The Swell and Dash of a Mighty Wave' ...	46—58
VIII. Clive in England ; and in Bengal ...	59—71
IX. The Battle of Plassey ...	72—85
X. How Clive dealt with the Spoils of Plassey : his dealings with Mir Jafar ; with the Princes of Southern India ; with the Dutch ...	86—112
XI. The Second Visit of Clive to England ..	113—122

CHAPTER		PAGES
XII.	The Reign of Misrule in Bengal ...	123—130
XIII.	The Purifying of Bengal ...	131—141
XIV.	The Political and Foreign Policy of Lord Clive : His Army-Adminis- tration and its consequences ...	142—159
XV.	The Return of the Conqueror- Statesman, and the Reception accorded to him by his Country- men : his Struggles ; and his Death ...	160—178
