

38000

Patterns of Feminist Consciousness
in Indian Women Writers

Anita Desai
Nayantara Sahgal
Attia Hosain
Rama Mehta
Shashi Deshpande

ANURADHA ROY

WOMEN'S STUDIES

Contents

Preface

7

Introduction

9

Chapter I

Repressive Forces

22

Repressive Forces within the Family

25

Sexual Stereotyping

40

Tradition and Culture as Repressive Forces:
The Purdah as an Institution of Female Repression

53

Chapter II

Stirrings of Revolt

70

Interrogating Male Superiority: Cry, the Peacock

72

Unmasking the Code of Female Morality:
Storm in Chandigarh

78

Complying with Gender Stereotypes:
That Long Silence

83

Questioning Female Confinement: *Inside the Haveli
89

Challenging Gender and Class Inequities:
*Sunlight on a Broken Column
96

Chapter III
Resolutions
109

Withdrawal and Psychotic Alienation in *Cry, the Peacock 111

Surrender and Accommodation in Inside the Haveli
and *That Long Silence
117

Revolt and Rejection in Storm in Chandigarh
and *Sunlight on a Broken Column
128

Conclusion
143

Bibliography
147

Index
151