

Powerful Business Speeches

“For all speakers who want to get results.”

How to motivate and persuade — whatever the business situation

JOHN BOWDEN

Contents

List of illustrations	7
Preface	8
1 Deciding whether or not to speak	9
Establishing the audience's needs	9
Matching your process skills	10
Considering personal pros and cons	11
Considering corporate pros and cons	15
Making the decision	19
Summary	20
2 Taking an overview	21
Focusing on the desired outcome	21
Analysing the audience	22
Relating desired outcome to audience	24
Remaining on-message	28
Putting the right slant on it	31
Summary	32
3 Creating a speech	34
Taking a message-based approach	34
Jump-starting your subconscious creativity	40
Mind mapping a speech	45
Thinking like a listener	47
Writing like a talker	54
Summary	56
4 Designing the bookends	57
Finding a captivating opening	57
Using the opening to achieve your objective	58

6 Powerful Business Speeches
Providing a route map	69
Ending on the right note	69
Bracketing a speech	73
Summary	74
5 Adding flair to your words	76
Demystifying the professions	76
Using imagery	78
Remembering rhythm	82
Keeping it flowing	85
Forcing yourself to edit	87
Summary	90
6 Delivering a speech	91
Being conversational	91
Projecting your personality	94
Being heard	96
Summary	97
7 Handling questions	98
Timing question sessions	99
Preparing for question sessions	101
Conducting question sessions	104
Handling difficult questions	107
Dealing with difficult questioners	109
Summary	114
8 Publicising a speech	115
Before the speech	115
After the speech	118
Summary	121
A final word	121
Glossary	123
Further reading	125
Index	127