

THE TEACHING
OF BUSINESS MANAGEMENT

By
ROGER GREGOIRE
Conseiller d'Etat, Formerly Director-General of the European Productivity Agency

This study deals with the problems, trends and future prospects of teaching of BUSINESS MANAGEMENT in universities and institutions of higher technical education, its practical organization and the conditions required for its development.

A UNIVERSAL PUBLICATION

CONTENTS

Foreword	...	9
Introduction	...	15
Chapter One
Present situation of business management education : general survey	...	56
American schools of business management	...	57
Business training at university level in countries other than the United States of America	...	82
Management studies in higher technical education establishments	...	107
Further training for business executives and managers	...	116
Chapter Two
Organization and structure of courses : attempt at a synthesis	...	141
Aims of the teaching	...	142
Subjects to be taught	...	158
The stages in business education	...	182
Responsibility for business education	...	196
Chapter Three
Requirements for the development of business education	...	212

Adaptation of methods	...	212
The development of research	...	240
Obtaining the necessary teachers	...	258
Conclusion	...	282
Appendixes
I. Some examples of initial training programmes	...	291
II. Some examples of further training programmes	...	328
III. Additional data	...	334