

SURVEY OF
HISTORY OF ENGLAND
SINCE 1688

IN QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

By
PROF. GULATI

PHONE..5446

Malhotra BOOK DEPOT
PRODUCERS OF QUALITY BOOKS

ADDA HOSHIARPUR
JULLUNDUR CITY

Price : Rs. 25.00

CONTENTS

PART I

CHAPTER	PAGE
1. James II and the Glorious Revolution. ...	1—
Circumstances and causes (1—7), Events (8—9), Significance (10—16), Why Glorious? (17—20), Nature (21—26).
2. The Reign of William III and Mary (1689—1702). ...	28—5
Bill of Rights (28—29), Significance (29—33), Other Legislative Measures (34—35), Act of Settlement (35—39), Domestic Policy of William III (39—42), Foreign Policy (42—46), Achieve- ments of William III (46—52).
3. The Reign of Queen Anne (1702—1714) ...	53—85
Character (53), War of Spanish Succession (54—64), Treaty of Utrecht (65—70), Union of England (71—80), Augustan Age of Queen Anne (81—87).
4. The Hanoverian Succession—its Political and Constitutional Importance ...	90—137
Succession of George I (90—92), Character of George I (92—93), Events of his reign (93), Jaco- bite Rising (93—96), The Septennial Act (97), The South Sea Bubble (97—98), Foreign Policy of George I (99—100), Significance of Hanoverian Succession (100—106), Office of Prime Minister (106—108), George II (108—109), Jenkin's Ear War (110—112), War of Austrian Succession (112—114), Seven Years' War (114—120), Jaco- bin Revolt of 1745 (120—123), Whig Ascendancy (124—135).
5. Sir Robert Walpole and Pitt the Elder ...	138—163
Career (138), Character (139), Prime Minister (140), Financial Policy (145), Jenkin's Ear War (148), Walpole and Political Stagnation (151— 152), Career of Pitt the Elder (152) Achievements (155—158), Character (158—160), Comparison of Pitt to Walpole (161—163).
6. Origin and Growth of Cabinet System and Party System. ...	164—176
Cabinet System (164—170), Origin and Growth of Party System (171—176).
6B. Trade and War in the Eighteenth Century ...	177—184
Trade Wars (178—181), War of English Succession (181—184).

CHAPTER	PAGES
7. The Methodist Revival ...	185—192
The Methodist Movement (185—188), Effects (189—191), Defects (191—192).
✓ 8. George III. ...	193—220
Character of George III (193—196), George III and his Personal Rule (197—205), Circumstances favouring Personal Rule (205—208), End of Personal Rule (209—211), Effects (211—214), Instances of Personal Rule (214—215), Case of John Wilkes (215—219).
✓ 9. The End of Old Colonial System and American War of Independence. ...	221—267
Old Colonial System (221—224), Features (223—226), Causes of American War of Independence (226—232), Immediate Cause (232—235), Stamp Act (233—235), Boston Massacre (236), Congress of Philadelphia (237), Events (238—243), Treaty of Versailles (244—245), Significance of the American War of Independence (246—252), Was this War inevitable? (252—255), Causes of English failure and success of the Americans (256—260), Views of British statesmen (260—264).
10. Pitt the Younger. ...	1—52
Career and administration of Pitt the Younger (1—9), Foreign Policy of Pitt the Younger (9—13), Pitt's Irish Policy (13—15), Achievements of Pitt (16—21), The Pilot who weathered the storm (21—29), Misguided and reactionary (29—35), Comparison of the two Pitts (36—46), Comparison between Charles James Fox and Pitt the Younger (46—51).
11. England in the Eighteenth Century. ...	53—70
Social Life of the people (53—59), Transport and communication (59—62), Intellectual Progress and literary developments (62—66), Conditions in the 2nd half of the 18th century (67—69).
✓ 12. The French Revolution. ...	71—106
Causes of French Revolution—Political (71—75), Social Causes (76—79), Intellectual Causes (80—84), Economic Causes (85—86), Course of the French Revolution (86—90), Effect of the French Revolution—Influence on England (91—98), Effect on France (99—100), Effect on Ireland (101), Effects on Europe (101—103),

CHAPTER

Influence in the social sphere (103), Economic sphere (104).

- 13. Napoleon Bonaparte and Anglo-French Wars. ... 107—165
 Career of Napoleon (107—112), Anglo-French Wars upto the Peace of Amiens (112—119), Napoleonic Wars from 1803—1815, (119—122), Tilsit Treaty (122), Peninsular War, (124—127), Continental System—Napoleonic efforts (129), British Counter Measures (129), Napoleon's efforts to enforce the Continental System (130—131), Causes of the failure of the System (131—133), Effects on England (134), Effects on France (135), Coalitions against Napoleon (136—144), Reasons for the downfall of Napoleon (141—146), Role of British Navy in the defeat of Napoleon (147—151), Battle of Trafalgar (148), Causes of British success and French failure (149—151), Peace without plenty (151—159), Character of Napoleon—as statesman and as an administrator (159—165).
- 14. Congress of Vienna. ... 166—179
 Personnel of the Congress (167), Main task (168), Limitations (168), Territorial Arrangements (169), Principle of Compensation (172), Abolition of Slave trade (172), Alliance of Autocrats (173), Far-reaching effects (173), Defects of Vienna Settlement (173—178).
- 15. Anglo-Irish Relations. ... 180—213
 Anglo-Irish relations upto 1603 (180—184), under Stuarts [1603—88] (185—187), from 1689 to 1800 (187—194), Irish Act of Union (194), Grievances of the Irish people (195—196), Solution (196—197), Gladstone and Ireland (198—201), Home Rule (1921) (203—204), Daniel O'Connell (204—206), Parnell (206—209), Sinn Fein (209—210), Comparison of Scottish and Irish Acts of Unions (212), Vengeance of Ireland (212—13).
- 16. Agrarian Revolution. ... 214—225
 Old System (214—217), Factors responsible for Agrarian Revolution (217—220), Effects of the revolution (221—225).
- 17A. The Industrial Revolution. ... 226—244
 Was it a Revolution? (226), Why did it start first in England? (227—229), Revolution in various fields (229—223), Effects—Good

CHAPTER	PAGES
Economic effects (234), Bad economic effects (235—236), Social effects (237—239), Political effects (240—241), Effects on Literature (242—243).	245—268
17B. Castlereagh and Canning. Foreign Policy of Castlereagh—Principles (245—248), Actual Policy (249—253), Estimate (253—256), Canning's career (256), Principles of his foreign policy (257—258) Actual Policy (258), Monroe Doctrine (260), Problem of Portugal (261), Greek War (262), Assessment (262—264), Comparison of Castlereagh and Canning (264—267).	269—292
18. Parliamentary Reform. Defects in electoral system (269—271), Earlier attempts of reform (272), Struggle for the Reform Bill (273—275), Clauses of 1832 Act (275), Significance and defects (276—282), Attempts for further reforms (282—283), Act of 1867 (284), Acts of 1884 (285), Act of 1885 (256), Parliament Act of 1911 (287—289), Act of 1918 (289), Act of 1928 (290).	293—304
19. Queen Victoria. Career and character of Queen Victoria (293—297), Chartist Movement (298—304).	305—326
20. Wellington and Peel. Wellington (305—307), Sir Robert Peel—Career (308), First Ministry (308), Second Ministry (309—311), Repeal of Corn Laws (311—14), Foreign Policy (314), Estimate (315), Most Liberal among the Conservatives (316—318), Betrayal of his party (318—320), Lord John Russel and his policies (321—326).	327—350
20A. Lord Palmerston. Lord Palmerston—Career (327—328), Domestic Policy (329—331), Principles of Foreign Policy (332—334), Affairs in France (334), Belgian Revolution (335), Spain (336), Revolutions of 1848 (336), Italian unification (337), American Civil War (338), Near East (339), Second and Third Chinese Wars (340—341), Polish insurrection (341), Estimate (332—343), Criticism (343), Palmerston and Victoria (344), Character and achievements (345—348).

CHAPTER		PAGES
21.	Liberalism and Conservatism. Gladstone and Disraeli. Principles of Liberalism (1—4), Internal reforms of Gladstone (4—8), Second Ministry (9—10), Foreign and Imperial Policy (10—14), Irish Policy of Gladstone (14—20), Achievements of Gladstone (20—23), Career of Disraeli (24), Second Ministry—Domestic Policy (25—28), Foreign and Imperial Policy of Disraeli (28), Eastern Question (29—32), Purchase of shares of Suez Canal (33), Achievements of Disraeli (34—36), Comparison of Gladstone and Disraeli (36—42), Career of Lord Salisbury (43), Foreign Policy (43—47), Domestic Policy (47), Estimate (48).	... 1—49
22.	A New Economic Policy : Origin and Extension of Free Trade. Factors responsible for the change in the Policy towards Trade (51—54), Free Trade Movement (54), Richard Cobden and John Bright on the Repeal of Corn Laws (56—59).	... 50—59
23.	Social Advance in the 19th Century—Factory Legislation Factory Legislation (60—64), Social Legislation (64—68), Trade Union Movement (68—71), History of Education (71—75), Labour Party and Social Legislation (76—79).	... 60—80
24.	The New Colonial Policy—Lord Durham's Report. The New Empire 1873 to 1920 and the British Commonwealth of Nations. New Colonial Policy (80—83), Evolution of New Colonial Policy (83—84), Results (85), Durham's Report (86—89), Significance (89—90), New Empire (90—99), British Commonwealth of Nations (99—103).	... 81—104
25.	Great Britain and the Eastern Question. Meaning of the term Eastern Question (105), Various aspects of Eastern Question (106), Castlereagh's and Canning's Policy and Greek War (107—110), Policy of Lord Palmerston (111—113), Crimean War (114—118), Treaty of Paris (119—121), Effects of Crimean War (121—126) Was it a useless war? (126—128), A chain of blunders (128—130), Russo-Turkish War (131—133), Treaty of St. Stefano (134—135),	... 105—160

CHAPTER	PAGES
Congress of Berlin (136--139), Criticism (139—143, 'Peace with honour' (143—151), Eastern Question from 1871 to 1914 (151—156), Combating of Russian Designs (157—159).
26. Great Britain and Egypt. ...	161—166
Purchase of Suez Canal shares (161—162), Revolt of Arabi Pasha (162), Fashoda incident (163), Egyptian independence (164), Problem of Sudan (165).
27. The Policy of Splendid Isolation. ...	167—211
Meaning of Splendid Isolation (167), Factors favouring this policy (168), Why this policy was abandoned? (169—171), Anglo-French Entente (179—189), Anglo-Russian Convention of 1907 (189—194), Anglo-German Relations (194—200), Naval Rivalry (200—203), Progress during Victoria's Reign (203—210).
28. The World War I (1914—1918) ...	212—283
Armed Peace (212—216), Origins of the war (216), Welt Politik (217), Alliance (218), Bosnian Crisis (219), Morocco Crises (220), Causes of the War (221—232), Immediate Cause (232), Events of the war (234—236), Character of the war (236—239), Question of responsibility for the war (239—249), Versailles Settlement or Treaty of Versailles (249—256), Shortcomings of the Treaty (257—269), England's participation in the war (269—271), Causes of England's success (272—274), Results of the War (275—282).
29. The League of Nations. ...	284—298
Origin (285), Constitution (285—287), Work (288—293), Causes of failure (293—298).
30. Edward VII to Elizabeth II. ...	299—319
Edward VII as Peace Maker (299), Foreign Affairs (300—303), Balfour Ministry (303), Campbell-Bannerman and Asquith Ministries (305—309), Parliament Act of 1911 (309—311), Important events of the reign of George V (311—314), Edward VII (314—316), George VI (317—319).
31. The World War II (1939—1946) ...	320—340
Causes of Second World War (320—326), Second World War—a clash of ideologies (327—329), Events (330—335), Features of the Second World War (335—340).	