

13878

The First Mrs Thomas Hardy

Denys Kay-Robinson

The First Mrs Thomas Hardy

Denys Kay-Robinson

Sweet passion and the long long pain
Of souls that love but cannot meet again;
Soft longings through sad weary years forlorn—
Oh! tell me that at last
There will be dawn.

M

823.092
—C—V

Contents

List of Illustrations	vii
Acknowledgements	ix
1 Emma Lavinia Gifford before March 1870	1
2 Thomas Hardy before March 1870	22
3 From St Juliot to St Peter's, Paddington	48
4 St Peter's, Paddington, to Max Gate	85
5 The Début of Max Gate to the Year of Tess	117
6 From Tess to the Century's End	144
7 The Twentieth Century	183
8 Assessment	231
Appendix: Florence Hardy and the Giffords	237
Notes and Sources	247
Index	274