

DAVID DAICHES

Critical Approaches to Literature

7440

Orient Longman

809 ✓

→→→→→ Contents

Introduction

vii

PART ONE The Philosophical Inquiry

1	The Platonic dilemma	3
2	The Aristotelian solution	23
3	The poet as moral teacher	50
4	Imitation and instruction	73
5	The vindication of pleasure	89
6	Form and the imagination	97
7	Platonism against Plato	111
8	Science and poetry	129
9	The proper sphere of poetry	143
10	The poet and his medium	158

PART TWO Practical Criticism

Introduction

- 11 The establishment of a critical scene
12 Possibilities and limitations of a method
13 History, relativism, impressionism
14 From appreciation to analysis
15 Analysis in action

PART THREE Literary Criticism and Related Disciplines

Introduction

- 16 Criticism and scholarship
17 Criticism and psychology
18 Criticism and sociology
19 Criticism and the cultural context

Epilogue

Index