

II. Recruitment and Wages :	21
(i) Recruitment for unskilled jobs	21
(ii) Sources of recruitment - Labour Contractor as main suppliers	24
(iii) Basis of employment	26
(iv) Wages	26
(v) Wage variation by site	28
(vi) Wage differential on sex basis	28
(vii) Basis of wage payment	29
(viii) Mode of wage payment	29
III. Working Conditions & Welfare Facilities :	30
(i) Hours of work	30
(ii) Rest interval	31
(iii) Paid holidays	32
(iv) Overtime	32
(v) Medical aid	33
(vi) Accident & compensation	33
(vii) Transport facilities	35
(viii) Creches	35
(ix) Maternity benefits	35
IV. Family and Living Conditions :	35
(i) Nature of family	35
(ii) Family composition	36
(iii) Place of living	38
(iv) Sources through which arrangements for living accommodation were made	38
(v) Condition of dwellings	38
(vi) Facilities available in such dwellings	39
(vii) Cooking arrangements	43
(viii) Recreation	43
(ix) Addiction to alcohol and narcotics	44
V. Socio Demographic Characteristics :	45
(i) Caste and tribe	45
(ii) Age distribution	45
Marriage, Health and Family Planning	47
(iii) Marital status	47

	47
(iv) Age at marriage	47
(v) Incidence of child marriage	49
(vi) Remarriage	49
(vii) Difference between the ages of the respondents and their husbands	51
(viii) Age at the time of first issue	51
(ix) Birth spacing	52
(x) Child birth and mortality	54
(xi) Respondents morbidity	56
(xii) Family planning	56
VI. Economic Status :	57
(i) Distribution of family members according to economic status	57
(ii) Distribution of family members living or not living with the respondents	59
(iii) Income-expenditure pattern	59
A. Family income	61
B. Family expenditure	63
(iv) Savings or deficit	66
(v) Extent of indebtedness	66
(vi) Sources of loan and rate of interest	67
(vii) Reasons for taking loans	70
VII. Conclusion :	70
Appendices
I. Study Team	73
II. A brief note on construction projects under study	74
III. List of Tables	77