

The Myth of Independence

ZULFIKAR ALI BHUTTO

M.M. College Library
FATEHABAD (Hissar)

London
OXFORD UNIVERSITY PRESS
LAHORE KARACHI DACCA
1969

Contents

| | | |
|----|---|-----|
| 1 | The Struggle for Equality | 1 |
| 2 | Global Powers and Small Nations | 7 |
| 3 | American Attitudes towards Partition and Indian Neutralism | 30 |
| 4 | India seeks American Support against China | 48 |
| 5 | America aids India and ignores Pakistan | 66 |
| 6 | American Policy to bring Pakistan under Indian Hegemony | 79 |
| 7 | Collaboration with India on American Terms | 93 |
| 8 | American Demands and the Choices before Pakistan | 99 |
| 9 | The Indo-Pakistan War and its Analogies | 113 |
| 10 | Relations with Neighbouring Countries and Some Others | 123 |
| 11 | Pakistan and the Vietnam War | 127 |
| 12 | Sino-Pakistani Relations | 131 |
| 13 | Relations with European Powers and Great Powers | 135 |
| 14 | Some Conclusions | 145 |
| 15 | The State's Best Defence | 150 |
| 16 | Deterrent against Aggression | 152 |
| 17 | How to Face the Looming Crisis | 156 |
| 18 | The Origins of Dispute with India | 162 |
| 19 | Confrontation with India | 176 |
| 20 | Epilogue | 185 |