

SOCIAL BACKGROUND OF INDIAN NATIONALISM

A. R. DESAI

BOMBAY
POPULAR PRAKASHAN

CONTENTS

PREFACE TO THE FIFTH EDITION	vii
PREFACE TO THE FOURTH EDITION	xii
PREFACE TO THE THIRD EDITION	xiii
PREFACE TO THE SECOND EDITION	xiv
PREFACE TO THE FIRST EDITION	xvi
PROLOGUE	1
Nationalism, A Historical Phenomenon—Nation, E. H. Carr's Definition—Development of National- ism in Various Countries—National Sentiment, Dominant Sentiment To-Day—Nationalism, Spe- cial Field of Research To-Day—Study of Rise and Growth of Indian Nationalism.
I. ECONOMY AND CULTURE IN PRE-BRITISH INDIA	7
Self-Sufficient Village Community—Indian Feu- dalism Vs. European Feudalism—Nature of Village Economy in Pre-British India—Nature of Urban Economy in Pre-British India—Nature of Village Culture in Pre-British India—Nature of Urban Culture in Pre-British India—Religio-Ideological Unity of Indian Culture—Absence of National Sentiment.
II. BRITISH CONQUEST OF INDIA	30
Transformation of Indian Society, A Product of British Conquest—British Conquest, Its Causes— British Conquest, Its Peculiar Features—Its Far- Reaching Effects on Economic Structure of India —Historically Progressive Significance.
III. TRANSFORMATION OF INDIAN AGRICULTURE UNDER BRITISH RULE	37
Indian Feudalism, Its Basic Features—Introduction of Private Property in Land—New Land Revenue System—Commercialization of Agriculture— Breakdown of Traditional Indian Village.

CONTENTS
xx
xiv. SOCIAL CONSEQUENCES OF TRANSFORMATION OF INDIAN AGRICULTURE

Emergence of National Agriculture—Growth of Sub-division and Fragmentation of Land—Effects of Fragmentation—New Land Revenue System—Commercialization of Agriculture—Growth of Poverty—Growth of Rural Indebtedness—Transfer of Land From Cultivating to Non-Cultivating Owners—Rise of Serfdom—Growing Polarization of Classes in Agrarian Areas—Rise of Agrarian Proletariat—Rise of Parasitic Land-Owning Class—Colonial Character of Indian Agriculture—Reconstruction of Agriculture, Its Pre-Requisites.

xv. DECLINE OF TOWN HANDICRAFTS 79

Effect of British Rule on town Handicrafts—Disappearance of States, Patrons of Town Handicrafts—Disappearance of States, Patrons of Town Handicrafts—Foreign Rule, Its Disastrous Effects on Town Handicrafts—Reasons for their Ruination—Decline of Indian Town Handicrafts—Historical Significance of Decline.

xvi. DECLINE OF VILLAGE ARTISAN INDUSTRIES 92

Pre-British Village Artisan Industries—Causes of their Decline—Their Decline, an Uneven Process—Surviving Village Artisans, their Changed Status—Abortive Attempts at their Reconstruction—Decline of Village Industries, Its Consequences.

vii. RISE AND DEVELOPMENT OF MODERN INDIAN INDUSTRIES 102

Development of Modern Industries in India—Brief History of their Development—Emergence of Trusts and Monopolies—Dominance of Finance Capital—British Capital, Its Stranglehold on Indian Economy—Reasons for the Lop-Sided Growth of Indian Industries—Indian Monopolies, their Peculiarities—Pre-Requisites of Healthy Industrial Development—Bombay Plan, Its Limitations—Social Significance of Indian Industrial Development.

viii. MODERN MEANS OF TRANSPORT AND RISE OF INDIAN NATIONALISM 126

Transport in Pre-British India—Introduction of Modern Means of Transport—Their Lop-sided Development—Railways, their Progressive Significance—Prerequisites for their Sound Development.

Index ix. THE ROLE OF MODERN EDUCATION IN THE DEVELOPMENT OF INDIAN NATIONALISM 135

Education, Its Social Significance—Pre-British Indian Culture, Two misconceptions—Education in Pre-British India—Introduction of Modern Education—Unhealthy Reactions to Modern Education—Growth of Modern Education, Upto 1854—From Wood's Dispatch to Lord Curzon's University Act—Third Phase, Upto 1921—Fourth Phase, 1921-1939—Modern Education in India, Main Criticisms—Its Progressive Essence—Indian Nationalism, No Offspring of Modern Education—Modern Education, Its Advantages—Prerequisites of its Healthy Development.

x. POLITICAL AND ADMINISTRATIVE UNIFICATION OF INDIA UNDER BRITISH RULE 166

Absence of Basic Political and Administrative Unity in Pre-British India—Legal Unification—Administrative Unification—Establishment of Uniform Currency System—Unification, Its Chief Defects.

xi. RISE OF NEW SOCIAL CLASSES IN INDIA 174

Emergence of New Social Classes—New Social Classes—Forces Leading to their Emergence—Surviving Old Classes, their Changed Position—Zemindars, their Interests and Organizations—Tenants: Their Interests and Organizations—Peasant Proprietors: Their Sub-Divisions, Interests and Organizations—Indian Kisans, their Principal Movements—Kisans, their Specific Psychological and other Traits—Rise of Modern Indian Intelligentsia—Modern Indian Bourgeoisie: Its Interests, Organisations and Movements—Rise of Modern Indian Proletariat—Modern Proletariat, Its Distinguishing Characteristics—Growth of Working Class Movements—New Social Classes, National in Character—their Consciousness of Common Interests—Uneven Development of their Consciousness—Growing Reactionary Trends in Propertied Classes—Twofold Movements in India.

XII. THE ROLE OF THE PRESS IN THE DEVELOPMENT OF MODERN NATIONALISM

Press, Its Decisive Social Role—Its Absence in Pre-British India—Growth of Indian Press, Upto 1900 A.D.—Its Subsequent Development—Indian Press, Its Broad Political Trends—Its Slow and Meagre Growth, Reasons—Repressive Measures Against Press, their History—Sir Jenkins on Press Act of 1910—Press Acts of 1931 and 1932, their Significance—Three News Agencies—Indian Press, Its Progressive Role.

XIII. SOCIAL AND RELIGIOUS REFORM MOVEMENTS AS THE EXPRESSION OF NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC AWAKENING

Reform Movements, Expression of Rising Nationalism—their Democratic Yearnings.

XIV. CRUSADE AGAINST CASTE SYSTEM

Caste System, 'Steel Frame of Hinduism'—Castes Vs. Classes—Caste System, Its Chief Features—Growing Disintegration of Caste System, Causes—Impact of New Property Relations—Impact of Modern Cities—Impact of New Legal System—Impact of New Social Formations—Impact of Class Struggles—Impact of Modern Education—Impact of Political Movements—Caste System, Its Reactionary Significance—Movements Against Caste System—Movements Perpetuating Caste System—Dual Aspects of Lower Castes' Movements—Future Trend.

221

240

243

XV. CRUSADE AGAINST UNTOUCHABILITY

263

Untouchability, Inhuman Institution of Hindu Society—Depressed Classes, their Strength—Movements to Ameliorate their Conditions—"Neutrality" Policy of Britain, Its Criticism—Impact of New Economic Forces—Impact of Modern Education—Impact of Nationalist Movement—Prerequisites of Abolishing Untouchability.

XVI. MOVEMENT FOR THE EMANCIPATION OF WOMEN

273

Woman, her low position in pre-British India—New Economic Forces, their Impact on her Status—Movements to elevate their Status—Struggles for Right to Education—Women's Participation in Politics—their Participation in Class Struggles.

XVII. RELIGIOUS REFORM MOVEMENTS AMONG HINDUS AND MUSLIMS

281

Religious Reform Movement, Expression of National Awakening—"Appeal to Past", Its Real Significance—Medievalism Vs. Liberalism—Religio-Reform Movement, Its All-Embracing Scope—Similar Developments in Europe—Brahmo Samaj Movement—Prarthana Samaj—Arya Samaj—Ramakrishna Mission Movement—Theosophy—Religious Reforms by Eminent Political Leaders—Materialism, Its Near-Absence in India—Early Religio-Reform Movements, their Progressive Significance—Growth of Rationalism and Materialism—National Awakening Among Muslims, Reasons for its Slower Growth—Ahmadiya Movement—Aligarh Movement—Sir Mahmud Iqbal—Other Muslim Reform Movements—Religio-Reform Movements, their Reactionary Role in Subsequent Period.

XVIII. RISE OF POLITICAL MOVEMENTS AS THE EXPRESSION OF INDIAN NATIONALISM

307

Political Nationalism, Outcome of Foreign Domination—First Sproutings—Revolt of 1857, Its Causes—Character and Significance of the Revolt—New Strategy of British Rule—Its Consequences—Principal Events Between 1857 and 1885—Disastrous Famines and Peasant Uprisings—Ilbert Bill—Growing Discontent and New Leadership—Hume's Feeling for "Safety Valve"—Founding of Indian National Congress—Liberal Leadership, Its Principles and Methods—Its Progressive Role—Unfulfilled Demands—Growing Disillusionment—Emergence of Militant Nationalist Leadership—"Swadeshi and Boycott"—Jawaharlal Nehru on Militant Nationalism—Militant Nationalists, their Chief Activities—Congress Split in 1907—Morley-Minto Reforms and After—Rise of Terrorist and Revolutionary Movements—Montagu-Chelmsford Reforms—Jallianwalla Bagh Tragedy—Epoch of Gandhi and Gandhism—N. C. O. Movement—Withdrawal of N. C. O. Movement, Its Results—Formation of Swaraj Party—Growth of Communal Tensions—Growth of Socialist and Communist Ideas—from Boycott of Simon Commission to Lahore Congress—Complete Independence, Declared Objective—Civil Disobedience Movement—Gandhi-Irwin Pact—Revival of C. D. Movement—Lessons of C. D. Movement—Limitations of Gandhi and Gandhism—Rise of Radical Organizations—Congress Ministries in Provinces—Rift Between Gandhi and Subhas Bose.

XIX. PROBLEM OF NATIONALITIES AND MINORITIES

Problem of Nationalities and Minorities in India—Genetic Causes of Rise of Nationalities—Nation and National Minority, their Differences—Indian Nationalist Movement, Its Peculiarities—Awakening of Dormant Nationalities—Two Contradictory Tendencies at Work—Indian Muslims, A National Minority—Communalism Among Muslims, Reasons—Late Awakening Among Them, Reasons—Sir Syed Ahmed and Muslim Awakening—Muslim League, Its Communal and Upper Class Character—British Strategy of "Communities, Classes and Interests"—Its Criticism—Growing Militancy Among Muslims After 1912—Khilafat and Hijrat Movements—Communalism, Its Real Essence—Fourteen Points of Jinnah—Jinnah's Criticism of Congress Governments—Muslim League Demands Pakistan—Other Muslim Organizations—History of Idea of Pakistan—Views of Various Parties and Leaders on Pakistan—Leaders of Indian National Congress—Congress Socialist Party—Indian Liberals—Hindu Mahasabha—Dr. Ambedkar—Communist Party of India—Problem of Nationalities, Prerequisites of its Progressive Solution.

381

EPILOGUE	432
Nationalism in India, Its Chief Phases—First Phase—Second Phase—Third Phase—Fourth Phase—Fifth Phase—Perspective.
BIBLIOGRAPHY	443
INDEX	453

REFERENCES

THE references in the footnotes are to authors and page numbers only. The books to which the notes refer are listed in the Bibliography on page 443.

Where more than one book by the same author is referred to, the page reference is preceded by a bracketed number indicating the sequence in which the titles appear under the author's name in the Bibliography.