

Universal Decimal Classification

Theory and Practice

H. BOSE.

M. B. COLLEGE
LIBRARY
BATEHAAAD

13445

STERLING PUBLISHERS PRIVATE LIMITED

Contents

Preface

vii

THEORY

1. Concept of Classification

3

The inception—The concept—The systems—The transition—Analytico-synthetic scheme—The origin—Formative stages—Auxiliary tables—Common auxiliaries—Special auxiliaries—The structure

2. Auxiliaries and Applications

18

Signs and subdivisions—Common auxiliary subdivisions—Special auxiliary subdivisions—Filing order—Arrow mark—Final digits—Parallel division

3. Classes and Characteristics

46

DDC and UDC—Description of classes

PRACTICE

4. Methodology of Classification

89

The quest—The principles—Steps to classification—Conciliatory approach

5. Classification Practice

100

The layout—The procedure—Examples and exercises

RETRIEVAL SYSTEMS

6. Retrieval Languages 127

Classified file—Chain indexing—PRECIS—Cyclic indexing—Semantic problems—Role of classification—Extended form—Postscript

Universal Decimal Classification (UDC) fascicules 165

Bibliography 171

Index 175