

SALESMANSHIP AND PUBLICITY

4039

DR. RUSTOM S. DAVAR
Principal
Davar's College of Commerce

TENTH EDITION

Progressive Corporation Private Ltd
Bombay — Madras
1974

CONTENTS

Preface

Preface to First Edition

v

vii

Part 1—Sales Organisation

1. MARKETING AND THE SELLING EFFORT ... 3
The Nature of Marketing—Elements of the Marketing Mix—The Selling Efforts—Selling Under the Marketing Concept—Interdependence of Salesmanship and Advertising—Origin and Development of Salesmanship—Ancient Origin—Origin of the Markets—Origin of the Travelling Salesman—Emergence of Shops—The Influence of Guilds—The Commercial Adventurer—Emergence of Honesty in Selling—The Dropping of “Buyer Beware” Philosophy—What Is Salesmanship—Salesmanship Defined—Is Salesmanship a Science, an Art or a Profession—Psychology in Selling—The Sales Takes Place in the Mind of the Customer—Selling Is a Buying Process—Creative Salesmanship—How to Sell Creatively—Competitive Salesmanship—Selling and Distributing—The Customer Is Always Right.

2. DISTRIBUTION—IMPORTANCE AND METHODS 26
Importance of Distribution—Selection of Appropriate Channel—Channels of Distribution—Chart Showing Channels of Distribution—Selling Through the Wholesaler—How Wholesalers Help Manufacturers—How Wholesalers Help Retailers—Is the Wholesaler Necessary?—Granting Sole Agencies—Selling Through Retailers—The Department Store—Selling Direct to the Multiple or Chain Shops—Direct Mail Selling and Mail Order Business—Creating and Maintaining Demand—Place of Salesmanship in Modern Distribution—Place of Publicity in Modern Distribution.

3. SALES ORGANISATION	...
Marketing and Sales Management—Selling Through One's Own Organisation and Through Agents— Organisation of Sales Department —Telephone in the Sales Office— Sales Routine —Dealing with Incoming Mail—Handling Customers' and Travellers' Orders—Packing and Shipping— Control of Sales Operations —Accounts Department—Collection and Credit Department—Instalment Selling— Legal Aspects of Sale —Contract of Sale—Sale by Description or by Sample.
4. DUTIES OF THE SALES MANAGER AND CONTROL OF SALESMEN	...
Sales Management Functions—Selling Vs. Managing— Duties of the Sales Manager —Essentials of Sales Supervision— Methods for Control of Salesman —Personal Supervision—Correspondence—Salesmen's Reports and Their Uses—Types of Report Forms—Competition Avoiding Salesmen's Obsolescence—Management of Salesmen's Time.
5. SELECTION OF SALESMEN	...
The Number of Salesmen Required— The Qualities Necessary for Good Salesmanship — Manpower Planning — Selection Procedure —Job Analysis, Job Description & Man Specification—Sources of Recruitment of Salesmen—The Questionnaire or Application Blank—Personal Interview—The Skilled Interview—Psychological and Personality Tests—Checking References—Medical Examination—The Final Decision.
6. TRAINING OF SALESMEN	...
Advantages of Training— Types of Training —Initial or Break-in Training—Continuous or Field Coaching—Stimulation Training (Motivation of Salesman)—	72

The Training Plan —The Training Objectives—What Should Be Taught? (The Subject-matter)—Where Should Training be Given?—Centralised Vs Decentralised Training—When Should Training be Given—Who Gives the Training—The Training Formula or How Training Should be Given—Group Training Methods—Visual-Aids Method—The Conference Method—Discussion, Panel, Case Study, Role Playing and Other Methods.
7. ALLOCATION OF TERRITORIES AND SALES CONFERENCES	...
Allocation of Territories —Factors Determining Size of Territory—How to Get the Most Out of a Territory—Benefits of Perfect Territory Design— Use of Sales Quotas —Demerits of Sales Quotas—Setting Sales Quotas—Routing and Scheduling—Limits of Salesman's Authority— Sales Conferences —National or Regional Sales Conferences and Conventions.	84
8. REMUNERATION OF SALESMEN	...
Terms of Engagement— Methods of Remuneration —Salary and Commission—Essentials of a Good Remuneration System—Quotas and Bonus— Special Schemes —Sales Contest and Prizes—Special Payments for Sales Operations—Profit Sharing—Fringe Benefits—Allowances for Travelling, Entertaining, etc.— Compensation Plan —Setting Up the Objectives—Implementing the Objectives— Remuneration Plan Chart — Non-Financial Incentives, Motivations or Psychic Wages —Developing and Maintaining Morale.	93

Part 2 - The Art of Salesmanship

9. FUNDAMENTALS OF SUCCESSFUL SELLING	...
The Sales Personality —Important Personality Traits (Chart)— Physical Traits —Health—Breath—Posture—Voice—Appearance— Mental Traits —Alertness—Imagination and Resourcefulness—Initiative—Ego Drive—Observation and Memory—Self-confidence—Cheerfulness— Social Traits —Ability to Meet the Public—Effec-	105

tive Speech—Tact—Courtesy—Courtesy Rules for Salesmen—Co-operation and Helpfulness—Good Manners—Avoidance of Unpleasant Mannerisms—Likeable Disposition—Empathy—Character Traits—Honesty and Reliability—Enthusiasm—Industry—Persistence—Improving the Personality.

10. KNOWLEDGE OF THE GOODS ...

Importance & Nature of Product Knowledge—Selling Points or Talking Points—Type of Product Knowledge Required—Methods of Acquiring Product Knowledge—Personal Experience—Libraries—Trade Journals—Consulting the Seniors—Fellow Salesmen—Advertisements—Manufacturer's Literature and Assistance Sales Manual—Sales Bulletin—Salesman's Portfolio—Visit to Factories, Meetings and Conferences—Motion Pictures and Visual Aids—Personal Training Schemes—Correspondence Courses—Questionnaire System—Travelling Demonstrators—Can the Salesman Have Too Much Product Knowledge?

11. STUDY OF BUYING MOTIVES ...

Salesmanship and Psychology—Customer Psychology—Important Buying Motives—Fear—Profit or Cupidity—Vanity—Pride—Fashion—Sex or Romance—Love or Affection for Others—Physical Well-Being or Health—Comfort and Convenience—Curiosity—Habit—Rational Vs. Emotional Motives—Combination of Motives—Selling Points and Buying Motives—The Problem-solving Approach—Patronage Motives—Location—Nature of Goods Sold—Reputation—Attitude of Salesman—The Services Offered by the Store—The Store's Appearance—Practical Illustration of the Sale of an Electric Refrigerator—First Interview—Second Interview.

12. DIFFERENT TYPES OF CUSTOMERS ...

Sizing Up Or Diagnosing the Customer—Character Analysis—Different Types of Customers—Customer Classification by Behaviour—The Silent Type—The Talkative Type—The Argumentative Type—The Disbelieving and the Suspicious Type—The Undecided, Deliberate or Practical Type—The Procrastinating Type—The Nervous, Timid or Shy Type—The Impulsive Type—The Handicapped Type—The Ill-mannered or Rude Type—The Pompous, Vain or Snob Type—The Guileful Type—The Favoured—treatment Type—The Something-for-nothing Type—The Untruthful Type—The Sarcastic Type—The Impatient Type—Different Age Groups—The Young Type or Children—The Middle-Aged Type—The Elderly Type—Women Customers and Their Peculiarities—The Expert Buyer Purchasing for Re-Sale—The Industrial Purchaser—The Group Shopper.

13. TYPES OF SALESMEN ...

169

Selling as a Career—Types of Selling Jobs and the Salesmanship Involved—Main Types of Salesmen—The Manufacturer's Salesman—The Wholesaler's Salesman—The Retail Salesman—Speciality Salesman—The Industrial Salesman—The Exporter's Salesman (and Indent Business).

14. TRAVELLING SALESMAN: RESPONSIBILITIES AND PROBLEMS ...

176

The Sales Process—Main Problems—Prospecting—Prospect Evaluation—Qualifying Questions—Chart Showing How a Satisfied Customer Can Help a Salesman in Securing Prospectus—Fact Finding Interview—Methods of Prospecting—Canvassing or Cold-turkey Calling—Endless Chain or Family Tree Method—Center-of-Influence Method—Miscellaneous Methods—Pre-Approach—Qualifying Prospectus—Money or Ability to Pay—Authority to Buy—Accessibility—A Need—Other Details.

150 15. TRAVELLING SALESMAN: GETTING THE INTERVIEW AND THE APPROACH ...

188

Getting the Interview—Approach for Travelling Salesmen—How to Get the Interview—Methods of Gaining the Interview—Personal Call Without Introduction—Business-Card Writing for an Appointment—Premiums or "Door-openers"—Introduction—Speci- men Letter of Introduction from Common Friend—Specimen Business Card of Mutual Friend with Recommendation Note—Specimen Letter of Introduction from Salesmen's Firm—Telephone—Sales Letter—Types of Approach—The Introduction Approach—The Curiosity Approach—The Product Approach—The Consumer—Benefit Approach—Other Approaches.

16. RETAIL SALESMAN—DUTIES, RESPONSIBILITIES AND PROBLEMS ...

Greeting the Customer—Hand-Shaking—The Opening Salutation—Attitude of the Salesman—Using Questions—Questioning the Customer—Encouraging Customer's Questions—Problem Situations—Entry of Second Customer—Turnover

17. EFFECTIVE SALES TALK ...

Buying Process—Mental Stages—Attracting Attention—Arousing Interest—Creating Desire—Getting Conviction or Confidence—Stimulating Action—Rendering Satisfaction—Sales Talk—Should It Be Standardised and Memorised?

18. SALES TALK-EFFECTIVE PRESENTATION & DEMONSTRATION ...

Presentation Essentials—Promptness in Presentation—Clarity in Presentation—Showing Proper Quantity and Quality—Demonstration—Demonstration in Use—Demonstration of a Specific Feature—Appealing to the Senses—Suggesting Tests—Handling the Goods—Suggestions in Selling—Suggesting Additional Purchases.

19. SALES TALK—OVERCOMING OBJECTIONS ...

*Sales Resistance—Excuses—Dealing With Objections Inoffensively—Objections should be Welcomed—Meeting of Objections Without Offence—Exoneration from Blame Approach—In Good Company Approach—
The Concession Method—The Appropriate Time for Answering Objections—Procedure for Handling Objections—Listening Attentively—Cushioning the*

Jolt—Anticipating Objections—Preventing Objections—Methods of Meeting Objections—Direct Denial or Contradiction Method—Indirect Denial Method —Reverse Position Method—Reverse English or Boomerang Method—Superior Point or Compensation Method—Question or Interrogation Method—Pass-up Method—Unanswerable Objections—Certain Specific Objections—No Room for a New Line—Don't Want to Change—Another Stockist Unsuccessful—
Grievance Against the Organisation—No Demand
Price Objections—Complaints and Claims—Exchanging Goods.

20. SALES TALK—CLOSING THE SALE ... 237

Objectives of the Close—Methods of Closing—Series of "Yes" Answers—Erecting Barriers—Narrowing the Choice—Direct and Indirect Questions—Offering Inducements—Summarising Selling or Talking Points—
The Assumptive Close—Self-Analysis—After-Sales Service.

Part 3 - Publicity

21. PUBLICITY—MEANING AND IMPORTANCE ... 247

Publicity and Advertising—Salesmanship and Advertising—How Advertising Helps the Salesman—Advertising Is Selling—The Purpose and Importance of Advertising—Benefits to Manufacturer—Benefit to Retailer—Benefit to Consumer—Advertising and Social Welfare—Truth in Advertising—Criticism Against Modern Advertising—Acceptance of Advertising in India.

22. WINDOW-DRESSING, SHOW-ROOMS AND EXHIBITIONS ... 260

Forms of Publicity—Uses, Advantages and Limitations—Store Display—Shop Front and Shop Sign—Window Displaying and Window-Dressing—Position of the Window—Window Frames—Windows' Space—The "Solus" Display—The Related Display—The Window Glass—Lighting and Illumination—Changing Windows—Show Cards and Price Tickets—Interior Display—Exhibitions.

Salesmanship and Advertising

xvi

23. PRESS PUBLICITY
 Newspapers—Magazines—Women Papers—Trade Journals and Class Publications—Foreign Papers—Miscellaneous Types—Circulation—Editorial and Advertisement Sections.

24. OUTDOOR PUBLICITY
 Posters—Railway Stations—Vehicular Advertising—Field Signs—Electric Light Signs—Neon Signs—Sky Advertising—Sandwichmen.

25. PUBLICITY LITERATURE AND OTHER FORMS OF PUBLICITY
Direct Mail Publicity—Publicity Literature or Circular Advertising—Direct Mail Advertising—Other Forms of Publicity—Cinema & Theatre Programmes—Film Advertising—Screen Slides—Radio Advertising—Statement Showing Product-wise Booking and Cost Analysis—Television Advertising.

26. FOUNDATIONS OF AN EFFICIENT PUBLICITY PROGRAMME ... 296
Avoiding Waste and Securing Co-ordination—Necessary Information—Class of Customer—Media Selection and Planning—Have a Written Advertising Plan.

27. PRODUCTION OF PUBLICITY MATERIALS ... 302
Preparation of the Copy—Copy Thinking—Essentials of a Good Copy—The A-I-D-A-S Formula—Attracting Attention—Display Headlines—Headline Writing—Use of Illustrations—Exhibiting the Product—Social Service—Compelling Interest—Creating Desire and Confidence—Suggesting Action—Memorising or Retention Value—Teaser Campaign—Common Faults in Copywriting The Language Copy—The Types of Body Copy—Importance of Ideas in Copywriting—Slogans—Humour in Copy—Keying the Advertisement.

Contents

xvii

28. PRODUCTION OF PUBLICITY MATERIALS—PREPARATION OF LAYOUT ... 321
Basic Elements of a Layout—Illustrative Situations in a Layout—Layout Execution—Reader Getting Layouts—Materials Needed to Prepare Layout—Proof-reading and Correction—Typography—Useful Printing and Advertising Terms—Proof Correction Language.

29. STUDY OF APPEALS ... 337
The Advertising Square—Appeal to Human Instincts—The Human Appeal—Appeal to the Senses—Study of Advertising—Buying Motives and Their Uses in Advertising—Determination of Objectives—Advertising Effectiveness—Advertising Research—Aid to Right Appeals.

30. ADVERTISING AGENCY—NEED, ORGANISATION AND WORKING ... 349
Organisation—The Advertiser Benefits—Own Advertisement Manager—The Cost of Using Advertising Agents—How Best to Select the Right Advertising Agency—Changing Advertising Agencies—Getting the Most Out of the Agency.

Appendix I: Revisional Synopsis ... 359
Appendix II: Examination Questions Analysis ... 388

... 393
 Index