

THE CRISIS
OF CHANGING INDIA

Edited by
VED DAN SUDHIR

NATIONAL : DELHI

954.04

contents

INTRODUCTION	Ved Dan Sudhir	xi
Part I : The Appraisal
1. Do We Know Ourselves ? The Present Crisis	Dr. M. S. Mehta	3
2. The Sickness of the Spirit	D. R. Mankekar	56
Part II : Education and Development
3. Education and Development	Dr. D. S. Kothari	63
4. The Crisis in Higher Education	V. V. John	70
5. Reclaiming Wastage in Education	Dr. Prayag Mehta	77
6. The Role of the Intellectual in Transitional India	Dr. Udai Pareek	83
7. Student against Revivalism	Dr. K. L. Shrimali	91
8. The Academic Profession in India	A. B. Shah	96
Part III : Law and Change
9. The Constitution of India : A Need for Reappraisal	Dr. L. M. Singhvi	103
10. Social Change in India since Independence—A Gandhian Perspective	Dr. T. K. N. Unnithan	114
11. The Rule of Law	Justice N. S. Rau	123
12. Perspectives on Indian National Integration	Dr. S. L. Doshi	129

13. India in Transition	Yashdeo Shalya	147
Part IV : Political Perspectives
14. South Asia—Changing Perspectives	Dr. S. P. Varma	159
15. India's Political Development and the Challenge of status quo	Dr. Iqbal Narain	174
16. A Crisis of Parliamentary Democracy	Ved Dan Sudhir	179
Part V : Women and Change
17. The Status and Role of Women	Rama Mehta	195
18. Women in Society : Victims of Institutionalized Myths	Narendra Kumar Singhi	201
19. Role of Educated Young Women in Changing India	Kamala Bhasin	214