

10798

THE OXFORD STUDENT'S HISTORY OF INDIA

VINCENT SMITH

FIFTEENTH EDITION
REVISED BY H.G. RAWLINSON

954

CONTENTS

BOOK I

ANCIENT INDIA

Chapter		Page
I	The geographical foundation of history ; the physical features of India	1
II	The peoples of India : Stone and Copper Ages ; the Indus civilization ; Indo-Aryans and aborigines : Dravidians ; foreign elements	8
III	Early Hindu civilization : the Vedas ; smṛiti ; the Purānas ; the epics ; Buddhism and Jainism ; caste	20

BOOK II

HINDU INDIA FROM 650 B.C. TO A.D. 1193 : MAHMŪD OF GHAZNĪ

IV	The dynasties preceding the Mauryas : Magadha ; Kosala ; the Nandas ; Alexander the Great	45
V	The Maurya empire : Chandragupta ; accounts of India by Greek writers ; Asoka and his successors	51
VI	The foreign dynasties of the north-west : the Kushān (Kusana) empire : Kanishka ; the Saka era ; art and literature	62
VII	The Gupta empire ; the Hūnas or White Huns ; reign of Harsha : state of civilization ; Chinese pilgrims ; Kālidāsa ; foreign trade	65
VIII	The Mohammedan conquest of Sind ; the rise of the Rājput̃s : some Rājput̃ kingdoms	76
IX	The kingdoms of the Deccan and the Far South	81
X	The Mohammedan conquest of the Panjāb ; Sultān Mahmūd of Ghaznī	89
XI	Hindu civilization on the eve of the Mohammedan rule in Hīndustan	95

CONTENTS

BOOK III

MEDIAEVAL INDIA FROM 1193 TO 1526 :
THE SULTĀNATE OF DELHI

Chapter		Page
XII	Mohammed of Ghor (Ghorī) : conquest of Hindustan, Bengal, and Bihār ; Kūtb-ud-dīn Ībak ; the Sultānate of Delhi ; the Mongol (Mogul) invasions ; end of the Slave Kings	101
XIII	The Khiljī Sultāns of Delhi : Alā-ud-dīn ; the Tughlak dynasty	111
XIV	Decline of the Sultānate of Delhi : Fīrōz and the other successors of Mohammed bin Tughlak ; Tīmūr ; the Lodī dynasty	117
XV	The Mohammedan kingdoms of Bengal, Jaunpur, Gujarāt, Mālwā, and the Deccan ; the Hindu kingdoms of Vijayanagar, Mewār, and Orissa ; literature and architecture ; the Urdu language ; spread of Mohammedanism ; Hindu religious sects	123

BOOK IV

THE MOGUL EMPIRE FROM 1526 TO 1761

XVI	Bābur ; Humāyun ; Sher Shah and the Sūr dynasty	146
XVII	European voyages to India : discovery of the Cape route ; the Portuguese, Dutch, Danish, French, and English Companies ; early settlements	154
VXIII	The reign of Akbar : Todar Mall : Abu-l Fazl	165
XIX	The reigns of Jahāngīr and Shahjahān ; Sir Thomas Roe ; Bernier ; Mogul architecture	188
XX	The reign of Aurangzeb : his treatment of the Hindus ; the Rājput revolt ; Sivājī and the rise of the Marāthās	206

CONTENTS

ix

Page

Chapter
XXI

The successors of Aurangzeb : Bahādur Shah and others, Mohammed Shah ; invasion of Nādir Shah ; growth of Marāthā power ; Ahmad Shah Durrāni ; the third battle of Pānīpat 224

BOOK V

THE BRITISH OR ANGLO-INDIAN PERIOD : RULE OF THE EAST INDIA COMPANY FROM 1761 TO 1858

XXII	Transitional period : conflict of the French and English in Southern India ; Dupleix and others ; Haidar Ali and Mysore	237
XXIII	The English in Bengal : Sirāj-ud-daula ; battle of Plassey ; the Company as sovereign of Bengal	247
XXIV	Bengal affairs : the Regulating Act ; Warren Hastings, the first Governor-General ; the first Marāthā war	257
XXV	Mr Macpherson ; Lord Cornwallis ; Pitt's India Act ; Permanent Settlement and reforms ; the third Mysore war ; Sir John Shore	273
XXVI	Lord Wellesley : fourth Mysore war ; second Marāthā war ; subsidiary alliances	279
XXVII	Lord Cornwallis again ; Sir George Barlow ; Lord Minto I : abolition of trade monopoly	288
XXVIII	Lord Hastings : Nepalese, Pindāri, and Marāthā wars ; Lord Amherst : first Burmese war	293
XXIX	Lord William Cavendish-Bentinck, commonly called Lord William Bentinck : reforms ; charter of 1833 ; Sir Charles Metcalfe and the press	304
XXX	Lords Auckland, Ellenborough, and Hardinge I : first Afghan war ; conquest of Sind ; war with Sindia ; first Sikh war	311

CONTENTS

x

Chapter		Page
XXXI	Lord Dalhousie: second Sikh war; second Burmese war; doctrine of lapse; annexations; material progress	317
XXXII	Lord Canning: the Mutiny; the Queen's Proclamation	324

BOOK VI

THE BRITISH OR ANGLO-INDIAN PERIOD, INDIA UNDER THE CROWN FROM 1858 TO 1947

XXXIII	1858-69: Reconstruction; Lord Canning; Lord Elgin I; Lord Lawrence	332
XXXIV	1869-84: Lord Mayo; Lord Northbrook; Lord Lytton and the second Afghan war; Lord Ripon and non-intervention; local self-government	337
XXXV	1884-98: Lord Dufferin and the third Burmese war; Lord Lansdowne; Lord Elgin II	346
XXXVI	1899-1919: Lord Curzon and his successors	350
XXXVII	1919-39: The Twenty Years between the Wars	365
XXXVIII	1939-45: The Second World War	374

EPILOGUE

INDIA AND PAKISTĀN

XXXIX	1945-9: The Cabinet Mission; Independence	392
-------	-----------------------------------------------------	-----

APPENDIXES

A.	The Queen's Proclamation, 1 November 1858	399
B.	Imperial Message of King Edward VII to the Princes and Peoples of India, 2 November 1908	402
C.	King George V's Message of 1914	405
D.	The King's Proclamation, 25 December 1919	406
	Bibliography	411
	Index	415