

CHAPTER XI

CONCLUSION—LABOUR RELATIONS

Page

Present Problems and Future Prospects:

367

Industrial Harmony — Its Basis — Trade Unionism —
Some Existing Irritants — Lack of Trade Union Philosophy — Trade Unions — Political Parties — Difficulties Created by Political Leadership — Employers' Hostility — Trade Union Rivalry — Wrangle for Power by 'Outsiders' — Recognition of Unions — Difficulties.

A Way Out—Strong Trade Unionism.

Strike-Problem — Strikes — Codes — No Strike Ban.

Compulsory Adjudication — Elimination of Strikes — Adjudication Process — Problems — Absence of Uniform Dispute Settlement Machinery — Lack of Proper Personnel — Time Involved — Management and Labour Litigious Attitude — Non-implementation of Awards—Legal Technicalities — Conflicting Decisions.

Adjudication — Trade Unionism — National Commission on Labour Management Relations—Appraisal—
New Role of the State.

ANNEXURE

401

SELECTED BIBLIOGRAPHY

402

INDEX

419