

THE GREAT JANATA REVOLUTION

J. A. NAIK

S.Chand & Company Ltd

RAM NAGAR, NEW DELHI-110055

Contents

I. The JP Movement	1
The Background—Multi-dimensional Thrust—Organisational Structure—Phases of the Movement
II. The Tale of Emergency	12
Why was it Imposed?—Tortures of the Political Prisoners—Should We Forget and Forgive?
III. The Emergence of the Janata Party	31
The BLD Ideology—The JP Movement—Gujarat Morcha—Party Efforts—Emergency Experience
IV. The Significance of the Janata Victory	47
Why was the Election Held?—Election Analysis—Significance of the Victory
V. Economic Policy for the Janata	58
A Policy for Agriculture and Agricultural Workers—Industrial Policy
VI. A Foreign policy Proposal	77
For Russia and China—Protocol Policy—Nuclear Policy—South Africa—South East Asia
VII. Reforming the Educational System and Removing Corruption	94
Making Education Job-oriented—Strategy to Remove Corruption—Association of People's Committees—Organising the Janata Party
VIII. The Future of the Janata Party	108
Ideological Cohesion—Solutions of People's Problems—Meeting the Challenge of the Congress—Dangers of the Runaway Freedoms.
Appendices	125
1. The Charter of Demands Presented by JP to the Speaker of Lok Sabha on March 6, 1975.
2. JP's Letter to Indira Gandhi Written from Detention in Chandigarh.
3. JP's Letter to the People of Bihar.
4. The 1977 Election Manifesto of the Janata Party.	