
Postmodern Essays on Love, Sex, and Marriage in Shakespeare

Edited with an Introduction
by
BHIM S. DAHIYA

▼
Viva Books

New Delhi | Mumbai | Chennai | Kolkata | Bangalore | Hyderabad | Kochi

28293

Contents

Preface	vii
List of Contributors	viii
Introduction	ix
BHIM S. DAHIYA
Marriage in Shakespeare: A Community Affair	1
LISA HOPKINS
Reading Shakespearean Marriages through Queer Theory	18
SUJATHA VIJAYARAGHAVAN
Marriage and Bastardy: The Relationship between Richard III and Tudor Ideology	38
JOSEPH P. HAUGEHY
Katharina as an Invisible Entity in Shakespeare's The Taming of the Shrew	55
JONETTE LAGAMBA
The Negation of Marriage in Romeo and Juliet	64
R. W. DESAI
'O happy dagger!': Teaching Romeo and Juliet	74
EMILY CARR
Confining Women, Family and Household: Marriage in Much Ado About Nothing	98
ANAND PRAKASH
Hamlet and the Tragedy of Sexuality	107
JOHN O' MEARA

The Shattered Glass: The Story of (O)phelia RANJINI PHILIP	118
'As your daughter may conceive': A Note on the Fair Ophelia ERIK ROSENKRANTZ BRUUN	131
Meting Out Marriage in Measure for Measure JAN M. HAWKLEY	136
Diversity of Marriages Postulated in The Tempest BHIM S. DAHIYA	158
Wedding Interrupted: Women's Political Will in The Two Noble Kinsmen WILLIAM C. FERLEMAN	169
Index	191