

The Extremist Movement In India

Dr. J. N. VAJPEYI

M. A. D., Litt. (Alld.) F.R.A.S. (London)

Reader in History

Banaras Hindu University

CHUGH PUBLICATIONS
ALLAHABAD — INDIA

CONTENTS

Pages	Page
Preface	v
1. Extremism in Embryo	1
2. The Birth of Extremism	52
3. The Partition Agitation and The Rise of the New Party (From 1905 to 1914)	86
4. The Role of Lokmanya Tilak and Mrs. Besant (From 1914 to 1920)	135
5. The Birth of the Revolutionary Movement and Its Progress Till 1914	172
6. The Revolutionary Movement (From 1914 to 1926)	204
7. The Activities of the Hindustan Socialist Republican Army and the Bengal Revolutionaries (Form 1926 to 1929)	230
8. The Rise of Socialism and Communism in India	254
9. The Youth Movement and the Demand for Complete Independence	304
References	331
Bibliography	378